

Corrections Management (Prohibited Things) Declaration 2019 (No 3)

Notifiable instrument NI2019-659

made under the

Corrections Management Act 2007, s81 (Prohibited things)

---

1 Name of instrument

This instrument is the Corrections Management (Prohibited Things) Declaration 2019 (No 3).

2 Commencement

This instrument commences on the day after its notification day.

3 Declaration

Pursuant to section 81 of the Corrections Management Act 2007, I declare each item listed in Schedule 1 of this instrument to be a prohibited thing.

3 Revocation

This instrument revokes the Corrections Management (Prohibited Things) Declaration 2019 (No 2) [NI2019-570].

Jon Peach
Executive Director
ACT Corrective Services
11 October 2019

SCHEDULE 1

Prohibited Things

Pursuant to sections 81, 82(2) and 145(2) of the Corrections Management Act 2007, the following items are declared as prohibited things. Approval for a person to have restricted access to certain prohibited things in a correctional centre may be authorised by the Executive Director, or General Manager Custodial Operations, ACT Corrective Services (ACTCS).

- Aerosol pressure spray cans
- Alcohol and alcohol based products (excluding alcohol ‘fat based substances’ contained in toiletries, medicines etc.)
- Bags and cases (non-transparent)
- Blu Tack
- Cameras or other photographic devices
- Candles
- Cannabis (in any quantity or form)
- Chewing gum
- Communication devices including mobile phones
- Currency / Money
- Drug paraphernalia
- Electric items that are rechargeable (toothbrushes, razors, clippers)
- Explosives
- Firearms
- Flammable liquids
- Game console with ability for wireless connection to internet i.e. Playstation, Xbox & Nintendo
- Gang related property and materials
- Glass containers
- Hair dye
- Illicit drugs
- Incense
- Keys (other than privacy / cell keys or visitor locker keys)
- Knitting needles (metal)
- Laptop
- Matches
- Medication (herbal)
- Medication (over-the-counter)
- Medication (prescribed)
- Metal cutlery (personal)
- MP3 players and iPods
- Multi-media items (videos, DVD’s, CD’s, Floppy disks)
- Paint (oil-based)
- Plastic bags and wrap
- Recording devices
- Restricted publications such as pornography and objectionable material
- Rose oil
- Scissors

- Tattooing materials
- Tools
- Umbrellas
- USB storage devices
- Vaporiser, or vaporiser related product (electronic or e-cigarette)
- Watches with mobile phone, WiFi, NFC, bluetooth or data transfer capability (excluding fitness bands and exercise trackers only where the function is explicit)
- Weapons
- Weights (free).

Exceptions for ACTCS employees and correctional centre service providers

The General Manager Custodial Operations, ACTCS, approves restricted access to certain items listed below for ACTCS employees and correctional centre service providers. Further guidance can be found in the Prohibited Things, Restricted, Excess and Non-Standard Items Operating Procedure.

- Keys
- Medication (prescribed) up to the required amount for one (1) day only, where the employee can provide the relevant script on request
- Currency / Money up to $20 only
- Plastic sandwich and food clingwrap used to package the employee's food for the day
- Food for personal consumption during the work day only (Prohibited Things, Restricted, Excess and Non-Standard Items Operating Procedure).