Copy of Ordinance, &c., to be kept at pound.

11. The Commission shall supply to a poundkeeper and the poundkeeper shall keep at the pound, or at the poundkeeper's premises, if in the immediate neighbourhood of the pound, a copy of the Ordinance and of these Regulations and any amendments thereof, and a copy of such portions of the Gazette published during the preceding six months as relate to the registration of brands or marks used in branding and marking cattle or to impoundings.

Statement of animals impounded.

12. (1) A poundkeeper, upon receiving into the pound any cattle brought there for impounding, shall require the person bringing the cattle to fill in and give to the poundkeeper a statement in accordance with Form 1, and that person shall do so accordingly.

(2) The poundkeeper shall compare the particulars contained in the statement with the cattle impounded, and, if necessary, require the statement to be corrected.

(3) The poundkeeper shall then give to the impounder a receipt for the cattle impounded in accordance with Form 2.

Pound book.

13. The pound book to be kept by the poundkeeper shall be in accordance with Form 3, and he shall enter therein at the time the particulars required of each impounding and of each dealing with impounded cattle, and such other particulars as are required.

Register of brands.

14. (1) A poundkeeper shall keep a register of brands in accordance with Form 4.

(2) At the request of the owner of any cattle and upon payment of the prescribed fees, the poundkeeper shall enter in the register the description, brands and marks of the cattle, the date of entry and the name and address of the owner, and shall give the owner a receipt for the fee.

Feeding and watering impounded cattle.

15. (1) A poundkeeper shall, at least once each day, sufficiently feed and water cattle in his care, and where necessary may take cattle from the pound for that purpose:

Provided that where feed or water cannot, by reason of drought or other cause, be obtained, the poundkeeper shall report the fact to the Lands Officer, and the Lands Officer may give such directions as he deems advisable in the circumstances.

(2) Where the poundkeeper has so reported to the Lands Officer, he shall not, in default of any directions from the Lands Officer, or while acting in accordance with any such directions or any directions given by any officer thereto authorized by the Commission, nor shall the Commission, the Lands Officer or any such authorized officer, incur any liability for failure to feed or water cattle.

Pound to be kept dry, clean and secure.

16. A poundkeeper shall—

(a) keep the pound dry, clean and secure for the due care of cattle;

(b) provide a pen or crush for taking the brands or descriptions of cattle; and

(c) in every case of doubt as to the correct reading of a brand or mark, clip or shave the brand or mark.

Diseased cattle to be kept separate.

17. A poundkeeper shall keep apart from sound cattle all cattle which he knows to be diseased, and shall report to the Lands Officer for directions any disease known to exist in any impounded cattle.

Payment of fees to Collector of Public Moneys.

18. A poundkeeper shall pay to the Collector of Public Moneys of the Commission during the Commission's office hours on any week day, any fees, rates or charges collected by the poundkeeper.

Payments to impounders.

19. (1) The Collector of Public Moneys shall pay to an impounder, on demand, during the Commission's office hours on any week day, any fees, rates or charges collected to which the impounder is entitled.

(2) The Collector shall take a receipt for each amount so paid.

20. (1) A poundkeeper, upon receipt from the owner of any cattle of notice of intention to complain to a Court of Petty Sessions under section 32 of the Ordinance, shall note that fact and the date in the poundbook. Complaint of illegal impounding, &c.

(2) He shall likewise enter in the poundbook the fact of the receipt of the decision of the Court and the purport thereof.

21. A receipt issued by a poundkeeper shall be in accordance with Form 5. Receipt by poundkeeper.

22. At the close of each month a poundkeeper shall prepare and forward to the Commission an account, in accordance with Form 6, of— Monthly account.

- (a) all cattle in the pound at the beginning of the month;
- (b) all cattle impounded during the month;
- (c) all impounded cattle which have, during the month, been released or sold or have died;
- (d) all moneys received by him during the month;
- (e) all moneys due to him during the month;
- (f) all notices of intention to complain served on him, during the month, under section 32 of the Ordinance;
- (g) all cattle destroyed, during the month, the expense incurred therein, and the proceeds of the sale of the carcasses; and
- (h) any deficiency or debt due by the owner of any cattle for fees, damages or charges.

23. The Lands Officer shall authorize the payment of amounts due to persons, other than the Commission, and shall notify the Accountant of the Commission in order that steps may be taken to recover moneys due from owners of impounded cattle. Lands Officer to authorize payments.

24. A poundkeeper shall reply forthwith, to any inquiry addressed to him by post by any member of the public respecting any cattle which are or have been impounded in the pound, provided that the prescribed fee for an extract or copy of an entry in the books of the pound accompanies the inquiry. Inquiries by post.

25. Upon ceasing to hold office, the poundkeeper shall, as directed by the Lands Officer, hand over all property of the Commission in his possession. Poundkeeper ceasing to hold office.

26. The notice of impounding to be given by a poundkeeper shall, where the cattle impounded are branded or marked with a registered brand or mark, be in accordance with Form 7, and shall, where the cattle impounded are not so branded or marked, be in accordance with Form 8. Notice of impounding.

27. The notice to be given in pursuance of sub-section (2) of section 18 of the Ordinance by an occupier impounding cattle on his own premises shall be in accordance with Form 9. Notice of private impounding.

28. Where an occupier detains cattle in pursuance of section 21 of the Ordinance, he shall, within twenty-four hours after the commencement of the detention, give notice to the owner either personally or by post, or, if the owner is unknown, by advertisement in a newspaper published in the Territory, in accordance with Form 10, and may recover such costs of notice as would be recoverable by the Commission if the cattle had been impounded in a pound. Notice of detention of cattle.

29. The poundkeeper shall not deliver any cattle sold in pursuance of section 28 of the Ordinance until they are paid for; and, if they are not paid for within fifteen minutes after the conclusion of the sale, the poundkeeper may put them up for resale and sell them. Delivery of cattle sold in pursuance of Ordinance.

30. The receipt to be given by a poundkeeper on releasing cattle from a pound on payment of fees shall be in accordance with Form 11. Receipt for payment of fees for release of cattle.

31. Strict compliance with the forms in the Schedule to these Regulations shall not be required, and substantial compliance shall suffice for the purposes of these Regulations. Compliance with forms.
