1.5 Types of technical amendments under the Act

The following categories of technical amendments are provided under section 87 of the Act:

- (1) Each of the following territory plan variations is a technical amendment for which no consultation is needed before it is made under section 89:
  - (a) a variation (an error variation) that –
    - (i) would not adversely affect anyone’s rights if approved; and
    - (ii) has as its only object the correction of a formal error in the plan;
  - (b) a variation to change the boundary of a zone or overlay under section 90A (Rezoning – boundary changes);
  - (c) a variation, other than one to which subsection (2) (d) applies, in relation to an estate development plan under section 96 (Effect of approval of estate development plan);
  - (d) a variation required to bring the territory plan into line with the national capital plan;
  - (e) a variation to omit something that is obsolete or redundant in the territory plan.

- (2) Each of the following territory plan variations is a technical amendment for which only limited public consultation is needed under section 90:
  - (a) a variation (a code variation) that –
    - (i) would only change a code; and
    - (ii) is consistent with the policy purpose and policy framework of the code; and
    - (iii) is not an error variation;
  - (b) a variation to change the boundary of a zone under section 90B (Rezoning – development encroaching on adjoining territory land);
  - (c) a variation in relation to a future urban area under section 90C (Technical amendments – future urban areas);
  - (d) a variation in relation to an estate development plan under section 96 (Effect of approval of estate development plan) if it incorporates an ongoing provision that was not included in the plan under section 94 (3) (g);
  - (e) a variation to clarify the language in the territory plan if it does not change the substance of the plan;
  - (f) a variation to relocate a provision within the territory plan if the substance of the provision is not changed.

TA2018-05 has been prepared in accordance with section 87 (1) (c).
