Meat Regulations 1931 (repealed)

made under the

Meat Act 1931

Republication No 6

Republication date: 11 March 2002

As repealed by Act 2001 No 66

Amendments incorporated to 10 March 2002

Authorised by the ACT Parliamentary Counsel

About this republication

The republished law

This is a republication of the Meat Regulations 1931 (repealed). It includes any amendment, repeal or expiry affecting the republished law to 10 March 2002 and any amendment made under the Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 (Editorial changes).

The legislation history and amendment history of the republished law are set out in endnotes 3 and 4.

Kinds of republications

The Parliamentary Counsel's Office prepares 2 kinds of republications of ACT laws (see the ACT legislation register at www.legislation.act.gov.au):

- authorised republications to which the Legislation Act 2001 applies
- unauthorised republications.

The status of this republication appears on the bottom of each page.

Editorial changes

The Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 authorises the Parliamentary Counsel to make editorial amendments and other changes of a formal nature when preparing a law for republication. Editorial changes do not change the effect of the law, but have effect as if they had been made by an Act commencing on the republication date (see Legislation Act 2001, s 115 and s 117). The changes are made if the Parliamentary Counsel considers they are desirable to bring the law into line, or more closely into line, with current legislative drafting practice.

This republication does not include amendments made under part 11.3 (see endnote 1).

Uncommenced provisions and amendments

If a provision of the republished law has not commenced or is affected by an uncommenced amendment, the symbol U appears immediately before the provision heading. The text of the uncommenced provision or amendment appears only in the last endnote.

Modifications

If a provision of the republished law is affected by a current modification, the symbol M appears immediately before the provision heading. The text of the modifying provision appears in the endnotes. For the legal status of modifications, see Legislation Act 2001, section 95.

Penalties

The value of a penalty unit for an offence against this republished law at the republication date is—

- (a) if the person charged is an individual—$100; or
- (b) if the person charged is a corporation—$500.

Australian Capital Territory

Meat Regulations 1931 (repealed)

made under the

Meat Act 1931

1 Citation

These regulations may be cited as the Meat Regulations 1931.

4 Slaughter at an abattoir

A person shall not slaughter at an abattoir unless he or she holds a permit to slaughter issued by the chief health officer, or is a person employed by the holder of the permit.

Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units.

5 Permit to slaughter

- (1) The chief health officer may, on the application of any person, grant to that person a permit to slaughter at an abattoir.

Note A fee may be determined under the Act, s 19B (Determination of fees) for this regulation.

- (2) A permit granted under subregulation (1) is subject to the conditions as are specified in the permit.
- (3) A permit to slaughter shall, unless sooner suspended or revoked, be valid only for the calendar year in which it is issued.
- (4) The chief health officer may, at any time, suspend or revoke any permit to slaughter, and thereupon the person holding the permit shall not slaughter any animal at an abattoir.
- (5) A permit to slaughter may be renewed from 1 January in each year.

Note A fee may be determined under the Act, s 19B (Determination of fees) for this regulation.

- (6) If an application for a permit or the renewal of a permit is refused, any fee paid for the application must be refunded.
- (7) The chief health officer may, on the application of a holder of a permit to slaughter, transfer the permit to any other person named in the application.

6 Importation of meat

- (1) A person shall not import into the ACT meat from—
- (a) a State or Territory to which the Meat Inspection Act 1983 (Cwlth) does not extend; or
 - (b) premises that are not registered premises within the meaning of the Export Control Act 1982 (Cwlth);

unless the meat is imported directly into the ACT from premises approved by the chief health officer for this subregulation.

Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units.

- (2) The chief health officer shall, on an application by the owner or occupier of premises, in writing, approve those premises for subregulation (1) if those premises are maintained and conducted in a satisfactory manner for the clean and efficient slaughter of animals for meat, and dressing, packing and storing of meat, for human consumption.
- (3) An approval for subregulation (1) shall remain in force until the expiration of 30 June next succeeding the day on that the approval was granted or renewed and, subject to subregulation (4), may be renewed or further renewed.
- (4) The chief health officer shall, on application by the owner or occupier of premises approved by the chief health officer for subregulation (1), in writing, renew the approval of those premises for those purposes if, during the period in which they were so approved, the premises were maintained and conducted in a satisfactory manner for the clean and efficient slaughter of animals for meat, and dressing, packing and storing of meat, for human consumption.
- (5) An approval under subregulation (2) or (4) is a notifiable instrument.

Note A notifiable instrument must be notified under the Legislation Act 2001.

7 Notification of decisions

- (1) Where the chief health officer makes a decision—
- (a) under regulation 5 (1) to refuse to grant a permit to slaughter at an abattoir; or
 - (b) under regulation 5 (1) to impose conditions on a permit to slaughter at an abattoir; or
 - (c) under regulation 5 (3) to suspend or to revoke a permit to slaughter at an abattoir; or
 - (d) under regulation 5 (4) to refuse to renew a permit to slaughter at an abattoir; or
 - (e) under regulation 5 (7) to refuse to transfer a permit to slaughter at an abattoir; or
 - (f) under regulation 6 (1) to refuse to approve premises for that subregulation; or
 - (g) under regulation 6 (4) to refuse to renew the approval of premises for regulation 6 (1);

the chief health officer shall, by notice in writing, inform a person whose interests are affected by the decision of the making of the decision.

- (2) A notice under subregulation (1) shall be in accordance with the requirements of the code of practice in force under the Administrative Appeals Tribunal Act 1989, section 25B (1).

8 Review of decisions

Application may be made to the administrative appeals tribunal for a review of a decision of the chief health officer referred to in regulation 7 (1).

Endnotes

1 About the endnotes

Amending and modifying laws are annotated in the legislation history and the amendment history. Current modifications are not included in the republished law but are set out in the endnotes.

Not all editorial amendments made under the Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 are annotated in the amendment history. Full details of any amendments can be obtained from the Parliamentary Counsel's Office.

Uncommenced amending laws are listed in the legislation history and the amendment history. These details are underlined. Uncommenced provisions and amendments are not included in the republished law but are set out in the last endnote.

If all the provisions of the law have been renumbered, a table of renumbered provisions gives details of previous and current numbering.

The endnotes also include a table of earlier republications.

If the republished law includes penalties, current information about penalty unit values appears on the republication inside front cover.
