1 Name of instrument

This instrument is the Nature Conservation Threatened Native Species List 2015 (No 1).

2 Commencement

This instrument commences on the day after notification.

3 List of threatened species

Under section 63 of the Nature Conservation Act 2014 (the Act) I make the threatened native species list of eligible species and relevant categories in the schedule.

Note 1: Section 402 of the Act is a transitional provision to the effect that a species declared to be an endangered species under the former Nature Conservation Act 1980 (1980 Act), section 38 (Declaration of species, community or process) is on the commencement day of the Act, taken to be eligible to be included in the endangered category on the threatened native species list under section 64 (4) (Threatened native species list—eligibility for categories) of the Act.

Note 2: Section 403 of the Act is a transitional provision to the effect that a species declared to be a vulnerable species under section 38 of the 1980 Act is, on the commencement day of the Act, taken to be eligible to be included in the vulnerable category on the threatened native species list under section 64 (5) (Threatened native species list—eligibility for categories) of the Act.

Note 3: The endangered and vulnerable native species in the schedule were previously declared as such under section 38 of the 1980 Act (refer to Nature Conservation (Species and Ecological Communities) Declaration 2015 (No 1) DI2015-88).

*Name amended under Legislation Act, s 60

Note 4: Section 404A of the Act is a transitional provision. Section 404A deems a list made under section 63 to be a threatened species list notified under s91(2)(a). Section 62 of the Act defines a “threatened species list” as a list of threatened species notified under section 91.

Note 5: Section 404A of the Act results from a modification to the Act made under the Nature Conservation (Transitional Provisions) Regulation 2015 (transitional regulation) under section 414. The transitional regulation expires on 11 June 2017 when Chapter 20 (Transitional) of the Act expires as a result section 415.
