Supreme Court Rules 1937

SL1937-85

Republication No 7A

Effective: 1 November 1999 – 2 April 2000

Republication date: 6 August 2021

Last amendment made by SL1999-26

About this republication

The republished law

This is a republication of the Supreme Court Rules 1937 effective 1 November 1999 to 2 April 2000.

Kinds of republications

The Parliamentary Counsel's Office prepares 2 kinds of republications of ACT laws (see the ACT legislation register at www.legislation.act.gov.au):

- authorised republications to which the Legislation Act 2001 applies
- unauthorised republications.

The status of this republication appears on the bottom of each page.

Editorial changes

The Legislation (Republication) Act 1996, part 3, division 2 authorised the Parliamentary Counsel to make editorial amendments and other changes of a formal nature when preparing a law for republication. Editorial changes do not change the effect of the law, but have effect as if they had been made by an Act commencing on the republication date (see Legislation (Republication) Act 1996, s 14 and s 16). The changes are made if the Parliamentary Counsel considers they are desirable to bring the law into line, or more closely into line, with current legislative drafting practice.

—ORDER 19—

ORDER 19

PARTIES

1 Generally

1. Persons claiming jointly, severally, or in the alternative may be plaintiffs

(1) All persons may be joined in the same action as plaintiffs, in whom any right to relief in respect of or arising out of the same transaction or series of transactions is alleged to exist, whether jointly, severally, or in the alternative, where, if such persons brought separate actions any common question of law or fact would arise.

(1A) If upon the application of any defendant it appears that such joinder may embarrass or delay the trial of the action, the Court may order separate trials, or may make such other order as is expedient, and judgment may be given for any of the plaintiffs as are found to be entitled to relief, for such relief as he or she or they are entitled to, without any amendment.

(2) The defendant, though unsuccessful, shall be entitled to costs occasioned by so joining any person who is not found entitled to relief, unless the Court, in disposing of the costs, otherwise directs.

2. No other action to be brought for same claim

No other action shall be brought against the defendant by any person so joined as plaintiff in respect of the same cause of action unless by leave of the Court.

3. Plaintiffs may be substituted or added

Where an action has been commenced in the name of the wrong person as plaintiff, or it is doubtful whether it has been commenced in the name of the right plaintiff, the Court may, if satisfied that it has been so commenced through a bona fide mistake, and that it is necessary for the determination of the real matter in dispute so to do, order any other person or persons to be substituted or added as plaintiff or plaintiffs upon such terms as seem just.

4. Counter-claim or set-off in case of misjoinder

Where in an action any person has been improperly or unnecessarily joined as a co-plaintiff, and a defendant has set up a counter-claim or set-off, he or she may obtain the benefit thereof by establishing his or her set-off or counter-claim as against the parties other than the co-plaintiff so joined, notwithstanding the misjoinder of such plaintiff or any proceeding consequent thereon.

5. Defendants may be sued jointly, severally, or in the alternative

All persons may be joined as defendants against whom the right to any relief is alleged to exist, whether jointly, severally, or in the alternative, and judgment may be given against any of the defendants as are found to be liable according to their respective liabilities, without any amendment.

6. Defendant having only partial interest

It shall not be necessary that every defendant shall be interested as to all the relief prayed for, or as to every cause of action included in any proceeding against him or her, but the Court may make such order as appears just to prevent any defendant from being embarrassed or put to expense by being required to attend any proceedings in which he or she has no interest.

7. Plaintiff may join parties jointly and severally liable

The plaintiff may, at his or her option, join as parties to the same action all or any of the persons severally, or jointly and severally, liable on the same contract, including parties to bills of exchange and promissory notes.

8. Plaintiff in doubt may join defendants for alternative redress

Where the plaintiff is in doubt as to the person from whom he or she is entitled to redress, he or she may, in such manner as is mentioned in this order or as is prescribed by any special order, join 2 or more defendants, to the intent that the question as to which (if any) of the defendants is liable, and to what extent, may be determined as between all parties.

9. Trustees, executors, and representative parties

(1) Trustees, executors and administrators may sue and be sued on behalf of, or as representing, the property or estate of which they are trustees or representatives, without joining any of the persons beneficially interested in the trust or estate, and shall be considered as representing such persons, but the Court may, at any stage of the proceedings, order any of such persons to be made parties either in addition to or in lieu of the previously existing parties.

(2) This rule shall apply to trustees, executors, and administrators suing or sued in proceedings to enforce a security by foreclosure or otherwise.

10. Where parties are numerous

Where there are numerous persons having the same interest in the same cause or matter, any of those persons may sue or be sued, or may be authorised by the Court to defend, in such cause or matter on behalf or for the benefit of all persons so interested.

11. Power to approve compromise in absence of some of the persons interested

When in proceedings concerning a trust a compromise is proposed, and some of the persons interested in the compromise are not parties to the proceedings, but there are other persons in the same interest before the Court and assenting to the compromise, the Court, if satisfied that the compromise will be for the benefit of the absent persons, and that to require service on such persons would cause unreasonable expense or delay, may approve the compromise and order that the same shall be binding on the absent persons, and they shall be bound accordingly, except where the order has been obtained by fraud or non-disclosure of material facts.

12. Amendment on misjoinder of parties

No cause or matter shall be defeated by reason of the misjoinder or non-joinder of parties, and the Court may in every cause or matter deal with the matter in controversy so far as regards the rights and interests of the parties actually before it. The Court may, at any stage of the proceedings, either upon or without the application of any party, and on such terms as appear to the Court to be just, order that the names of any parties improperly joined, whether as plaintiff or as defendants, be struck out, and that the names of any parties, whether plaintiffs or defendants, who ought to have been joined, or whose presence before the Court is necessary in order to enable the Court effectually and completely to adjudicate upon and settle all the questions involved in the cause or matter, be added. A person shall not be added as a plaintiff suing without a next friend, or as next friend of a plaintiff under any disability, without his or her consent in writing thereto. and it is not known or is difficult to ascertain who is or are such heir-at-law, or next of kin, or class, and the Court considers that, in order to save expense, or for some other reason, it will be convenient to have the questions of construction determined before such heir-at-law, next of kin, or class is or are ascertained by means of inquiry or otherwise, the Court may appoint a person or persons to represent such heir-at-law, next of kin, or class, and the judgment of the Court in the presence of such persons shall be binding upon the heir-at-law, next of kin, or class so represented.

ORDER 20

THIRD PARTY PROCEDURE

1. Third Party Claim and Form

(1) Where in an action a defendant claims as against a person not already a party to the action (in this Order called the “third party”)—

- (a) that he or she is entitled to contribution or indemnity;
- (b) that he or she is entitled to any relief or remedy relating to or connected with the original subject matter of the action and substantially the same as some relief or remedy claimed by the plaintiff; or
- (c) that a question or issue relating to or connected with the original subject matter of the action is substantially the same as some question or issue arising between the plaintiff and the defendant and should properly be determined not only as between the plaintiff and the defendant but as between the plaintiff, the defendant and the third party or between any 2 of them;

the defendant may issue and serve a third party claim which shall be in accordance with Form 13 or Form 14 with such variations as the case may require.

(2) Particulars of the defendant’s claim against the third party shall be set out in the third party claim and shall be pleaded in accordance with the rules respecting statements of claim.

(3) The third party claim shall be sealed and shall be served on the third party and a copy of it shall be filed at the time of the sealing.

(4) At the time of the service of the third party claim, the defendant shall serve upon the third party a copy of the originating application and of any pleadings.

(5) The defendant shall within the time prescribed by Order 20, rule 2, serve upon the plaintiff and all parties to the action a copy of the third party claim.

2. Issuing of claim

(1) The third party claim shall be issued and served upon the third party before the expiration of 14 days after the time limited for the delivery of the defence or such further time as is agreed to by the plaintiff or allowed by the Court.

—ORDER 20—

3. Service of claim

Subject to this Order, Order 2, rules 18A to 18D (inclusive) and Order 10 shall apply in relation to a third party claim and to the proceedings begun thereby as if—

- (a) the third party claim were an originating application and the proceedings begun thereby were an action; and
- (b) the defendant issuing the third party claim were a plaintiff, and the person against whom it is issued a defendant, in that action.

4. Rights of Third Party in action

The third party shall, as from the time of the service upon him or her of the notice, be a party to the action with the same rights in respect of his or her defence against any claim made against him or her and otherwise as if he or she had been duly sued in the ordinary way by the defendant.

5. Time for appearance

The time for appearance by a third party after service of the third party claim shall be as provided by rule 7 of Order 2 as if the claim were an originating application.

6. Appearances

The third party shall enter his or her appearance in the Registrar's office in the manner prescribed by Order 13 for a defendant to enter his or her appearance and shall, on the day on which he or she enters his or her appearance, serve the plaintiff and all other parties to the action with a sealed copy of the memorandum of appearance.

7. Defence and pleadings after service

(1) After service on the third party of the third party claim, the third party may take the same steps with respect to the third party claim as if it were a statement of claim delivered by a plaintiff.

—ORDER 20—

(2) The third party shall file and serve his or her defence within 14 days after the expiration of the time limited for his or her appearance, and thereafter, the pleadings shall, as between the defendant and the third party, continue as in the case of an action between a plaintiff and defendant until issue is joined.

8. Procedure on default before trial

(1) If a third party duly served with a third party claim does not enter an appearance within the time allowed by these Rules—

- (a) he or she shall be deemed to admit liability for the claims stated in the third party claim and shall be bound by any judgment (including judgment by consent) or decision in the action in so far as it is relevant to any claim, question or issue stated in the third party claim; and
- (b) the defendant by whom the third party claim was issued may, if judgment is given against him or her in the action, at any time after satisfaction of that judgment or with the leave of the Court, before satisfaction of the judgment, enter judgment against the third party in respect of any indemnity or any contributions of a specific amount or proportion claimed in the notice and, with the leave of the Court, in respect of any other relief or remedy claimed therein.

(2) If the defendant by whom a third party claim was issued makes default in delivery to the third party of any pleading, the Court may order judgment to be entered for the third party or may make such other order as may appear necessary to do justice between the parties.

(3) The Court may at any time set aside or vary a judgment entered under paragraph (1) (b) or subrule (2) on such terms, if any, as it or he or she thinks fit.

9. Procedure on trial

Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, where the action between the plaintiff and the defendant proceeds to trial—

- (a) the third party, if he or she has appeared and pleaded, shall be at liberty to appear at, and take part in, the trial of the action;
- (b) the issues between the third party and the defendant shall be tried at the trial of, and concurrently with, the issues in the action; and
- (c) the third party shall be bound by the result of the trial.

10. Judgment on third party claim

(1) Where in an action a defendant has served a third party claim, the Court may at or after the trial of the action, or, if the action is determined otherwise than by trial, on an application by motion or summons, order such judgment as the nature of the case requires to be entered for the defendant against the third party or for the third party against the defendant.

(2) Where, in an action, judgment is entered against a defendant, and judgment is entered for the defendant against a third party, execution shall not issue against the third party without the leave of the Court until the judgment against the defendant has been satisfied.

11. Costs

The Court may decide all questions of costs as between a third party and other parties to the action, and may order any of them to pay the costs of any other, or others, or give such directions as to costs as the justice of the case requires.

12. Fourth and subsequent parties

(1) A third party may make a claim of the nature referred to in rule 1 against a person not already a party to the action (in this rule referred to as a fourth party) and, in relation to such a claim, this Order shall apply mutatis mutandis as if the third party were a defendant and the other party were a third party.

(2) A fourth party against whom a claim is made under subrule (1) may similarly make a claim against a person not already a party to the action, and so on, successively.

13. Service of pleadings

Where the third party has entered an appearance, copies of all pleadings delivered as between the plaintiff and the defendant and the defendant and the third party shall be served upon all parties to the action.

14. Counter-claims

Where, in an action, a counter-claim is made by a defendant, this Order shall apply in relation to the counter-claim as if the subject-matter of the counter-claim were the original subject-matter of the action and as if the person making the counter-claim were a plaintiff and the person against whom it is made a defendant.

15. Co-defendants

- (1) Where a defendant claims against another defendant—
- (a) that he or she is entitled to contribution or indemnity; or
  - (b) that he or she is entitled to any relief or remedy relating to or connected with the original subject-matter of the action and substantially the same as some question or issue arising between the plaintiff and the defendant making the claim and which should properly be determined not only as between the plaintiff and the defendant making the claim but as between the plaintiff, that defendant and the other defendant or between any 2 of them;

the defendant making the claim may serve on the other defendant a notice making the claim or specifying the question or issue.

- (2) Particulars of the defendant's claim shall be set out in the notice and shall be pleaded in accordance with the rules respecting statements of claim.
- (3) A copy of the notice shall be filed forthwith after service and a copy served upon the plaintiff and each other party to the action who has entered an appearance.
- (4) The notice shall be served upon the other defendant as soon as reasonably practicable and shall be answered as soon as reasonably practicable by the other defendant, but no appearance to the notice shall be necessary, and the same procedure shall be adopted for the determination of the claim, question or issue between the defendants as would be appropriate under this Order if the other defendant were a third party.
- (5) Nothing in this rule prejudices the rights of the plaintiff against a defendant to the action.
- (6) Copies of all pleadings delivered between the defendant making the claim and the defendant on whom the claim is made shall be served upon the plaintiff and each other party to the action who has entered an appearance.

ORDER 21

performance or occurrence of all conditions precedent necessary for the case of the plaintiff or defendant shall be implied in his or her pleading.

15. Special matters to be pleaded

When there are pleadings, the defendant or plaintiff (as the case may be) must raise by his or her pleading all matters which show the action or counter-claim not to be maintainable, or that the transaction is either void or voidable in point of law, and all such grounds of defence or reply (as the case may be) as, if not raised, would be likely to take the opposite party by surprise, or would raise issues of fact not arising out of the preceding pleadings, as, for instance, fraud, Statute of Limitations, Statute of Frauds, release, payment, performance, facts showing illegality, any statutory provision requiring contracts to be in, or to be evidenced by, writing, either by any law or at common law.

16. No departure

No pleading (not being a petition or summons) shall, except by way of amendment, raise any new ground of claim, or contain any allegation of fact inconsistent with the previous pleadings of the party pleading the same.

17. Denial of allegations to be specific

It shall not be sufficient for a defendant in his or her statement of defence to deny generally the grounds alleged by the statement of claim, or for a plaintiff in his or her reply to deny generally the grounds alleged in a defence by way of counter-claim, but each party must deal specifically with each allegation of fact of which he or she does not admit the truth, except damages.

19. Denial to be substantial answer

When a party in any pleading denies an allegation of fact in the previous pleading of the opposite party, he or she must not do so evasively, but must answer the point of substance. Thus, if it is alleged that he or she received a certain sum of money, it shall not be sufficient to deny that he or she received that particular amount, but he or she must deny that he or she received that sum or any part thereof, or else set out how much he or she received. If an allegation is made with divers circumstances, it shall not be sufficient to deny it along with those circumstances.

20. Effect of denial of contract

When a contract, promise, or agreement is alleged in any pleading or particulars, a bare denial of the same by the opposite party shall be construed only as a denial in fact of the express contract, promise, or agreement alleged, or of the matters of fact from which the same may be implied by law, and not as a denial of the legality or sufficiency in law of such contract, promise, or agreement, whether with reference to the Statute of Frauds or otherwise.

21. Contents of document

Whenever the contents of any document are material, it shall be sufficient in any pleading to state the effect thereof as briefly as possible, without setting out the whole or any part thereof unless the precise words of the document or any part thereof are material.

23. Of notice

Whenever it is material to allege notice to any person of any fact, matter, or thing, it shall be sufficient to allege such notice as a fact, unless the form or the precise terms of such notice or the circumstances from which such notice is to be inferred are material.

24. Of implied contract or relation

Whenever any contract or any relation between any persons is to be implied from a series of letters or conversations, or otherwise from a number of circumstances, it shall be sufficient to allege such contract or relation as a fact, and to refer generally to such letters, conversations, or circumstances without setting them out in detail. If in such case the person so pleading desires to rely in the alternative upon more contracts or relations than one as to be implied from such circumstances, he or she may state the same in the alternative.

25. Presumptions of law

A party need not in any pleading allege any matter of fact which the law presumes in his or her favour or as to which the burden of proof lies upon the other side, unless the same has first been specifically denied (e.g.—consideration for a bill of exchange where the plaintiff sues only on the bill, and not for the consideration as a substantive ground of claim).

—ORDER 24—

26. Actions for trespass

(1) In actions for trespass to land the close or place in which the trespass is alleged to have been committed must be designated in the statement of claim by name or abuttals or other description, or by a plan drawn in the margin.

(2) If the land is subject to the provisions of the Land Titles Act 1925, the reference to the certificate of title in which the land is comprised shall be specified.

27. Technical objection

No technical objection shall be raised to any pleading on the ground of any alleged want of form.

28. Striking out scandals and matters tending to embarrass or delay

The Court may, at any stage of the proceedings, order to be struck out or amended any matter in any indorsement or pleading which is unnecessary or scandalous, or may tend to prejudice, embarrass, or delay the fair trial of the action, and may in any such case, if it or he or she thinks fit, order the costs of the application to be paid as between solicitor and client.

ORDER 24

STATEMENT OF CLAIM

2. Probate actions

In Probate actions the plaintiff shall, unless otherwise ordered by the Court, deliver his or her statement of claim within 6 weeks from the entry of appearance by the defendant, or from the time limited for his or her appearance, in case he or she has made default, but where the defendant has appeared the plaintiff shall not be compelled to deliver it until the expiration of 8 days after the defendant has filed his or her affidavit as to scripts.

3. Alteration of claim without amendment of writ

Whenever a statement of claim is delivered, the plaintiff may therein alter, modify, or extend his or her claim without any amendment of the originating application.

4. Specific relief to be claimed

Every statement of claim shall state specifically the relief which the plaintiff claims, either simply or in the alternative, and it shall not be necessary to ask for further or other relief, which may always be given, as the Court thinks just, to the same extent as if it had been asked for. The same rule shall apply to any counter-claim made, or relief claimed by the defendant, in his or her defence.

5. Several claims and defences

Where the plaintiff seeks relief in respect of several distinct claims or causes of complaint founded upon separate and distinct grounds, they shall be stated, as far as may be, separately and distinctly. The same rule shall apply where the defendant relies upon several distinct grounds of defence, set-off, or counter-claim founded upon separate and distinct facts.

6. Account stated

In every case in which the cause of action is a stated or settled account, the same shall be alleged with particulars, but in every case in which a statement of account is relied on by way of evidence or admission of any other cause of action which is pleaded, the same shall not be alleged in the pleadings.

7. Probate actions

In Probate actions, where the plaintiff disputes the interest of the defendant, he or she shall allege in his or her statement of claim that he or she denies the defendant's interest.

ORDER 25

DEFENCE AND COUNTER-CLAIM

1. Defence to claims for debt and liquidated demands

- (1) A defence to a claim for debt or a liquidated demand shall not merely deny the debt.
- (2) A defence to a claim for debt by way of denial shall deny such matters of fact from which the liability of the defendant is alleged to arise as are disputed.

1A. Defences to motor vehicle and employment personal injuries claims

- (1) This rule applies to a defence to an originating application where the application is accompanied by a statement under rule 12 or 13 of Order 2.
- (2) A defence to which this rule applies shall specifically admit or deny every material allegation of fact in the originating application and statement, including any allegation by way of particulars.
- (3) Where this rule applies—
  - (a) the defendant shall not plead a joinder of issue on any question of fact;
  - (b) if no admission or denial of an allegation in the originating application or statement is specifically pleaded in the defence, the allegation is to be taken to be admitted; and
  - (c) an allegation in the defence that the defendant does not know and therefore cannot admit a fact alleged in the originating application or statement is to be taken to be a denial.
- (4) Where this rule applies and the defendant wishes to prove a version of facts different from that alleged in the originating application or statement, the defendant shall plead that version in the defence.

- (5) In a defence to which this rule applies, the defendant shall plead every ground of defence to be relied upon, together with the facts necessary to establish each such ground.

2. Bills of exchange etc.

In actions upon bills of exchange, promissory notes, or cheques, a defence in denial must deny some matter of fact (e.g., the drawing, making, indorsing, accepting, presenting, or notice of dishonour of the bill or note).

4. Damages

No denial or defence shall be necessary as to damages claimed or their amount and they shall be deemed to be put in issue in all cases, unless expressly admitted.

5. Representative capacities specifically traversed

If either party wishes to deny the right of any other party to claim as executor or as trustee, whether in bankruptcy or otherwise, or in any representative or other alleged capacity, or the alleged constitution of any partnership, he or she shall deny the same specifically.

6. Time for delivery of defence

(1) Where a defendant has entered an appearance to an originating application including a claim for debt or a liquidated demand, the defence to that claim or demand shall be delivered—

(a) within 14 days after the time limited for appearance in the application; or

(b) within such extended time as the Court allows.

(2) No defence need be delivered if the plaintiff applies for entry of judgment under Order 15.

7. Leave to defend under

Where leave has been given to a defendant to defend under Order 15 or Order 16, he or she shall deliver his or her defence (if any) within the time (if any) giving him or her leave to defend, and if no time is thereby limited, then within 8 days after the order.

8. Time for defence

When a statement of claim is delivered pursuant to an order, or filed in default of appearance under Order 14, rule 11, the defendant unless otherwise ordered, shall deliver his or her defence within such time (if any) as is specified in such order, or, if no time is specified, within 10 days from the delivery, or filing in default, of the statement of claim, unless in either case the time is extended by the Court.

9. Costs of improper traverse or refusal to admit

Where the Court is of opinion that any allegations of fact denied or not admitted by the defence ought to have been admitted, the Court may make such order as is just with respect to any extra costs occasioned by their having been denied or not admitted.

10. Counter-claim to be so stated

Where a defendant seeks to rely upon any grounds as supporting a right of counter-claim, he or she shall state specifically that he or she does so by way of counter-claim.

11. Defence including person not party

Where a defendant by his or her defence sets up any counter-claim which raises questions between himself or herself and the plaintiff along with any other persons, he or she shall add to the title of his or her defence a further title similar to the title in a statement of claim, setting forth the names of all the persons who, if such counter-claim were to be enforced by cross action, would be defendants to such cross action, and shall deliver his or her statement of defence to such of them as are parties to the action within the period within which he or she is required to deliver it to the plaintiff.

12. Service on person not party

Where any such person as is mentioned in rule 11 is not a party to the action, he or she shall be summoned to appear by being served with a copy of the defence, and such service shall be regulated by the same provisions as are contained in these Rules with respect to the service of an originating application, and every defence so served shall be indorsed in accordance with Form 18 in Schedule 1.

13. Must appear

Any person not already a party to the action, who is served with a defence and counter-claim as mentioned in rule 12, must appear thereto, and may be proceeded against as if he or she had been served with a writ of summons to appear in an action.

14. May deliver reply

Any person named in a defence as a party to a counter-claim thereby made, may, without leave, deliver a reply within 10 days from the service upon him or her of a copy of the defence, or within such other time as the Court orders.

15. Counter-claim may be excluded from action

Where a defendant sets up a counter-claim, if the plaintiff or any other person named as a party to such counter-claim contends that the claim thereby raised ought not to be disposed of by way of counter-claim, but in an independent action, he or she may apply, before reply, to the Court for an order that such counter-claim be excluded, and the Court may, on the hearing of such application, make such order as is just.

16. Counter-claim may proceed though action stayed

If in any case in which a defendant sets up a counter-claim, the action of the plaintiff is stayed, discontinued, or dismissed, the counter-claim may nevertheless be proceeded with, and the defendant counter-claiming shall, for all the purposes relating to the trial of the counter-claim, be deemed to be the plaintiff, and the plaintiff or the third party the defendant.

17. Judgment may be given for defendant for balance

Where in any action a set-off or counter-claim is established as a defence against the plaintiff's claim, the Court may, if the balance is in favour of the defendant, give judgment for the defendant for such balance, or may otherwise adjudge to the defendant such relief as he or she is entitled to upon the merits of the case.

18. Notice in Probate actions

In Probate actions the party opposing a will may, with his or her defence, give notice to the party setting up the will that he or she merely insists upon the will being proved in solemn form of law, and only intends to cross-examine the witnesses produced in support of the will, and he or she shall thereupon be at liberty to do so, and shall not, in any event, be liable to pay the costs of the other side, unless the Judge is of opinion that there was no reasonable ground for opposing the will.

19. No pleading in abatement

A plea or defence in abatement shall not be pleaded.

20. Plea of the title unnecessary

(1) A defendant in an action for the recovery of land who is in possession by himself or herself or his or her tenant need not plead his or her title, unless his or her defence depends on an equitable estate or right, or he or she claims relief upon any equitable ground against any right or title asserted by the plaintiff.

(2) Except in the cases mentioned in subrule (1), it shall be sufficient to state by way of defence that he or she is in possession, and it shall be taken to be implied in such statement that he or she denies or does not admit the allegations of fact contained in the plaintiff's statement of claim.

(3) The defendant may nevertheless rely upon any ground of defence which he or she can prove, except as mentioned in subrule (1).

21. Defence of judgment recovered

Where a defendant in his or her defence relies on a judgment recovered he or she shall in the margin of his or her defence state the date of such judgment, and, if such judgment is in a court of record, the number and title (if any) of the proceedings in which the judgment was recovered, and, in default of his or her so doing, the plaintiff may proceed as for default of pleading, and, in case the same is falsely stated by the defendant, the plaintiff, on producing a certificate from the proper officer or person having the custody of the records or proceedings of the Court where such judgment is alleged to have been recovered, that there is no such record or entry of a judgment as is therein stated, may proceed as for default of pleading.

22. Existence of record

On a reply or other pleading denying the existence of a record pleaded by the defendant, a rule for the defendant to produce the record shall not be necessary or used, and instead a 4 days' notice shall be substituted, requiring the defendant to produce the record, otherwise judgment.

ORDER 26

PAYMENT INTO AND OUT OF COURT AND TENDER

1. Payment into Court otherwise than by money or bond

(1) In any action for a debt or damages the defendant may at any time after appearance, upon notice to the plaintiff, pay into Court a sum of money in satisfaction of the claim, or, where several causes of action are joined in 1 action, in satisfaction of 1 or more of the causes of action.

(1A) Where a defence setting up tender before action is pleaded, the sum of money alleged to have been tendered shall be brought into Court.

(2) Where the money is paid into Court in satisfaction of 1 or more of several causes of action, the notice shall specify the cause or causes of action in respect of which payment is made, and the sum paid in respect of each of such causes of action, unless the Court otherwise orders.

(3) The notice shall be in accordance with Form 19 in Schedule 1, and shall state whether liability is admitted or denied, and receipt of the notice shall be acknowledged in writing by the plaintiff within 3 days.

(4) A defendant may, except under the defence of tender before action, lodge with the Registrar a bond in accordance with Form 19A in Schedule 1 given by—

- (i) an authorised insurer under the Motor Traffic Act 1936 or that Act as amended or the Nominal Defendant appointed under that Act;
- (ii) a licensed or approved insurer under the Workers' Compensation Act 1951 or that Act as amended;
- (iii) a corporation approved by the Registrar;

under the seal of that insurer or corporation, or under the seal of the manager or other officer thereof whose general or special authority in writing so to act given under the seal of that insurer or corporation has been filed in the Registry of the Supreme Court. The authority may be in accordance with Form 19B in Schedule 1, and it shall have force and effect and bind the insurer or corporation until notice of revocation has been filed in the Registry. These rules shall then apply as if the defendant had paid money into Court.

—ORDER 26—

(4A) A defendant may, instead of paying into Court a sum of money or lodging with the Registrar a bond in accordance with subrule (4), lodge with the Registrar a security, which is satisfactory to the Registrar, securing payment of the sum to the Registrar in the event that the plaintiff accepts, pursuant to rule 2, the sum secured in satisfaction of the claim.

(4B) Where the Registrar has accepted a security under subrule (4A), these rules shall then apply as if the defendant had paid money into Court.

(5) A defendant who has paid money into Court in accordance with this rule may without leave make further payments increasing the sum paid in by him or her.

Interest up to date of payment into Court

(6) For the purposes of this Order, the plaintiff's claim or cause of action in respect of a debt or damages shall be construed as a claim or cause of action in respect, also, of such interest as might be included in the judgment, whether under section 69 of the Act or otherwise, if judgment were given at the date of the payment into Court.

1A. Payment in by defendant who has counterclaimed

Where a defendant, who makes by counterclaim a claim against the plaintiff for a debt or damages, pays a sum of money into Court under rule 1, the notice of payment into Court must state, if it be the case, that in making the payment the defendant has taken into account and intends to dispose of—

- (a) the cause of action in respect of which he or she claims; or
- (b) where 2 or more causes of action are joined in the counterclaim, all those causes of action or, if not all, which of them.

2. Plaintiff may take out money

(1) Where money is paid into Court under rule 1, the plaintiff may, within 14 days after the receipt of the notice of payment into Court, or, where more than 1 payment has been made, within 14 days after receipt of the notice of the last payment, accept the whole sum, or any 1 or more of the specified sums, in satisfaction of the claim or of the cause or causes of action to which the specified sum or sums relate, by giving notice to the defendant in accordance with Form 20 in Schedule 1, and thereupon he or she shall be entitled to receive payment of the accepted sum or sums in satisfaction of the claim or cause or causes of action, as the case may be.

—ORDER 26—

(1A) Within 14 days after receipt of a notice of acceptance pursuant to subrule (1), a defendant who has made a payment into Court by bond or other security shall pay into Court the amount of the bond or security. If the defendant fails to make such payment he or she shall not be entitled to any advantage under the rules by reason of his or her payment into Court and the party who gave the acceptance may either withdraw that acceptance by a further notice or require the Registrar to assign and deliver to him or her the bond or security for the purpose of enforcement.

(2) Payment shall be made to the plaintiff, or, on his or her written authority, to his or her solicitor, and thereupon proceedings in the action or in respect of the specified cause or causes of action, as the case may be, shall be stayed.

(3) If the plaintiff accepts money paid into Court in satisfaction of the claim or accepts a sum or sums paid in respect of 1 or more of specified causes of action and gives notice that the other cause of action is, or other causes of action are, abandoned, the plaintiff may after 4 days from payment out and unless the Court otherwise orders, lodge a bill of costs for taxation, such bill comprising the costs incurred to the date of payment into Court and such costs as are reasonably incurred in accepting the payment into Court.

(3A) The plaintiff may sign judgment for the amount of taxed costs 48 hours after taxation of the costs.

(4) The plaintiff in an action for libel or slander who takes money out of Court may apply by summons to the Judge in Chambers for leave to make in open court a statement in terms approved by the Judge.

(5) This rule shall not apply to an action or cause of action to which a defence of tender before action is pleaded.

(6) Where money is paid into Court by a defendant who made a counterclaim and the notice of payment into Court stated, in relation to any sum so paid, that in making the payment the defendant had taken into account and intended to dispose of the cause or causes of action, or the specified cause or causes of action in respect of which he or she claimed, then, on the plaintiff accepting that sum, all further proceedings on the counterclaim or in respect of the specified cause or causes of action, as the case may be, against the plaintiff shall be stayed.

—ORDER 26—

3. Payment out of money remaining in Court

(1) If money paid into Court is not taken out in accordance with rule 2, the money shall not be paid out except—

- (a) with the consent of all parties to the action; or

(2) An order referred to in paragraph (1) (b) may be made at any time before, during or after the trial of the action.

4. Several defendants

(1) Money may be paid into Court under rule 1 by 1 or more of several defendants sued jointly or in the alternative, upon notice to the other defendant or defendants.

(2) If the plaintiff elects within 14 days after receipt of notice of payment into Court to accept the sum or sums paid into Court, he or she may give notice in accordance with Form 20 in Schedule 1 to each defendant.

(3) All further proceedings in the action or in respect of a specified cause or causes of action, as the case may be, shall thereupon be stayed, and the money shall not be paid out except in pursuance of an order of the Court dealing with the whole costs of the action or cause or causes of action, as the case may be.

4A. Australian Capital Territory as defendant

(1) Where the defendant is the Commonwealth of Australia or the Australian Capital Territory, it may lodge with the Registrar a bond in accordance with form 19A, varied as is necessary, in the name of the Australian Government Solicitor or the Government Solicitor for the Australian Capital Territory, respectively.

(2) These rules shall then apply as if the defendant had paid money into court.

5. Payment into Court by defendant to counter-claim

The plaintiff or other person made defendant to a counter-claim may pay money into Court in accordance with rule 1, and that rule and rules 2 (except subrule (6)), 3, 4 and 4A shall apply accordingly with the necessary modifications.

6. Non-disclosure of payment into Court

Except in an action to which a defence of tender before action is pleaded, or in which a plea under section 8 of the Defamation Act 1901 of the State of New South Wales, in its application to the Territory, has been filed, no statement of the fact that money has been paid into Court under rules 1 to 5 (inclusive) shall be inserted in the pleadings, and no communication of that fact shall at the trial of any action be made to the Judge or jury, until all question of liability or amount of debt or damages have been decided. In exercising his or her discretion as to costs, the Judge shall take into account the fact that money has been paid into Court, and the amount of such payment, but shall also take into account all other relevant circumstances.

7. Payment in under order

(1) Money paid into Court under an order of the Court shall not be paid out of Court except in pursuance of an order of the Court.

(2) Where money has been paid into Court by the defendant pursuant to an order under the provisions of Order 15, he or she may (unless the Court otherwise orders) by his or her pleading or notice in writing appropriate the whole or any part of such money, and any additional payment if necessary to the whole or any specified portion of the plaintiff's claim, and the money so appropriated shall thereupon be deemed to be money paid into Court pursuant to the preceding rules of this Order relating to money paid into Court, and shall be subject in all respects thereto.

8. Approval of settlement of action by infant or person of unsound mind

In an action in which there is a claim for money or damages by or on behalf of an infant or person of unsound mind suing either alone or with another party, a settlement or compromise shall not be entered into or money paid into Court shall not be accepted without the approval of the Court.

9. Money recovered by infant or person of unsound mind

(1) Money (including damages) recovered, awarded or agreed to be paid in an action in respect of the claim of an infant or person of unsound mind shall, to the extent that it has not been paid into Court or otherwise dealt with in pursuance of an order of the Court under this rule, be paid into Court.

—ORDER 26—

(2) The Court may make an order directing how money (including damages) recovered, awarded or agreed to be paid in an action in respect of the claim of an infant or person of unsound mind shall be dealt with, and in particular, may, by order, direct—

- (a) the payment of all or a part of the money to the infant or person of unsound mind or his or her next friend in respect of expenses incurred by or paid for or on behalf of the infant or person of unsound mind or for the maintenance or benefit of the infant or person of unsound mind, or to his or her solicitor in respect of costs;
- (b) the investment of all or a part of the money on behalf of the infant or person of unsound mind in the manner specified in the order;

(3) The Registrar may, at any time, apply in writing to the Judge for an order under this rule directing how all or a part of the money shall be dealt with and the Judge may make an order giving such directions in relation to the matter as he or she thinks fit.

(4) A parent, guardian or next friend of an infant may, on behalf of the infant, request the Registrar to make an application under subrule (3) for the payment out of moneys invested under this rule or remaining in Court of an amount for the maintenance or benefit of the infant, and the Registrar shall make the application, together with his or her recommendations, accordingly.

(5) A request under subrule (4)—

- (a) shall be in writing;
- (b) shall specify the amount sought to be paid; and

—ORDER 26—

- (c) shall be supported by an affidavit, or, with the consent of the Registrar, a statutory declaration, verifying the amount sought to be paid and stating the reasons for the application.
- (6) Unless the Judge otherwise orders, it shall not be necessary for a person to appear before the Judge in connection with the making of an order under subrule (3).
- (7) Where the Court has not made an order under this rule for the investment of all the money paid into Court, the Registrar shall, on behalf of the infant or person of unsound mind, invest the money remaining in Court in respect of which an order has not been made in 1 or more of the securities in which a trustee is authorised by legislation in force in the Australian Capital Territory to invest trust funds. In making an investment on the security of a mortgage of land the Registrar will observe the limitations and restrictions governing such an investment by a trustee under that legislation.
- (8) All investments under subrule (7) shall form a common fund and no investment shall belong to any particular infant or person of unsound mind.
- (9) The Registrar shall cause to be paid into the common fund all interest earned on investments made from that fund.
- (10) For the purpose of the calculation of interest, money shall be deemed to become part of the common fund—
  - (a) on the day when the money is paid into Court in pursuance of a judgment or order;
  - (b) on the day when a judgment is entered or an order is made in satisfaction or part satisfaction of which the money, being already in Court, is available; or
  - (c) in the case of money in Court on the date of commencement of this subrule, (subject to paragraph (b)) on that date.
- (11) In this rule, the phrase “commencement day” means, in respect of money in Court standing to the credit of an infant or person of unsound mind, the day on which the money, pursuant to subrule (10), is deemed to become part of the common fund.

—ORDER 26—

- (12) The Registrar shall forthwith upon the close of every half-year ending on the 30th day of June or the 31st day of December—
- (a) fix, with the approval of a judge, the rate per annum at which interest is to be credited to the accounts to the credit of which money forming part of the common fund was standing at the close of that half-year; and
  - (b) credit interest at that rate to each of those accounts, as having accrued from day to day from the commencement day or from the close of the last preceding half-year, as the case may be.
- (13) Notwithstanding the provisions of subrule (12), interest shall not in any case be computed on fractions of $1.
- (14) When any sum is paid out of court (not being a sum the amount of which was specified in an order for payment out) it shall include—
- (a) interest credited in accordance with subrule (12); and
  - (b) if the commencement day was after the close of the last preceding half-year, interest calculated at the rate last fixed by the Registrar pursuant to subrule (12), as having accrued from day to day since the commencement day.
- (15) With the approval of a judge, the Registrar may, having regard to the actual rate of interest being earned by the common fund, calculate the interest referred to in paragraph 14 (a) at a rate higher or lower than the rate therein referred to.
- (16) Any interest which, after the due crediting of interest pursuant to subrule (12), is not credited to any account shall be carried to a reserve fund.
- (17) The reserve fund shall be treated as part of the common fund and may, with the approval of a judge, be used by the Registrar—

  - (b) in making good the amount (if any) by which the amount of interest to be credited to the accounts forming part of the common fund during any half-year exceeds the amount of interest earned for that half-year; or

  - (b) shall not be treated as unclaimed moneys.
- (19) This rule does not prejudice the lien of a solicitor for costs.

ORDER 27

If, after a statement of defence has been delivered, any ground of defence arises to any set-off or counter-claim alleged therein by the defendant, it may be raised by the plaintiff in his or her reply, either alone or together with any other ground of reply.

(2) Where there are no pleadings, the defendant shall not, except by leave of the Judge, be allowed to rely on any ground of defence which has arisen after action brought, unless he or she has given, within 8 days after such ground of defence arose, notice in writing to the plaintiff stating the particulars thereof.

2. Defence arising after statement of defence

Where any ground of defence arises after the defendant has delivered a statement of defence, or after the time limited for his or her doing so has expired, the defendant may, and where any ground of defence to any set-off or counter-claim arises after reply, or after the time limited for delivering a reply has expired, the plaintiff may, within 8 days after such ground of defence has arisen, or at any subsequent time by leave of the Court, deliver a further defence or further reply (as the case may be) setting forth the same.

3. Confession of defence

(1) Whenever any defendant, in his or her statement of defence, or in any further statement of defence as in rule 2, or by notice in writing under subrule 1 (1), alleges any ground of defence which has arisen after the commencement of the action, the plaintiff may deliver a confession of such defence, which confession may be in accordance with Form 22 in Schedule 1, and he or she may thereupon sign judgment for his or her costs up to the time of the pleading of such defence, or the giving of such notice, unless the Court, either before or after the delivery of such confession, otherwise orders.

3. Order thereon

If, in the opinion of the Court, the decision of such point of law substantially disposes of the whole action, or of any distinct cause of action, ground of defence, set-off, counter-claim, or reply therein, the Court may thereupon dismiss the action or make such other order therein as is just.

4. Striking out pleadings

The Court may order any pleading to be struck out, on the ground that it discloses no reasonable cause of action or answer, and in any such cause, or in case of the action or defence being shown by the pleadings to be frivolous or vexatious, the Court may order the action to be stayed or dismissed, or judgment to be entered accordingly, as is just.

5. Declaratory judgment

No action or proceeding shall be open to objection on the ground that a merely declaratory judgment or order is sought thereby, and the Court may make binding declarations of right, whether any consequential relief is, or could be, claimed, or not.

1. May be entire or partial

(1) The plaintiff may, where there are pleadings, at any time before the receipt of the defendant's defence, or, after the receipt thereof, before taking any other proceeding in the action (save any interlocutory application), and, where there are no pleadings, the plaintiff may, within 15 days after appearance, by notice in writing, wholly discontinue his or her action against all or any of the defendants, or withdraw any part or parts of his or her alleged cause of complaint, and thereupon he or she shall pay the defendant's costs of the action, or, if the action is not wholly discontinued, the costs occasioned by the matter so withdrawn. Such costs shall be taxed, and such discontinuance or withdrawal (as the case may be) shall not be a defence to any subsequent action.

(2) Save as in this rule otherwise provided, it shall not be competent for the plaintiff to withdraw the record or discontinue the action without leave of the Court, but the Court may, before, or at or after the hearing or trial, upon such terms as to costs and as to any other action and otherwise as are just, order the action to be discontinued, or any part of the alleged cause of complaint to be struck out.

Upon the hearing of the summons the Court may order that the garnishee shall pay to the person who has obtained the judgment or order the debt due from him or her to the debtor, or so much thereof as is sufficient to satisfy the judgment or order, together with the costs of the garnishee proceedings.

5. Lien of third person on debt of garnishee

Whenever in proceedings to obtain an attachment of debts it is suggested by the garnishee that the debt sought to be attached belongs to some third person, or that any third person has a lien or charge upon it, the Court may order such third person to appear, and state the nature and particulars of his or her claim upon such debt.

After hearing the allegations of any third person under such order as is mentioned in rule 5 and of any other person whom by the same or any subsequent order the Court orders to appear, or in case of such third person not appearing when ordered, the Court may order execution to issue to levy the amount due from such garnishee, together with the costs of the garnishee proceedings, or any issue or question to be tried or determined according to rules 1 to 5 (inclusive), and may bar the claim of such third person, or make such other order as the Court thinks fit, upon such terms, in all cases, with respect to the lien or charge (if any) of such third person, and to costs, as the Court thinks just and reasonable.

The applications shall be, in the first instance, for an order calling on the parties interested in resisting the application to show cause why the writ should not be issued, or the information filed, or other relief given, except in the case of application by a law officer ex officio for a writ of Certiorari or leave to file an information of Quo Warranto, in which case the order shall, if asked, be absolute in the first instance.

(2) The Court may, in its discretion, in any case in which it appears necessary for the advancement of justice, grant an order absolute in the first instance for a writ of Certiorari, Mandamus, or Prohibition.

2. Order to be returnable before the Court

Orders to show cause shall be to show cause before the Court.

3. Title of affidavits

(2) In the case of a writ of Certiorari, Mandamus, or Prohibition, which is proposed to be directed to a judicial or public authority, the authority shall be described by his or her or their name of office. The applicant shall, in the cases of applications for writs of Mandamus or relief of like nature, and of applications for writs of Prohibition, be called the prosecutor, and, in the case of applications for information of Quo Warranto or relief of like nature, the relator.

5. Order absolute

An order absolute need not be served, but the costs of service thereof may be allowed in the discretion of the taxing officer, if the writ is not actually issued or the information is not actually exhibited.

6. Costs

When the order is made absolute, the Court may, except as otherwise provided by these Rules, dispose of the costs of the proceedings either by the final judgment or by a separate order.

2 Certiorari

8. Copy, warrant, order etc. to be produced on application

An order nisi for a writ of Certiorari to remove any warrant, order, conviction, inquisition, or record shall not be granted unless at the time of the application a copy of the warrant, order, conviction, inquisition, or record, verified by affidavit, is produced, or its non-production accounted for to the satisfaction of the Court.

9. Objections to be stated in order

Any mistake or omission in any judgment, order or other proceeding, which is intended to be relied upon as a ground for quashing the judgment, order, or proceeding, shall be stated in the order nisi, otherwise an objection on account of the omission or mistake shall not be allowed.

10. Service

In the case of orders to show cause why a writ of Certiorari should not be issued addressed to the Magistrates Court, service of the order on the registrar of the Court shall be sufficient.

11. Security for costs

A writ of Certiorari to remove a judgment or order of any Court or tribunal shall not be issued, except on the application of a law officer, until the applicant has given security to the satisfaction of the Registrar in the sum of $100, conditioned to prosecute the writ with effect at his or her own cost without delay, and to pay to the party in whose favour the judgment or order was given or made, in the event of its being confirmed, such costs, if any, as the Court orders him or her to pay.

12. Order to quash in first instance

(1) When cause is shown against an order nisi for a writ of Certiorari to bring up a judgment or order, the Court, if it directs the writ to issue, may by the same order direct that the judgment or order shall be quashed on return without further order, and in that case no security need be given as required by rule 11, and a memorandum to that effect shall be indorsed upon the writ by the officer by whom it is issued.

(2) In any such case the judgment or order shall be quashed, upon being returned to the Court, without further order.

13. When no cause shown

When cause is not shown against an order nisi for a writ of Certiorari to bring up a judgment or order, or when the order is absolute in the first instance, the applicant shall apply to the Court for an order to quash the judgment or order. Such application shall be made upon notice to the parties interested in supporting the judgment or order.

14. Forms

A writ of Certiorari shall be in accordance with Form 63 in Schedule 1.

3 Mandamus

15. Prosecutor to be named

An order nisi for a writ of Mandamus or for relief of a like nature shall not be granted except upon the application of some person who is interested in the relief sought, and the applicant must state by affidavit that the application is to be made at his or her instance as prosecutor.

16. Persons to show cause

The Court may direct that the order nisi shall be addressed to, and served upon, any person who, in the opinion of the Court, ought to have notice thereof, and any person who, in the opinion of the Court, would be affected by the issue of the peremptory writ may show cause against the order nisi, and, if he or she does so, shall be liable to costs as if the order had been addressed to him or her.

17. Form of writ

Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, every writ of Mandamus shall command the person to whom it is addressed to do the act in question, or show cause why he or she has not done it, but the Court may direct that the command shall be peremptory in the first instance. Every writ of Mandamus shall be in accordance with Form 64 in Schedule 1, and shall bear date of the day on which it is issued, and shall be tested in the name of the Judge.

18. Time for return of writ

Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, the writ shall be returnable within the same time after service as is allowed for appearance in the case of an originating application.

19. Service

(1) When a writ of Mandamus is directed to 1 person only, the original writ must be personally served upon him or her by delivering it to him or her.

(2) When the writ is directed to 2 or more persons, it shall be personally served upon all of them but 1 in the manner prescribed for personal service of an originating application, and shall be served upon the remaining one by delivering the original writ to him or her.

20. Service on justices or corporate bodies

When a writ of Mandamus is directed to a corporation, or to a company, or to public authorities, it shall be served on so many of the officers or members of the corporation or company or public authority as are competent to do the act commanded, unless by law some other mode of service is sufficient.

21. Return

The persons to whom a writ of Mandamus is directed shall, within the time allowed by the writ, file the writ, together with a certificate, written thereon or annexed thereto, and signed by them, setting forth that they have done the act commanded by the writ, or else setting forth the reason why they have not done so.

22. Service

A copy of the return shall be served upon the prosecutor on the same day as it is filed.

23. Pleading to return

If the return does not certify that the act commanded has been done, the same proceedings shall be had and taken, and within the same time, as if the return were a defence in an action in which the prosecutor was the plaintiff and the person to whom the writ is directed was the defendant, and had pleaded this return as his or her defence.

24. Peremptory writ

If the question of fact and law, if any, raised by the return is determined in favour of the prosecutor by judgment of the Court or otherwise, the prosecutor shall be entitled to a peremptory writ of Mandamus, commanding the persons to whom the first writ was directed to do the act commanded, and such writ shall be awarded by the judgment, if any, or, if there is no judgment, by a separate order.

25. Costs when peremptory writ awarded in the first instance or on obedience

(1) When a peremptory writ is awarded in the first instance, the Court shall, at the time of granting the writ, direct by and to whom the costs of the proceedings shall be paid.

(2) When a peremptory writ is not awarded in the first instance, and the return to the writ certifies that the person to whom it is addressed has done the act commanded by the writ, an application for an order for the costs of the proceedings may be made at any time after the return is filed, not being later than the 4th day of the sittings of the Court held next after the day on which the return is filed.

26. Proceedings in nature of interpleader

When upon an application for a writ of Mandamus it appears that some person other than the prosecutor claims that the person to whom it is proposed to direct the writ shall do some act inconsistent with the act which the prosecutor claims to have done, the person to whom the order nisi or writ is directed may apply to the Court for an order that the last-named person be substituted for him or her in all subsequent proceedings up to the issue of a peremptory writ of Mandamus, and the Court may make such order on the application as is just.

27. Time

An application for a writ of Mandamus, or an order in the nature of a Mandamus, to a judicial tribunal to enter a minute of adjournment and hear a matter, shall be made within 2 months of the date of the refusal to hear, or within such further time as is, under special circumstances, allowed by the Court.

28. Mandamus by order

In any case in which the Court directs the issue of a peremptory writ of Mandamus, the command may be expressed in an order of the Court without the issue of a writ, which order shall have the same effect as a peremptory writ of Mandamus.

29. No action against party obeying writ or order

No action or proceeding shall be commenced or prosecuted against any person in respect of anything done in obedience to a writ of Mandamus or an order of the court for relief of the like nature issued by the Court.

4 Prohibition

30. Pleadings in prohibition

The Court may in any case, instead of directing the issue of a writ of Prohibition, direct the prosecutor to deliver to the opposite party a statement of claim setting forth the facts upon which his or her claim to the writ is founded, and thereupon the same proceedings shall be had and taken in all respects as in an action.

31. Proceedings on judgment

If judgment is given for the prosecutor, the judgment shall include a direction that a writ of Prohibition shall issue.

32. Direction to proceed

When a writ of Prohibition has been issued, and it is afterwards made to appear to the Court that relief ought to be given against the judgment or order by which the writ was awarded on any ground on which relief might be given against a judgment in an action, the Court may direct the judicial tribunal to which the writ of prohibition was issued to hear or determine the matter in question or proceed as if the writ had not been issued.

33. Prohibition by order

The Prohibition may be expressed in an order of the Court without the issue of a writ, which order shall have the same effect as a writ of Prohibition. A writ of Prohibition shall be in accordance with Form 65 in Schedule 1.

5 Quo Warranto

34. Relator to be named

Upon an application for an order for leave to exhibit an information of Quo Warranto, or for relief of a like nature, the applicant shall state by affidavit that the application is to be made at his or her instance as relator. The Court may allow a new relator to be substituted for the original relator, on such terms as to costs or otherwise as are just.

35. Objections to be stated in order nisi

Every objection intended to be made to the title of the defendant or person called on to show cause shall be stated in the order nisi, and no objection not so stated shall be raised on the return of the order nisi, or in the information, without the leave of the Court.

36. Security for costs

An information shall not, without the leave of the Court, be filed until the applicant has given security in the sum of $100 conditioned to file the information and prosecute the same with effect, and to pay to the defendant such costs, if any, as the Court orders.

37. Form of information

The information shall set forth the facts relied on by the relator as invalidating the title of the defendant to the office in question in the same manner as in a statement of claim.

38. Signature of service of information

The information shall be in the name of the Attorney-General or the relator, as the case may be, on behalf of the Sovereign, and shall be signed by the Attorney-General or relator. A copy of the information shall be served upon the defendant, or, if at the return of the order nisi he or she appeared by solicitor, then upon his or her solicitor.

39. Defence and subsequent proceedings

The defendant shall plead to the information within the same time and in the same manner as if the information were a statement of claim in an action, and the same proceedings shall be taken in all respects as if the proceeding by information were an action in which the relator was plaintiff and the defendant was defendant.

40. Judgment costs

If judgment is given for the Crown, the judgment shall award that the defendant be ousted from the office usurped by him or her.

41. Disclaimer

The defendant may, if he or she thinks fit, disclaim the office in question. Such disclaimer shall be signed by the defendant and attested by a person authorised to take an affidavit, and shall be filed, and a copy shall be served on the relator within the time allowed for delivering a defence. The relator shall thereupon, unless the Court otherwise orders, be entitled to enter judgment of ouster with costs, including the costs of the order giving leave to exhibit the information.

42. Consolidation

When proceedings by information of Quo Warranto, or for relief of a like nature, are pending against several persons for usurpation of offices of the same nature, and upon the same grounds of objection, the Court may direct the proceedings to be consolidated, as in the case of actions, and for that purpose may make such orders as are just, but an order for consolidation or stay of proceedings against any defendant shall not be made upon the application of a defendant unless he or she undertakes to enter a disclaimer in the event of judgment being given for the relator in the proceeding which is not stayed.

7 Habeas Corpus

43. How applied for

Applications for writs of Habeas Corpus, or for orders for the production of persons in confinement for the purpose of examination or trial, may be made to the Court ex parte. The affidavits upon which the application is made shall be entitled “In the Supreme Court of the Australian Capital Territory” without other title, except in the case of applications for orders for the production of persons for examination as witnesses in causes or matters pending in the Court, in which case they shall also be entitled in the cause or matter.

44. How granted

The Court may make an order absolute in the first instance for the issue of the writ or production of the person, or may make an order calling upon the person who would be required to obey the writ or order, if granted, to show cause why it should not be issued or made. The order and all subsequent proceedings shall be entitled “The King against” the person to whom the writ or order is directed, except in the case of orders for the production of persons as witnesses, which shall be entitled in the cause or matter.

45. Service

Writs of Habeas Corpus, and orders for production directed to persons charged by law with the custody of persons in lawful custody or confinement, may be served either personally, or by leaving the original with a servant or officer of the person to whom the writ or order is directed at the place where the person in question is confined or detained. Other writs of Habeas Corpus shall be served personally unless an order for substituted service is made. When a writ of Habeas Corpus is directed to more persons than 1, it shall be served in the same manner as a writ of Mandamus directed to several persons. Together with the writ there shall be served a notice, directed to the person to whom the writ is addressed, specifying the acts to be done by him or her in obedience to the writ, and pointing out the consequences of making default.

46. Return to writs of Habeas Corpus

The person to whom a writ of Habeas Corpus is directed shall, at the time and place specified therein, make his or her return to the writ, which shall be indorsed upon or attached to the writ, and shall set out all the causes of the detention of the person named in the writ. The return shall be filed.

47. Amendment of return

The return may be amended by leave of the Court.

48. Proceedings on return

Upon the return of the writ the return shall be read, and a motion shall then be made for the disposition of the person therein named, or for amending or questioning the return.

49. Discharging without writ

When an order to show cause has been made, the Court may, on the return of the order, direct the discharge or other disposition of the person in question without the issue of a writ of Habeas Corpus, and any such order shall be as effectual as if it had been made on the return of a writ.

VII—CLAIMS OF CREDITORS AND OTHER CLAIMANTS

31. Advertisements

Upon the hearing of a summons to proceed on a judgment or order directing an account of debts, claims or liabilities, or an inquiry for heirs, next of kin, or other unascertained persons, the Judge may direct an advertisement or advertisements for creditors or other claimants to be issued.

The advertisement shall contain a direction that a claimant not residing in the Territory must send with particulars of his or her claim the name and address of a person in the Territory to whom notices to the claimant required by these Rules or directed by the Judge can be sent. Any such claimant not complying with this direction shall not be entitled to receive any further notice, and in the case of any claimant complying therewith a notice sent to the name and address mentioned by him or her shall be equivalent to a notice sent to the claimant himself or herself.

The directions to be given by the Judge for or touching any proceedings before the Registrar shall require no particular form, but the result of such proceedings shall be stated in the shape of a short certificate to the Judge, and shall not be embodied in a formal report unless in any case the Judge sees fit so to direct.

51. Not to set out documents etc.

The certificate of the Registrar shall not, unless the circumstances of the case render it necessary, set out the judgment or order, or any document, or evidence, or reasons, but shall refer to the judgment or order, document and evidence, or particular paragraphs thereof, so that it appears upon what the result stated in the certificate is founded.

The accounts and the transcripts (if any) referred to by certificates shall be filed therewith or retained in Chambers, and subsequently filed as the Judge in Chambers directs. A copy of any such account shall not be required to be taken by any party.

The Judge may direct that any order made in Chambers shall be drawn up by the Registrar, and all such orders shall be entered in the same manner as orders made in open Court.

ORDER 59

INTERPLEADER

1. When granted

Relief by way of interpleader may be granted—

- (a) where the person seeking relief (in this Order called “the applicant”) is under liability for any debt, money, goods, or chattels for or in respect of which he or she is, or expects to be, sued by 2 or more parties (in this Order called “the claimants”) making adverse claims thereto; and
- (b) where the applicant is the Sheriff or other officer charged with the execution of process by or under the authority of the Court, and claim is made to any money, goods, or chattels taken or intended to be taken in execution under any process, or to the proceeds or value of any such goods or chattels, by any person other than the persons against whom the process issued.

2. Affidavit

The applicant must satisfy the Court by affidavit or otherwise—

- (a) that the applicant claims no interest in the subject-matter in dispute, other than for charges or costs;
- (b) that the claimant does not collude with any of the claimants; and
- (c) that the applicant, except where he or she is the Sheriff or other officer charged with the execution of process by or under the authority of the Court who has seized goods and has withdrawn from possession in consequence of the execution creditor admitting the claims of the claimant under rule 16, is willing to pay or transfer the subject-matter into Court or to dispose of it as the Court directs.

3. Where claims adverse

The applicant shall not be disentitled to relief by reason only that the titles of the claimants have not a common origin but are adverse to and independent of one another.

4. Time defendant may apply

Where the applicant is a defendant, application for relief may be made at any time after service of the originating application.

5. Summons to state claim

The applicant may take out a summons calling on the claimants to appear and state the nature and particulars of their claims, and either to maintain or relinquish them.

6. Stay of proceedings

If the application is made by a defendant in an action, the Court may stay all further proceedings in the action.

7. Order on summons

If the claimants appear in pursuance of the summons, the Court may order either that any claimant be made a defendant in any action already commenced in respect of the subject-matter in dispute in lieu of or in addition to the applicant, or that an issue between the claimants be stated and tried, and in the latter case may direct which of the claimants is to be plaintiff, and which defendant, and the mode in which such trial shall be had.

8. On consent or request of claimant Court may decide

The Court may, with the consent of both claimants or on the request of any claimant, if, having regard to the value of the subject-matter in dispute, it seems desirable so to do, dispose of the merits of their claims, and decide the same in a summary manner and on such terms as are just.

9. Question of law

Where the question is a question of law, and the facts are not in dispute, the Court may either decide the question without directing the trial of an issue, or order that a special case be stated for the opinion of the Federal Court of Australia.

10. Claimant failing to appear etc. barred

If a claimant, having been duly served with a summons calling on him or her to appear and maintain or relinquish his or her claim, does not appear in pursuance of the summons, or, having appeared, neglects or refuses to comply with any order made after his or her appearance, the Court may make an order declaring him or her, and all persons claiming under him or her, for ever barred against the applicant and persons claiming under him or her, but the order shall not affect the rights of the claimants as between themselves.

11. Issue to be filed

The plaintiff in an interpleader issue shall file the issue within 4 days after the making of the order under rule 7, and shall thereupon pay the fees and jury fees (if any) payable on entering a cause for trial. If the plaintiff makes default in so doing, the order shall be deemed to be abandoned, and the Court may make such further order on the applicant's summons, and as to the costs of the issue directed, as is just and reasonable.

12. Goods seized in execution

When goods or chattels have been seized in execution by a Sheriff or other officer charged with the execution of process of the Court, and any claimant alleges that he or she is entitled, under a bill of sale or otherwise, to the goods or chattels by way of security for debt, the Court may order the sale of the whole or a part thereof, and direct the application of the proceeds of the sale in such manner and upon such terms as are just.

13. Trial of issue

Orders 35 and 39 shall, with the necessary modifications, apply to an interpleader issue, and the Court may finally dispose of the whole matter of the interpleader proceedings, including all costs not otherwise provided for.

14. Where several causes pending

Where in any interpleader proceedings it is necessary or expedient to make 1 order in several causes or matters pending in the Court, such order may be made, and shall be entitled in all such causes or matters, and any such order (subject to the right of appeal) shall be binding on the parties in all such causes or matters.

15. Costs

The Court may, in or for the purposes of any interpleader proceedings, make all such orders as to costs and all other matters as are just and reasonable.

16. Sheriff's costs

Where a claim is made to or in respect of any goods or chattels taken in execution under the process of the Court, it shall be in writing, and upon the receipt of the claim the Sheriff or his or her officer shall forthwith give notice thereof to the execution creditor in accordance with Form 69 in Schedule 1, and the execution creditor shall, within 4 days after receiving the notice, give notice in accordance with Form 70 in Schedule 1 to the Sheriff or his or her officer that he or she admits or disputes the claim. If the execution creditor admits the title of the claimant, and gives notice as directed by this rule, he or she shall only be liable to the Sheriff or officer for any fees and expenses incurred prior to the receipt of the notice admitting the claim.

17. Withdrawal by Sheriff

(1) When the execution creditor has given notice to the Sheriff or his or her officer that he or she admits the claim of the claimant, the Sheriff may thereupon withdraw from possession of the goods claimed, and may apply for an order protecting him or her from any action in respect of the seizure and possession of the goods, and the Judge may make such order as is just and reasonable in respect of the same.

(2) Notice of the intended application shall be given to the claimant, who may, if he or she so desires, attend the hearing of the same, and if he or she attends, the Judge may, in and for the purposes of such application, make all such orders as to costs as are just and reasonable.

18. Costs in interpleader

When the execution creditor does not in due time, as directed by rules 1 to 17 (inclusive), admit or dispute the title of the claimant to the goods or chattels, and the claimant does not withdraw his or her claim by notice in writing to the Sheriff or his or her officer, the Sheriff may apply for an interpleader summons to be issued, and should the claimant withdraw his or her claim by notice in writing to the Sheriff or his or her officer, or the execution creditor in like manner serve an admission of the title of the claimant prior to the return day of such summons, and at the same time give notice of such admission to the claimant, the Judge may, in and for the purposes of the interpleader proceedings, make all such orders as to costs, fees, charges, and expenses as are just and reasonable.

If in any case it appears to the Court that costs have been improperly, or without any reasonable cause, incurred, or that by reason of any undue delay in proceeding under any judgment or order, or of any misconduct or default of the solicitor, any costs properly incurred have nevertheless proved fruitless to the person incurring the same, the Court may call on the solicitor of the person by whom such costs have been so incurred to show cause why such costs should not be disallowed as between the solicitor and his or her client, and also (if the circumstances of the case require) why the solicitor should not repay to his or her client any costs which the client may have been ordered to pay to any other person, and thereupon may make such order as the justice of the case requires. The Court may, if it or he or she thinks fit, refer the matter to the taxing officer for inquiry and report, and direct the solicitor to show cause before such taxing officer. Such notice (if any) of the proceedings or order shall be given to the client in such manner as the Court directs.

20. Gross sum costs

(1) In any case where the Court thinks fit to award costs to any party, the Court may by the order direct taxation of the costs of such party, and payment of a proportion thereof, or payment of the taxed costs less a specified sum in gross to be deducted therefrom, or direct payment of a sum in gross in lieu of taxed costs, and direct by and to whom such proportion, or taxed costs, or sum shall be paid.

(2) Nothing in this rule shall derogate from the discretion of the Court as to costs.

The allowances for instructions and drawing an affidavit in answer to interrogatories and other special affidavits, and attending the deponent to be sworn, include all attendances on the deponents to settle and read over.

30. Separate pleadings where same solicitor

Where the same solicitor is employed for 2 or more defendants, and separate pleadings are delivered or other proceedings had by or for 2 or more such defendants separately, the taxing officer shall consider in the taxation of such solicitor's bill of costs, either between party and party or between solicitor and client, whether such separate pleadings or other proceedings were necessary or proper, and if he or she is of opinion that any part of the costs occasioned thereby has been unnecessarily or improperly incurred, the same shall be disallowed.

34. In special circumstances higher remuneration may be allowed for attendance at Chambers

As to the attendance at the Judge's Chambers, where, from the length of the attendance, or from the difficulty of the case, the Judge thinks the highest of the fees an insufficient remuneration for the services performed, or where the preparation of the case or matter to lay it before the Judge, has required skill and labour for which no fee has been allowed, or in proceedings to wind up a company, the Judge may allow such fee as in his or her discretion he or she thinks fit, and where the preparation of the case or matter to lay it before a Judge in Chambers on a summons has required and received from the solicitor such extraordinary skill and labour as materially to conduce to the satisfactory and speedy disposal of the business, and therefore appears to the Judge to deserve higher remuneration than the ordinary fees, the Judge may allow the solicitor, by memorandum in writing expressly made for that purpose and signed by the Judge specifying distinctly the grounds of such allowance, such fee as the Judge in his or her discretion thinks fit.

35. On non-attendance or neglect by party at Chambers, Judge may order costs

As to attendances at the Judge's Chambers, where by reason of the non-attendance of any party (and it is not considered expedient to proceed ex parte), or where by reason of the neglect of any party in not being prepared with any proper evidence, account, or other proceeding, the attendance is adjourned without any useful progress being made, the Judge may order such an amount of costs (if any) as he or she thinks reasonable to be paid to the party attending by the party so absent or neglectful, or by his or her solicitor personally, and the party so absent or neglectful is not to be allowed any fee as against any other party, or any estate or fund in which any other party is interested.

35A. Attendance by solicitors or clerk in Court or in Chambers to instruct Counsel

(1) Where a principal solicitor attended in Court or in Chambers or before the Registrar to instruct counsel, the taxing officer may allow the amount shown in Schedule 4 for such an attendance if he or she is of opinion that, by reason of the importance or difficulty of the matter or because of the responsibility involved in instructing counsel, the attendance of the principal solicitor was warranted, but if he or she is not of that opinion, the taxing officer may allow whichever of the amounts shown in Schedule 4 for such an attendance by either an employed solicitor or clerk as he or she considers the circumstances warranted.

(2) Where an employed solicitor attended in Court or in Chambers or before the Registrar to instruct counsel, the taxing officer may allow the amount shown in Schedule 4 for such an attendance if he or she is of opinion that the attendance was warranted, but if he or she is not of that opinion he or she may allow the amount shown in Schedule 4 for the attendance of a clerk.

The party making such payment shall be allowed the same in his or her costs provided that such service was proper, but not otherwise, but this rule is without prejudice to the rights of either party to costs, or to object to costs where no such tender is made, or where the Court considers the party entitled, notwithstanding such notice or tender, to appear in Court. 44. Costs may be set-off or adjusted between parties

In any case in which, under rule 43 or any other rule, or by the order or direction of the Court, or otherwise, a party entitled to receive costs is liable to pay costs to any other party, the taxing officer may tax the costs such party is so liable to pay, and may adjust the same by way of deduction or set-off, or may, if he or she thinks fit, delay the allowance of the costs such party is entitled to receive until he or she has paid or tendered the costs he or she is liable to pay, or such officer may allow or certify the costs to be paid, and direct payment, and the same may be recovered by the party entitled thereto in the same manner as costs ordered to be paid may be recovered.

45. Note for taxing officer

Where any question as to any costs is, under rule 43 dealt with at Chambers, the Judge or Registrar shall make a note thereof and state the same on his or her allowance of the fees for attendances at Chambers, or otherwise as is convenient, for the information of the taxing officer.

46. Disallowance where party not interested etc.

Where any party appears upon any application or proceeding in Court or at Chambers in which he or she is not interested, or upon which, according to the practice of the Court, he or she ought not to attend, he or she is not to be allowed any costs of such appearance unless the Court expressly directs such costs to be allowed.

47. Extension of time

The costs of an application to extend the time for taking any proceedings shall be in the discretion of the taxing officer, unless the Court has specially directed how such costs are to be paid or borne. The taxing officer shall not allow the costs of more than 1 extension of time, unless he or she is satisfied that such extension was necessary and could not with due diligence have been avoided. The costs of a summons to extend time shall not be allowed in cases to which Order 64, rule 5 applies, unless the party taking out such summons has previously applied to the opposite party to consent, and he or she has not given a consent to a sufficient extension of time, or the taxing officer considers there was a good reason for not making such application, and in case the taxing officer does not allow the costs of such summons, and considers that the party applying ought to pay the costs of any other party occasioned thereby, he or she may direct such payment or deal with such costs in the manner provided by rule 44.

48. Taxing officers may administer oaths

The taxing officer shall, for the purpose of any proceeding before him or her, have power and authority to summons and examine witnesses, either orally or upon affidavit, to administer oaths, and to require the production of books, papers, and documents, and for such purpose to issue subpoenas, and to make separate certificates or allocaturs, and to require any party to be represented by a separate solicitor, and to do such acts and adopt such proceedings as are directed by these Rules, or by the Court.

49. Registrar to be taxing officer

The Registrar shall be the taxing officer of the Court.

50. Account in part consisting of bill of costs

51. Taxing officer regulates the attendance of parties on taxation

52. On neglect of party to tax costs, taxing officer may prevent prejudice to other party

When any party entitled to costs refuses or neglects to bring in his or her costs for taxation, or to procure the same to be taxed, and thereby prejudices any other party, the taxing officer may certify the costs of the other parties, and certify such refusal or neglect, or may allow such party refusing or neglecting a nominal or other sum for such costs, so as to prevent any other party being prejudiced by such refusal or neglect.

53. Costs to be allowed on taxation

On every taxation the taxing officer shall allow all such costs, charges, and expenses as appear to him or her to have been necessary or proper for the attainment of justice or for enforcing or defending the rights of any party, but save as against the party who incurred the same, costs shall not be allowed which appear to the taxing officer to have been incurred or increased through over caution, negligence, or mistake, or by payment of special fees to counsel or special charges or expenses to witnesses or other persons, or by other unusual expenses.

55. Costs in the cause

Where the plaintiff is directed to pay to the defendant the costs of the cause, the costs occasioned to the defendant by any amendment of the plaintiff's pleadings shall be deemed to be part of such defendant's costs in the cause (except as to any amendment which appears to have been rendered necessary by the default of such defendant), but there shall be deducted from such costs any sum which has been paid by the plaintiff according to the course of the Court at the time of any amendment.

56. Costs of amendments

Where upon taxation a plaintiff who has obtained a judgment with costs is not allowed the costs of any amendment of his or her pleadings on the ground of the same having been unnecessary, the defendant's costs occasioned by such amendment shall be taxed, and the amount thereof deducted from the costs to be paid by the defendant to the plaintiff.

57. Taxation without order to refer

Where an action or petition is dismissed with costs, or a motion is refused with costs, or any costs are by any general or special order directed to be paid, the taxing officer may tax such costs without any order referring the same for taxation, unless the Court, upon the application of the party alleging himself or herself to be aggrieved, prohibits the taxation of such costs.

- (10) In forming an opinion for the purposes of subrule (9), the taxing officer must have regard to—
- (a) costs of the party entitled to costs at the date the tender is received by that party; and

62. Power to taxing officer to assess costs at a gross sum

If upon any taxation it appears that the costs have been increased by unnecessary delay, or by improper, vexatious, prolix, or unnecessary proceedings, or by other misconduct or negligence, or that from any other cause the amount of the costs is excessive, having regard to the nature of the business transacted, the interest involved, the money or value of the property to which the costs relate, or to the other circumstances of the case, the taxing officer shall allow only such an amount of costs as is reasonable and proper, and may assess the same at a gross sum, and shall (if necessary) apportion the amount among the parties, if more than 1, or may report the matter to the Judge who may make such order as he or she thinks fit.

Supreme Court Rules

NOTES

1. The Supreme Court Rules (in force under the Supreme Court Act 1933) as shown in this reprint comprise Statutory Rules 1937 No. 85 of the Commonwealth (as amended by subsequent Commonwealth Statutory Rules and ACT Subordinate Laws).

The Australian Capital Territory (Self-Government) Act 1988 (No. 106, 1988) of the Commonwealth subsection 34 (2) and Schedule 2 allowed for the conversion of certain Commonwealth laws to Territory enactments.

The Australian Capital Territory Supreme Court Act 1933 of the Commonwealth was, in preparation for its conversion, amended by the Supreme Court (Transfer) Act 1992 (No. 49, 1992) of the Commonwealth with effect from 1 July 1992 and, as so amended became a Territory enactment on that date. The Rules of the Supreme Court of the Australian Capital Territory in force under the converted Act were also converted with effect from that date.

For the amendment history of the Rules of the Supreme Court of the Australian Capital Territory of the Commonwealth see Commonwealth Statutory Rules Tables and Commonwealth Statutory Rules of the Parliament Volumes printed annually.

Citation of Laws—The Self-Government (Citation of Laws) Act 1989 (No. 21, 1989) altered the citation of most Ordinances so that after Self-Government day they are to be cited as Acts. That Act also affects references in ACT laws to Commonwealth Acts.

2. The Legislation (Republication) Act 1996 (No. 51, 1996) authorises the Parliamentary Counsel in preparing a law for republication, to make certain editorial and other formal amendments in accordance with current legislative drafting practice. Those amendments make no change in the law. Amendments made pursuant to that Act do not appear in the Table of Amendments but details may be obtained on request from the Parliamentary Counsel's Office.

- (b) the Court is satisfied that every reasonable effort has been made to obtain a certificate from the foreign additional authority or foreign Central Authority to which the process had been transmitted, or another competent authority in the Convention country in which service had been requested to be effected.

Interlocutory, provisional or protective orders

“6. Rule 5 does not limit any power that the Court may have to make an interlocutory or a provisional or protective order.

Setting aside judgment in default of appearance

“7. (1) Where a judgment has been entered under rule 5, the Court may, on the application of the defendant, set it aside if satisfied that the defendant—

- (b) has a prima facie defence to the action on the merits.

“(2) An application to have a judgment set aside under this rule may be brought only within such period of time after the defendant acquires knowledge of the judgment as the Court considers reasonable in the circumstances.

Application of Rules generally

“8. (1) Subject to subrule (2), where—

- (a) this Order applies; and
- (b) a provision of any other Order is inconsistent with a provision of this Order; the first-mentioned provision does not apply to the entry of judgments in default of appearance to the extent of the inconsistency.

“(2) The power of the Court to enter judgment in default of appearance under this Order against a person who is under a disability is subject to the provisions of any other Order that restricts such power.”

- (a) to the Central Authority and forwarded by the Central Authority to an additional authority; or
- (b) to an additional authority.

“(2) Where the request for service is forwarded to an additional authority in accordance with paragraph (1) (b) and, in the opinion of the additional authority—

- (b) the document to which the request for service relates is not a judicial document;

the additional authority shall transmit the request for service and the accompanying documents to the Central Authority.

“4. (1) An additional authority that receives a request for service to which this Order applies shall request the Sheriff to serve the relevant document together with—

- (a) such of those documents referred to in paragraphs 3 (1) (a), (d) and (e) as accompanied the request for service; and
- (b) any warning statement attached to the summary of the document to be served that the request seeks to have served.

“(2) Subject to subrule (3), the Sheriff, in giving effect to the request of the additional authority, shall cause the service requested to be effected by one of the following methods:

- (b) where there is no corresponding kind of document—a method permitted by Order 10 for the service of an originating application.

“(3) Where it is made to appear to the Court that prompt service cannot be effected under this rule, the Court may make such order for substituted or other service or for the substitution for service of notice by advertisement or otherwise, as is just, on the basis of an affidavit filed by the Sheriff and made by the person who attempted to serve the document, specifying—
