Schedule 1

1. Acting Appointment on conditions

The appointment of an acting presidential member will take effect in the following circumstances and subject to the following conditions:

- (a) The position of a presidential member is vacant or a presidential member cannot for any reason exercise the functions of the position (the vacant position); and
- (b) Either:
 - (i) the president allocates the acting presidential member in their capacity as a presidential member, whether alone or with another member, to constitute the Tribunal or Appeal Tribunal for an application; or
 - (ii) the president provides in writing that, for a specified period, the acting presidential member in their capacity as a presidential member is to undertake the functions of the vacant position.

Note If the acting presidential member also holds an appointment as a non-presidential member, the person does not cease to hold that appointment only because of this acting appointment (see Legislation Act 2001, s 223).
