

Regulations under the Meat Ordinance 1931-1933.

I WILLIAM MORRIS HUGHES, Minister of State for Health, in pursuance of the powers conferred by the Seat of Government (Administration) Ordinance 1930, and the Meat Ordinance 1931-1933 hereby make the following Regulation.

Dated this twenty-fifth day of March, 1936.

W. M. HUGHES
Minister of State for Health.

MEAT REGULATIONS.

Regulation 19 of the Meat Regulations 1931 is repealed and the following regulation inserted in its stead:—

19.—(1.) When an inspector passes meat as fit for human consumption, he shall brand the meat with the prescribed brand, and in the manner prescribed.

(2.) (a) In the case of any carcass, other than a carcass of lamb, the brand shall consist of the letters $\begin{matrix} F & C \\ T \end{matrix}$ not less than half an inch in height, enclosed by an interrupted circle.

(b) In the case of any carcass of lamb the brand shall consist of the letters $\begin{matrix} FCT \\ LMB \end{matrix}$ not less than three-eighths of an inch in height, enclosed by an interrupted circle.

(3.) The brand shall be applied to the following parts, whether separate or otherwise, of the carcass:—

(a) In the case of beef and veal—

(i) on the upper surface of the tongue; and

(ii) on the buttock, flank, outside of the ribs and shoulder of each side of the carcass.

(b) In the case of an unflayed carcass of veal, on the brisket and the innerside of the flank on each side of the carcass;

(c) In the case of pork, on the cheek, hand, loin, and leg on each side of the carcass, and

(d) In the case of mutton or lamb, on the buttock, outside of the ribs and shoulder, on each side of the carcass.

(4.) Any person, other than a Meat Inspector, who brands meat with a prescribed brand, shall be guilty of an offence.

(5.) In this regulation lamb means the carcass or part of a carcass of a sheep up to, but not including, the age known as two-toothed.
