About this republication

The republished law

This is a republication of the Supreme Court Rules, made under the Supreme Court Act 1933 (including any amendment made under the Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 (Editorial changes)) as in force on 14 October 2002. It also includes any amendment, repeal or expiry affecting the republished law to 14 October 2002.

The legislation history and amendment history of the republished law are set out in endnotes 3 and 4.

Kinds of republications

The Parliamentary Counsel's Office prepares 2 kinds of republications of ACT laws (see the ACT legislation register at www.legislation.act.gov.au):

- authorised republications to which the Legislation Act 2001 applies
- unauthorised republications.

The status of this republication appears on the bottom of each page.

Editorial changes

The Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 authorises the Parliamentary Counsel to make editorial amendments and other changes of a formal nature when preparing a law for republication. Editorial changes do not change the effect of the law, but have effect as if they had been made by an Act commencing on the republication date (see Legislation Act 2001, s 115 and s 117). The changes are made if the Parliamentary Counsel considers they are desirable to bring the law into line, or more closely into line, with current legislative drafting practice.

This republication does not include amendments made under part 11.3 (see endnote 1).

Uncommenced provisions and amendments

If a provision of the republished law has not commenced or is affected by an uncommenced amendment, the symbol U appears immediately before the provision heading. The text of the uncommenced provision or amendment appears only in the last endnote.

Modifications

If a provision of the republished law is affected by a current modification, the symbol M appears immediately before the provision heading. The text of the modifying provision appears in the endnotes. For the legal status of modifications, see Legislation Act 2001, section 95.

Penalties

The value of a penalty unit for an offence against this republished law at the republication date is—

- (a) if the person charged is an individual—$100; or
- (b) if the person charged is a corporation—$500.

 - (a) the action is frivolous or vexatious; or
 - (b) there is a good defence to the action on the merits; or
 - (c) the action should be finally disposed of summarily, or without pleadings.
- (3) On an application under this rule, the court may—
 - (a) order that judgment be entered for the defendant with or without costs; or
 - (b) order that the plaintiff shall proceed to trial without pleadings; or
 - (c) if all parties consent—make an order disposing of the action finally, without appeal, in a summary manner.

2 Defence by plaintiff

- (1) The plaintiff may show cause against such application by affidavit or by oral evidence.
- (2) For the purpose of hearing an application under rule 1, the court may order the plaintiff or the defendant, or, in the case of a corporation, any officer thereof, to attend and be examined and cross-examined on oath or to produce any papers, books, or documents, or copies of or extracts therefrom.

3 Directions

If the court directs that the action shall proceed to trial, the court may give all such directions as to the further conduct of the action as might be given on a summons for directions under order 33, and may order the action to be forthwith set down for trial, and may define the issues that are to be tried.

Order 18 Application for account

1 Order for accounts

The court shall make an order for proper accounts, with all necessary inquiries and directions, if—

- (a) an originating application specifies that an account is to be taken; and
- (b) the defendant—
 - (i) fails to appear; or
 - (ii) at a directions hearing or otherwise, fails to satisfy the court that there is any preliminary question to be tried.

Order 19 Parties

Division 19.1 Generally

1 Persons claiming jointly, severally, or in the alternative may be plaintiffs

- (1) All persons may be joined in the same action as plaintiffs, in whom any right to relief in respect of or arising out of the same transaction or series of transactions is alleged to exist, whether jointly, severally, or in the alternative, where, if such persons brought separate actions any common question of law or fact would arise.
- (2) If on the application of any defendant it appears that such joinder may embarrass or delay the trial of the action, the court may order separate trials, or may make such other order as is expedient, and judgment may be given for any of the plaintiffs as are found to be entitled to relief, for such relief as he or she or they are entitled to, without any amendment.
- (3) The defendant, though unsuccessful, shall be entitled to costs occasioned by so joining any person who is not found entitled to relief, unless the court, in disposing of the costs, otherwise directs.

2 No other action to be brought for same claim

No other action shall be brought against the defendant by any person so joined as plaintiff in respect of the same cause of action unless by leave of the court.

3 Plaintiffs may be substituted or added

Where an action has been commenced in the name of the wrong person as plaintiff, or it is doubtful whether it has been commenced in the name of the right plaintiff, the court may, if satisfied that it has been so commenced through a bona fide mistake, and that it is necessary for the determination of the real matter in dispute so to do, order any other person or persons to be substituted or added as plaintiff or plaintiffs on such terms as seem just.

4 Counterclaim or set-off in case of misjoinder

Where in an action any person has been improperly or unnecessarily joined as a coplaintiff, and a defendant has set up a counterclaim or set-off, he or she may obtain the benefit thereof by establishing his or her set-off or counterclaim as against the parties other than the coplaintiff so joined, notwithstanding the misjoinder of such plaintiff or any proceeding consequent thereon.

5 Defendants may be sued jointly, severally, or in the alternative

All persons may be joined as defendants against whom the right to any relief is alleged to exist, whether jointly, severally, or in the alternative, and judgment may be given against any of the defendants as are found to be liable according to their respective liabilities, without any amendment.

6 Defendant having only partial interest

It shall not be necessary that every defendant shall be interested as to all the relief prayed for, or as to every cause of action included in any proceeding against him or her, but the court may make such order as appears just to prevent any defendant from being embarrassed or put to expense by being required to attend any proceedings in which he or she has no interest.

7 Plaintiff may join parties jointly and severally liable

The plaintiff may, at his or her option, join as parties to the same action all or any of the persons severally, or jointly and severally, liable on the same contract, including parties to bills of exchange and promissory notes.

8 Plaintiff in doubt may join defendants for alternative redress

Where the plaintiff is in doubt as to the person from whom he or she is entitled to redress, he or she may, in such manner as is mentioned in this order or as is prescribed by any special order, join 2 or more defendants, to the intent that the question as to which (if any) of the defendants is liable, and to what extent, may be determined as between all parties.

9 Trustees, executors, and representative parties

- (1) Trustees, executors and administrators may sue and be sued on behalf of, or as representing, the property or estate of which they are trustees or representatives, without joining any of the persons beneficially interested in the trust or estate, and shall be considered as representing such persons, but the court may, at any stage of the proceedings, order any of such persons to be made parties either in addition to or in lieu of the previously existing parties.
- (2) This rule shall apply to trustees, executors, and administrators suing or sued in proceedings to enforce a security by foreclosure or otherwise.

10 Where parties are numerous

Where there are numerous persons having the same interest in the same cause or matter, any of those persons may sue or be sued, or may be authorised by the court to defend, in such cause or matter on behalf or for the benefit of all persons so interested.

11 Power to approve compromise in absence of some persons interested

When in proceedings concerning a trust a compromise is proposed, and some of the persons interested in the compromise are not parties to the proceedings, but there are other persons in the same interest before the court and assenting to the compromise, the court, if satisfied that the compromise will be for the benefit of the absent persons, and that to require service on such persons would cause unreasonable expense or delay, may approve the compromise and order that the same shall be binding on the absent persons, and they shall be bound accordingly, except where the order has been obtained by fraud or nondisclosure of material facts.

12 Amendment on misjoinder or nonjoinder of parties

- (1) A cause or matter is not defeated because of the misjoinder or nonjoinder of parties, and the court may in every cause or matter deal with the matter in controversy in relation to the rights and interests of the parties before it.
- (2) The court may order—
 - (a) that a person who is a party be struck out if the person has been improperly joined; or
 - (b) that a person be added as a party if—
 - (i) the person ought to have been joined; or
 - (ii) the addition of the person as a party is necessary to allow the court effectively and completely to decide all the questions involved in the cause or matter.
- (3) An order may be made under subrule (2)—
 - (a) at any stage of the proceeding; and
 - (b) on the application of a party or on its own initiative; and
 - (c) on the terms the court considers just; and
 - (d) whether the person to be struck out or added is, or should be, a plaintiff or defendant.
- (4) However, a person may not be added as a plaintiff suing without a litigation guardian, or as a litigation guardian of a plaintiff who is a person with a legal disability, without his or her written consent.

13 Application as to parties

Any application to add or strike out or substitute a plaintiff or defendant may be made to the court at any time before trial by motion or summons, or at the trial of the action in a summary manner.

14 Change of parties—amendment of application and service etc

- (1) Unless the court otherwise orders, if a person is added or substituted as defendant, the plaintiff must—
 - (a) file an amended copy of the originating application; and
 - (b) serve the person with a sealed copy of the amended originating application in the same way as an original defendant is served.
- (2) Unless the court otherwise orders, if the person is added as defendant, the proceeding against the person is taken to have begun only when the order adding the person is made.

15 Probate actions

In a probate action—

- (a) a person who is named as defendant by the originating process, or on whom notice of the action is served by the court's direction, may enter an appearance in the action; and
- (b) a person not named as a defendant may apply to the court for leave to intervene in the action; and
- (c) application for leave to intervene in the action must be made by motion supported by an affidavit showing the interest of the applicant in the deceased person's estate; and
- (d) a person with leave to intervene is not entitled to be heard in the action until the person enters an appearance; and

- (e) a person with leave to intervene becomes a defendant on filing an appearance and the proceeding continues as if—
 - (i) the person had been named as a defendant by the originating process; and
 - (ii) the person had been served with the originating process when the process was issued; and
- (f) if the court gives leave to intervene—it may give the directions it considers appropriate for filing and service of pleadings, the filing of an affidavit of testamentary scripts or other matters.

15A Title of proceedings after change of parties

- (1) In any cause or matter, all proceedings subsequent to the making of an order adding, striking out or substituting a party shall, whether or not subrule (2) has been complied with, be entitled according to the effect of the order.
- (2) An order referred to in subrule (1) shall be prepared and entered by the party applying for the order or by such party as the court may direct.

 - (b) that he or she is entitled to any relief or remedy relating to or connected with the original subject matter of the action and substantially the same as some relief or remedy claimed by the plaintiff; or
 - (c) that a question or issue relating to or connected with the original subject matter of the action is substantially the same as some question or issue arising between the plaintiff and the defendant and should properly be determined not only as between the plaintiff and the defendant but as between the plaintiff, the defendant and the third party or between any 2 of them; the defendant may issue and serve a third-party claim which shall be in accordance with form 1.12 or 1.13 with such variations as the case may require.

- (2) Particulars of the defendant's claim against the third party shall be set out in the third-party claim and shall be pleaded in accordance with the rules respecting statements of claim.

- (b) the defendant issuing the third-party claim were a plaintiff, and the person against whom it is issued a defendant, in that action.

4 Rights of third party in action

The third party shall, as from the time of the service on him or her of the notice, be a party to the action with the same rights in respect of his or her defence against any claim made against him or her and otherwise as if he or she had been duly sued in the ordinary way by the defendant.

5 Time for appearance

The time for appearance by a third party after service of the third-party claim shall be as provided by order 2 rule 7 as if the claim were an originating application.

6 Appearances

The third party shall enter his or her appearance in the registrar's office in the manner prescribed by order 13 for a defendant to enter his or her appearance and shall, on the day on which he or she enters his or her appearance, serve the plaintiff and all other parties to the action with a sealed copy of the memorandum of appearance.

7 Defence and pleadings after service

- (2) The third party shall file and serve his or her defence within 14 days after the expiration of the time limited for his or her appearance, and thereafter, the pleadings shall, as between the defendant and the third party, continue as in the case of an action between a plaintiff and defendant until issue is joined.

- (b) the defendant by whom the third-party claim was issued may, if judgment is given against him or her in the action, at any time after satisfaction of that judgment or with the leave of the court, before satisfaction of the judgment, enter judgment against the third party in respect of any indemnity or any contributions of a specific amount or proportion claimed in the notice and, with the leave of the court, in respect of any other relief or remedy claimed therein.
- (2) If the defendant by whom a third-party claim was issued makes default in delivery to the third party of any pleading, the court may order judgment to be entered for the third party or may make such other order as may appear necessary to do justice between the parties.
- (3) The court may at any time set aside or vary a judgment entered under subrule (1) (b) or (2) on such terms (if any) as it or he or she thinks fit.

9 Procedure on trial

Unless otherwise ordered by the court, where the action between the plaintiff and the defendant proceeds to trial—

- (a) the third party, if he or she has appeared and pleaded, shall be at liberty to appear at, and take part in, the trial of the action; and
- (b) the issues between the third party and the defendant shall be tried at the trial of, and concurrently with, the issues in the action; and
- (c) the third party shall be bound by the result of the trial.

10 Judgment on third-party claim

- (1) Where in an action a defendant has served a third-party claim, the court may at or after the trial of the action, or, if the action is determined otherwise than by trial, on an application by motion or summons, order such judgment as the nature of the case requires to be entered for the defendant against the third party or for the third party against the defendant.
- (2) Where, in an action, judgment is entered against a defendant, and judgment is entered for the defendant against a third party, execution shall not issue against the third party without the leave of the court until the judgment against the defendant has been satisfied.

11 Costs

The court may decide all questions of costs as between a third party and other parties to the action, and may order any of them to pay the costs of any other, or others, or give such directions as to costs as the justice of the case requires.

12 Fourth and subsequent parties

- (1) A third party may make a claim of the nature referred to in rule 1 against a person not already a party to the action (a fourth party) and, in relation to such a claim, this order applies with necessary changes as if the third party were a defendant and the other party were a third party.
- (2) A fourth party against whom a claim is made under subrule (1) may similarly make a claim against a person not already a party to the action, and so on, successively.

14 Counterclaims

Where, in an action, a counterclaim is made by a defendant, this order shall apply in relation to the counterclaim as if the subject matter of the counterclaim were the original subject matter of the action and as if the person making the counterclaim were a plaintiff and the person against whom it is made a defendant.

15 Codefendants

- (1) Where a defendant claims against another defendant—
 - (a) that he or she is entitled to contribution or indemnity; or
 - (b) that he or she is entitled to any relief or remedy relating to or connected with the original subject matter of the action and substantially the same as some question or issue arising between the plaintiff and the defendant making the claim and which should properly be determined not only as between the plaintiff and the defendant making the claim but as between the plaintiff, that defendant and the other defendant or between any 2 of them;

the defendant making the claim may serve on the other defendant a notice making the claim or specifying the question or issue.

- (2) Particulars of the defendant's claim shall be set out in the notice and shall be pleaded in accordance with the rules respecting statements of claim.
- (3) A copy of the notice shall be filed forthwith after service and a copy served on the plaintiff and each other party to the action who has entered an appearance.
- (4) The notice shall be served on the other defendant as soon as reasonably practicable and shall be answered as soon as reasonably practicable by the other defendant, but no appearance to the notice shall be necessary, and the same procedure shall be adopted for the determination of the claim, question or issue between the defendants as would be appropriate under this order if the other defendant were a third party.

- (5) Nothing in this rule prejudices the rights of the plaintiff against a defendant to the action.
- (6) Copies of all pleadings delivered between the defendant making the claim and the defendant on whom the claim is made shall be served on the plaintiff and each other party to the action who has entered an appearance.

- (b) serve the new party with a sealed copy of the amended originating application in the same way as an original defendant is served.
- (8) Unless the court otherwise orders, if the new party is a defendant, the proceeding against the new party is taken to have begun only when the order adding the new party is made.

3 Change of party—new side or capacity

- (1) The court may make an order under rule 2 for someone (the new party) to be made a party even if the person is already a party.
- (2) If the new party is already a party on the other side of the proceeding, the court must, in the order, direct that the new party cease to be a party on the other side.

- (2) If a copy of an order under rule 2 is served on a person with a legal disability who does not have a litigation guardian, the order does not have effect in relation to the person while the person may apply to the court under subrule (1) for variation or discharge of the order.

5 Notation of order in cause book

If an order is made under rule 2, the registrar must ensure that the order is noted in the cause book.

9 Judge may exclude causes inconvenient to be joined

If, on the hearing of such an application as is mentioned in rule 8, it appears to the court that the causes of action are such as cannot be conveniently disposed of together, the court may order any of such causes of action to be excluded and consequential amendments to be made, and may make such order as to costs as is just.

Pleadings and particulars shall be as brief as the nature of the case admits, and the taxing officer in adjusting the costs of the action shall, at the instance of any party, or may without any request, inquire into any unnecessary prolixity, and order the costs occasioned by such prolixity to be borne by the party chargeable with the same.

3 Set-off or counterclaim

- (1) A defendant in an action may, subject to order 25 rule 15, set off, or set up by way of counterclaim, against the claims of the plaintiff, any right or claim, whether such set-off or counterclaim sounds in damages or not, and such set-off or counterclaim shall have the same effect as a cross-action, so as to enable the court to pronounce a final judgment in the same action, both on the original and on the cross-claim.
- (2) The court may, on the application of the plaintiff before trial, if in the opinion of the court such set-off or counterclaim cannot be conveniently disposed of in the pending action, or ought not to be allowed, refuse permission to the defendant to avail himself or herself thereof.

4 Statements in pleadings

- (1) Every pleading shall contain, and contain only, a statement in a summary form of the material facts on which the party pleading relies for his or her claim or defence, as the case may be, but not the evidence by which they are to be proved, and shall, when necessary, be divided into paragraphs, numbered consecutively.
- (2) Dates, sums, and numbers shall be expressed in figures and not in words.

4A Name of settling counsel to be included in pleadings

- (2) If the particulars are of debt, expenses, or damages, and exceed 3 folios, the fact must be so stated, with a reference to full particulars already delivered or to be delivered with the pleading.

7 Further statement or particulars

A further and better statement of the nature of the claim or defence, or further and better particulars of any matter stated in any pleading, notice, or written proceeding requiring particulars, may in all cases be ordered, on such terms, as to costs or otherwise, as are just.

8 Letter for particulars

- (1) Before applying for particulars by summons or notice a party may apply for them by letter.
- (2) The costs of the letter and of any particulars delivered pursuant thereto shall be allowable on taxation.
- (3) In dealing with the costs of any application for particulars by summons or notice, the provisions of this rule shall be taken into consideration by the court.

9 Time for pleading after particulars

- (1) The party at whose instance particulars have been delivered under the judge's order shall, unless the order otherwise provides, have the same length of time for pleading after the delivery of the particulars that he or she had at the return of the summons.

- (1) Every pleading shall be filed and shall be delivered on the day of filing.
- (2) Every pleading shall be marked with the date of the day on which it is delivered and with a reference to the number of the action, the title of the action, and the description of the pleading and shall be endorsed with the name and place of business of the solicitor and agent (if any) delivering the same or the name and address of the party delivering the same if he or she does not act by a solicitor.
- (3) Subrule (1) does not require the delivery of a pleading to a party to the action who, being required to enter an appearance, has not done so.

12 Mode of delivery

Every pleading or other document required to be delivered to a party or between parties shall be delivered to the solicitor for each party who appears by a solicitor or to the party if he or she does not appear by a solicitor.

13 Allegations not denied are admitted except against person with a legal disability

An allegation of fact in a pleading, other than a petition or summons, is taken to be admitted unless—

- (a) it is denied specifically or by necessary implication in the pleading of the opposite party; or
- (b) it is stated to be not admitted in the pleading of the opposite party; or
- (c) the opposite party is a person with a legal disability.

14 Conditions precedent

Any condition precedent the performance or occurrence of which is intended to be contested shall be distinctly specified in his or her pleading by the plaintiff or defendant, as the case may be, and subject thereto an averment of the performance or occurrence of all conditions precedent necessary for the case of the plaintiff or defendant shall be implied in his or her pleading.

15 Special matters to be pleaded

When there are pleadings, the defendant or plaintiff (as the case may be) must raise by his or her pleading all matters which show the action or counterclaim not to be maintainable, or that the transaction is either void or voidable in point of law, and all such grounds of defence or reply (as the case may be) as, if not raised, would be likely to take the opposite party by surprise, or would raise issues of fact not arising out of the preceding pleadings, as, for instance, fraud, statute of limitations, statute of frauds, release, payment, performance, facts showing illegality, any statutory provision requiring contracts to be in, or to be evidenced by, writing, either by any law or at common law.

16 No departure

No pleading (not being a petition or summons) shall, except by way of amendment, raise any new ground of claim, or contain any allegation of fact inconsistent with the previous pleadings of the party pleading the same.

17 Denial of allegations to be specific

It shall not be sufficient for a defendant in his or her statement of defence to deny generally the grounds alleged by the statement of claim, or for a plaintiff in his or her reply to deny generally the grounds alleged in a defence by way of counterclaim, but each party must deal specifically with each allegation of fact of which he or she does not admit the truth, except damages.

19 Denial to be substantial answer

- (1) When a party in any pleading denies an allegation of fact in the previous pleading of the opposite party, he or she must not do so evasively, but must answer the point of substance.
- (2) Thus, if it is alleged that he or she received a certain sum of money, it shall not be sufficient to deny that he or she received that particular amount, but he or she must deny that he or she received that sum or any part thereof, or else set out how much he or she received.
- (3) If an allegation is made with divers circumstances, it shall not be sufficient to deny it along with those circumstances.

20 Effect of denial of contract

When a contract, promise, or agreement is alleged in any pleading or particulars, a bare denial of the same by the opposite party shall be construed only as a denial in fact of the express contract, promise, or agreement alleged, or of the matters of fact from which the same may be implied by law, and not as a denial of the legality or sufficiency in law of such contract, promise, or agreement, whether with reference to the statute of frauds or otherwise.

21 Contents of document

Whenever the contents of any document are material, it shall be sufficient in any pleading to state the effect thereof as briefly as possible, without setting out the whole or any part thereof unless the precise words of the document or any part thereof are material.

23 Of notice

Whenever it is material to allege notice to any person of any fact, matter, or thing, it shall be sufficient to allege such notice as a fact, unless the form or the precise terms of such notice or the circumstances from which such notice is to be inferred are material.

24 Of implied contract or relation

- (1) Whenever any contract or any relation between any persons is to be implied from a series of letters or conversations, or otherwise from a number of circumstances, it shall be sufficient to allege such contract or relation as a fact, and to refer generally to such letters, conversations, or circumstances without setting them out in detail.
- (2) If in such case the person so pleading desires to rely in the alternative on more contracts or relations than one as to be implied from such circumstances, he or she may state the same in the alternative.

25 Presumptions of law

A party need not in any pleading allege any matter of fact which the law presumes in his or her favour or as to which the burden of proof lies on the other side, unless the same has first been specifically denied.

Example

Consideration for a bill of exchange where the plaintiff sues only on the bill, and not for the consideration as a substantive ground of claim.

Note An example is part of the Act, is not exhaustive and may extend, but does not limit, the meaning of the provision in which it appears (see Legislation Act 2001, s 126 and s 132).

26 Actions for trespass

- (1) In actions for trespass to land the close or place in which the trespass is alleged to have been committed must be designated in the statement of claim by name or abuttals or other description, or by a plan drawn in the margin.
- (2) If the land is subject to the provisions of the Land Titles Act 1925, the reference to the certificate of title in which the land is comprised shall be specified.

27 Technical objection

No technical objection shall be raised to any pleading on the ground of any alleged want of form.

28 Striking out scandals and matters tending to embarrass or delay

The court may, at any stage of the proceedings, order to be struck out or amended any matter in any indorsement or pleading which is unnecessary or scandalous, or may tend to prejudice, embarrass, or delay the fair trial of the action, and may in any such case, if it or he or she thinks fit, order the costs of the application to be paid as between solicitor and client.

Order 24 Statement of claim

2 Probate actions

In probate actions the plaintiff shall, unless otherwise ordered by the court, deliver his or her statement of claim within 6 weeks from the entry of appearance by the defendant, or from the time limited for his or her appearance, in case he or she has made default, but where the defendant has appeared the plaintiff shall not be compelled to deliver it until the expiration of 8 days after the defendant has filed his or her affidavit as to scripts.

3 Alteration of claim without amendment of writ

Whenever a statement of claim is delivered, the plaintiff may therein alter, modify, or extend his or her claim without any amendment of the originating application.

4 Specific relief to be claimed

- (1) Every statement of claim shall state specifically the relief which the plaintiff claims, either simply or in the alternative, and it shall not be necessary to ask for further or other relief, which may always be given, as the court thinks just, to the same extent as if it had been asked for.
- (2) The same rule shall apply to any counterclaim made, or relief claimed by the defendant, in his or her defence.

5 Several claims and defences

- (1) Where the plaintiff seeks relief in respect of several distinct claims or causes of complaint founded on separate and distinct grounds, they shall be stated, as far as may be, separately and distinctly.

- (2) The same rule shall apply where the defendant relies on several distinct grounds of defence, set-off, or counterclaim founded on separate and distinct facts.

6 Account stated

In every case in which the cause of action is a stated or settled account, the same shall be alleged with particulars, but in every case in which a statement of account is relied on by way of evidence or admission of any other cause of action which is pleaded, the same shall not be alleged in the pleadings.

7 Probate actions

In probate actions, where the plaintiff disputes the interest of the defendant, he or she shall allege in his or her statement of claim that he or she denies the defendant's interest.

- (3) Where this rule applies—
 - (a) the defendant shall not plead a joinder of issue on any question of fact; and
 - (b) if no admission or denial of an allegation in the originating application or statement is specifically pleaded in the defence—the allegation is to be taken to be admitted; and
 - (c) an allegation in the defence that the defendant does not know and therefore cannot admit a fact alleged in the originating application or statement is to be taken to be a denial.
- (4) Where this rule applies and the defendant wishes to prove a version of facts different from that alleged in the originating application or statement, the defendant shall plead that version in the defence.

- (5) In a defence to which this rule applies, the defendant shall plead every ground of defence to be relied on, together with the facts necessary to establish each such ground.

In actions on bills of exchange, promissory notes, or cheques, a defence in denial must deny some matter of fact.

Examples

The drawing, making, indorsing, accepting, presenting, or notice of dishonour of the bill or note.

Note An example is part of the Act, is not exhaustive and may extend, but does not limit, the meaning of the provision in which it appears (see Legislation Act 2001, s 126 and s 132).

4 Damages

No denial or defence shall be necessary as to damages claimed or their amount and they shall be deemed to be put in issue in all cases, unless expressly admitted.

5 Representative capacities specifically traversed

If either party wishes to deny the right of any other party to claim as executor or as trustee, whether in bankruptcy or otherwise, or in any representative or other alleged capacity, or the alleged constitution of any partnership, he or she shall deny the same specifically.

6 Time for delivery of defence

- (1) Where a defendant has entered an appearance to an originating application including a claim for debt or a liquidated demand, the defence to that claim or demand shall be delivered—

8 Time for defence

When a statement of claim is delivered under to an order, or filed in default of appearance under order 14 rule 11, the defendant unless otherwise ordered, shall deliver his or her defence within such time (if any) as is specified in such order, or, if no time is specified, within 10 days from the delivery, or filing in default, of the statement of claim, unless in either case the time is extended by the court.

9 Costs of improper traverse or refusal to admit

Where the court is of opinion that any allegations of fact denied or not admitted by the defence ought to have been admitted, the court may make such order as is just with respect to any extra costs occasioned by their having been denied or not admitted.

Where a defendant seeks to rely on any grounds as supporting a right of counterclaim, he or she shall state specifically that he or she does so by way of counterclaim.

setting forth the names of all the persons who, if such counterclaim were to be enforced by cross-action, would be defendants to such cross-action, and shall deliver his or her statement of defence to such of them as are parties to the action within the period within which he or she is required to deliver it to the plaintiff.

12 Service on person not party

Where any such person as is mentioned in rule 11 is not a party to the action, he or she shall be summoned to appear by being served with a copy of the defence, and such service shall be regulated by the same provisions as are contained in these rules with respect to the service of an originating application, and every defence so served shall be indorsed in accordance with form 1.17.

13 Must appear

Any person not already a party to the action, who is served with a defence and counterclaim as mentioned in rule 12, must appear thereto, and may be proceeded against as if he or she had been served with a writ of summons to appear in an action.

14 May deliver reply

Any person named in a defence as a party to a counterclaim thereby made, may, without leave, deliver a reply within 10 days from the service on him or her of a copy of the defence, or within such other time as the court orders.

15 Counterclaim may be excluded from action

Where a defendant sets up a counterclaim, if the plaintiff or any other person named as a party to such counterclaim contends that the claim thereby raised ought not to be disposed of by way of counterclaim, but in an independent action, he or she may apply, before reply, to the court for an order that such counterclaim be excluded, and the court may, on the hearing of such application, make such order as is just.

16 Counterclaim may proceed though action stayed

If in any case in which a defendant sets up a counterclaim, the action of the plaintiff is stayed, discontinued, or dismissed, the counterclaim may nevertheless be proceeded with, and the defendant counterclaiming shall, for all the purposes relating to the trial of the counterclaim, be deemed to be the plaintiff, and the plaintiff or the third party the defendant.

18 Notice in probate actions

In probate actions the party opposing a will may, with his or her defence, give notice to the party setting up the will that he or she merely insists on the will being proved in solemn form of law, and only intends to cross-examine the witnesses produced in support of the will, and he or she shall thereupon be at liberty to do so, and shall not, in any event, be liable to pay the costs of the other side, unless the judge is of opinion that there was no reasonable ground for opposing the will.

19 No pleading in abatement

A plea or defence in abatement shall not be pleaded.

20 Plea of the title unnecessary

- (1) A defendant in an action for the recovery of land who is in possession by himself or herself or his or her tenant need not plead his or her title, unless his or her defence depends on an equitable estate or right, or he or she claims relief on any equitable ground against any right or title asserted by the plaintiff.

- (2) Except in the cases mentioned in subrule (1), it shall be sufficient to state by way of defence that he or she is in possession, and it shall be taken to be implied in such statement that he or she denies or does not admit the allegations of fact contained in the plaintiff's statement of claim.

22 Existence of record

On a reply or other pleading denying the existence of a record pleaded by the defendant, a rule for the defendant to produce the record shall not be necessary or used, and instead a 4 days notice shall be substituted, requiring the defendant to produce the record, otherwise judgment.

1 Payment into court otherwise than by money or bond

- (1) In any action for a debt or damages the defendant may at any time after appearance, on notice to the plaintiff, pay into court a sum of money in satisfaction of the claim, or, where several causes of action are joined in 1 action, in satisfaction of 1 or more of the causes of action.

- (3) Where the money is paid into court in satisfaction of 1 or more of several causes of action, the notice shall specify the cause or causes of action in respect of which payment is made, and the sum paid in respect of each of such causes of action, unless the court otherwise orders.
- (4) The notice shall be in accordance with form 1.18, and shall state whether liability is admitted or denied, and receipt of the notice shall be acknowledged in writing by the plaintiff within 3 days.
- (5) A defendant may, except under the defence of tender before action, lodge with the registrar a bond in accordance with form 1.19 given by—

- (6) The authority may be in accordance with form 1.20, and it shall have force and effect and bind the insurer or corporation until notice of revocation has been filed in the registry.
- (7) These rules shall then apply as if the defendant had paid money into court.
- (8) A defendant may, instead of paying into court a sum of money or lodging with the registrar a bond in accordance with subrule (5), lodge with the registrar a security, which is satisfactory to the registrar, securing payment of the sum to the registrar in the event that the plaintiff accepts, under rule 2, the sum secured in satisfaction of the claim.
- (9) Where the registrar has accepted a security under subrule (8), these rules shall then apply as if the defendant had paid money into court.
- (10) A defendant who has paid money into court in accordance with this rule may without leave make further payments increasing the sum paid in by him or her.

1AA Interest up to date of payment into court

For this order, the plaintiff's claim or cause of action in respect of a debt or damages shall be construed as a claim or cause of action in respect, also, of such interest as might be included in the judgment, whether under the Act, section 69 or otherwise, if judgment were given at the date of the payment into court.

1A Payment in by defendant who has counterclaimed

Where a defendant, who makes by counterclaim a claim against the plaintiff for a debt or damages, pays a sum of money into court under rule 1, the notice of payment into court must state, if it be the case, that in making the payment the defendant has taken into account and intends to dispose of—

- (2) Within 14 days after receipt of a notice of acceptance under subrule (1), a defendant who has made a payment into court by bond or other security shall pay into court the amount of the bond or security.
- (3) If the defendant fails to make such payment he or she shall not be entitled to any advantage under the rules by reason of his or her payment into court and the party who gave the acceptance may either withdraw that acceptance by a further notice or require the registrar to assign and deliver to him or her the bond or security for the purpose of enforcement.

- (4) Payment shall be made to the plaintiff, or, on his or her written authority, to his or her solicitor, and thereupon proceedings in the action or in respect of the specified cause or causes of action, as the case may be, shall be stayed.
- (5) If the plaintiff accepts money paid into court in satisfaction of the claim or accepts a sum or sums paid in respect of 1 or more of specified causes of action and gives notice that the other cause of action is, or other causes of action are, abandoned, the plaintiff may after 4 days from payment out and unless the court otherwise orders, lodge a bill of costs for taxation, such bill comprising the costs incurred to the date of payment into court and such costs as are reasonably incurred in accepting the payment into court.
- (6) The plaintiff may sign judgment for the amount of taxed costs 48 hours after taxation of the costs.

- (8) This rule shall not apply to an action or cause of action to which a defence of tender before action is pleaded.
- (9) Where money is paid into court by a defendant who made a counterclaim and the notice of payment into court stated, in relation to any sum so paid, that in making the payment the defendant had taken into account and intended to dispose of the cause or causes of action, or the specified cause or causes of action in respect of which he or she claimed, then, on the plaintiff accepting that sum, all further proceedings on the counterclaim or in respect of the specified cause or causes of action, as the case may be, against the plaintiff shall be stayed.

- (2) These rules shall then apply as if the defendant had paid money into court.

3 Close of pleadings

- (1) Where—
 - (a) a pleading subsequent to reply is not ordered—then at the expiration of 7 days from the delivery of the defence or reply (if any); or
 - (b) a pleading subsequent to reply is ordered, and the party who has been ordered or given leave to deliver that pleading fails to do so within the time limited for that purpose—then at the expiration of the period so limited; the pleadings shall be deemed to be closed, and, subject to subrules (2) and (3), the material statements of fact in the pleading last delivered shall be deemed to have been denied and put in issue.

- (2) Where no defence to a counterclaim has been delivered, the facts stated in the counterclaim shall be taken to have been admitted.
- (3) A plaintiff is not entitled to deliver a defence to a counterclaim except—
 - (a) within 14 days after the delivery of the counterclaim; or
 - (b) with the leave of the court.

Order 28 Matters arising pending the action

1 Defence arising before statement of defence

- (1) Where there are pleadings, any ground of defence which has arisen after action brought, but before the defendant has delivered his or her statement of defence and before the time limited for his or her doing so has expired, may be raised by the defendant in his or her statement of defence, either alone or together with other grounds of defence.
- (2) If, after a statement of defence has been delivered, any ground of defence arises to any set-off or counterclaim alleged therein by the defendant, it may be raised by the plaintiff in his or her reply, either alone or together with any other ground of reply.
- (3) Where there are no pleadings, the defendant shall not, except by leave of the judge, be allowed to rely on any ground of defence which has arisen after action brought, unless he or she has given, within 8 days after such ground of defence arose, notice in writing to the plaintiff stating the particulars thereof.

2 Defence arising after statement of defence

Where any ground of defence arises after the defendant has delivered a statement of defence, or after the time limited for his or her doing so has expired, the defendant may, and where any ground of defence to any set-off or counterclaim arises after reply, or after the time limited for delivering a reply has expired, the plaintiff may, within 8 days after such ground of defence has arisen, or at any subsequent time by leave of the court, deliver a further defence or further reply (as the case may be) setting forth the same.

3 Confession of defence

- (1) Whenever any defendant, in his or her statement of defence, or in any further statement of defence as in rule 2, or by notice in writing under rule 1 (1), alleges any ground of defence which has arisen after the commencement of the action, the plaintiff may deliver a confession of such defence, which confession may be in accordance with form 1.22, and he or she may thereupon sign judgment for his or her costs up to the time of the pleading of such defence, or the giving of such notice, unless the court, either before or after the delivery of such confession, otherwise orders.
- (2) This rule applies with necessary changes to a reply to a counterclaim.

Order 29 Proceedings in lieu of demurrer

1 No demurrer allowed

A demurrer shall not be allowed.

2 Points of law, how disposed of

Any party may raise by his or her pleading any point of law, and any point so raised shall be disposed of by the judge at or after the trial, but by consent of the parties, or by order of the court, on the application of either party, the same may be set down for hearing and disposed of at any time before the trial.

3 Order thereon

If, in the opinion of the court, the decision of such point of law substantially disposes of the whole action, or of any distinct cause of action, ground of defence, set-off, counterclaim, or reply therein, the court may thereupon dismiss the action or make such other order therein as is just.

4 Striking out pleadings

The court may order any pleading to be struck out, on the ground that it discloses no reasonable cause of action or answer, and in any such cause, or in case of the action or defence being shown by the pleadings to be frivolous or vexatious, the court may order the action to be stayed or dismissed, or judgment to be entered accordingly, as is just.

5 Declaratory judgment

No action or proceeding shall be open to objection on the ground that a merely declaratory judgment or order is sought thereby, and the court may make binding declarations of right, whether any consequential relief is, or could be, claimed, or not.

Order 30 Discontinuance

1 May be entire or partial

- (1) The plaintiff may, where there are pleadings, at any time before the receipt of the defendant's defence, or, after the receipt thereof, before taking any other proceeding in the action (save any interlocutory application), and, where there are no pleadings, the plaintiff may, within 15 days after appearance, by notice in writing, wholly discontinue his or her action against all or any of the defendants, or withdraw any part or parts of his or her alleged cause of complaint, and thereupon he or she shall pay the defendant's costs of the action, or, if the action is not wholly discontinued, the costs occasioned by the matter so withdrawn.
- (2) Such costs shall be taxed, and such discontinuance or withdrawal (as the case may be) shall not be a defence to any subsequent action.
- (3) Save as in this rule otherwise provided, it shall not be competent for the plaintiff to withdraw the record or discontinue the action without leave of the court, but the court may, before, or at or after the hearing or trial, on such terms as to costs and as to any other action and otherwise as are just, order the action to be discontinued, or any part of the alleged cause of complaint to be struck out.

1A Striking out defence

The court may, in like manner, and with the like discretion as to terms, on the application of a defendant, order the whole or any part of his or her alleged grounds of defence or counterclaim to be withdrawn or struck out, but it shall not be competent to a defendant to withdraw his or her defence, or any part thereof without such leave.

2 Withdrawal by consent

A cause may be discontinued at any time on filing a consent in writing signed by all parties.

3 Costs

A defendant may enter judgment for the costs of the action if it is wholly discontinued against him or her, or for the costs occasioned by the matter withdrawn if the action is not wholly discontinued, in case such respective costs are not paid within 4 days after taxation.

4 Subsequent action stayed until costs paid

If any subsequent action is brought before payment of the costs of a discontinued action for the same, or substantially the same, cause of action the court may, if it or he or she thinks fit, order a stay of such subsequent action until such costs have been paid.

Order 31 Default of pleading

1 Nondelivery of statement of claim

If the plaintiff, being bound to deliver a statement of claim, does not deliver the same within the time allowed for that purpose, the defendant may, at the expiration of that time, apply to the court to dismiss the action with costs, for want of prosecution, and on the hearing of such application the court may, if no statement of claim has been delivered, order the action to be dismissed accordingly, or may make such other order on such terms as to the court seem just.

2 Claims for debt and liquidated demands

- (1) Where an originating application contains only a claim for debt or a liquidated demand, and a defendant fails to deliver a defence within the time required under these rules, the plaintiff may enter final judgment against the defendant.
- (2) Final judgment under subrule (1) may be entered for—
 - (a) any sum not exceeding the amount specified in the application; and
 - (b) interest—
 - (i) at the rate specified in the application to the date of judgment; or
 - (ii) if no interest is specified in the application—interest to the date of judgment, or a lump sum in lieu of such interest, determined by the court; and
 - (c) costs.
- (3) In determining interest or a lump sum for subrule (2) (b), the court may have regard to practice directions issued by the court relating to interest up to judgment.

- (4) Where this rule applies in relation to a defendant to an application, the plaintiff may proceed with the action in respect of a claim for debt or a liquidated demand against any other defendant appearing to the application.

4 Damages, detention of goods

If the plaintiff's claim is for pecuniary damages only, or for detention of goods with or without a claim for pecuniary damages, and the defendant, or all the defendants, if more than 1, make default as mentioned in rule 2, the plaintiff may enter interlocutory judgment.

5 On default of 1 or more of several defendants

If the plaintiff's claim is for a debt or liquidated demand, and also for pecuniary damages only, or for detention of goods with or without a claim for pecuniary damages, and any defendant makes default as mentioned in rule 2, the plaintiff may enter final judgment for the debt or liquidated demand, interest and costs as under rule 2 and may also enter interlocutory judgment for the value of the goods and the damages, for damages only or for the value of the goods only, as the case may be.

In an action for the recovery of land, if the defendant makes default as mentioned in rule 2, the plaintiff may enter final judgment that the person whose title is asserted in the originating application recover possession of the land, with his or her costs.

8 Mesne profits

Where an originating application for the recovery of land includes a claim for mesne profits, arrears of rent, or double value in respect of the premises claimed, or any part of them, or damages for breach of contract or wrong or injury to the premises claimed, if the defendant makes default as mentioned in rule 2, or (if there is more than 1 defendant) some or 1 of the defendants make such default, the plaintiff may enter final judgment against any defendant not appearing to the application for the possession of the land and interlocutory judgment for the claim, and proceed with the action against the others.

9 Where a defence is delivered to part of claim only

- (1) If the plaintiff's claim is for a debt or liquidated demand, or for pecuniary damages only, or for the detention of goods with or without a claim for pecuniary damages, or for any of such matters, or for the recovery of land, and the defendant delivers a defence which purports to offer an answer to part only of the plaintiff's alleged cause of action, the plaintiff may by leave of the court enter judgment, final, or interlocutory, as the case may be, for the part unanswered, provided that the unanswered part consists of a separate cause of action, or is severable from the rest (as in the case of part of a debt or liquidated demand).
- (2) Where there is a counterclaim, execution on any such judgment in respect of the plaintiff's claim shall not issue without leave of the court.

9A Application for final judgment—debt or liquidated amount

- (1) A plaintiff applying to enter final judgment for a debt or liquidated demand under rule 2, 6 or 9 must file with the registrar—

10 Probate actions

In probate actions, if any defendant makes default in delivering a defence, the action may proceed, notwithstanding such default.

11 Motion for judgment on default

In all actions other than those mentioned in rules 1 to 10, if the defendant, being bound to deliver a defence, makes default in delivering the same, the plaintiff may set down the action on motion for judgment, and such judgment shall be given as, on the originating application or statement of claim, the court considers the plaintiff is entitled to.

12 On default of 1 of several defendants

Where in any such action as is mentioned in rule 11 there are several defendants, then if 1 of such defendants makes such default as is mentioned in rule 11 the plaintiff may either, if the cause of action is severable, set down the action at once on motion for judgment against the defendant so making default, or may set it down against him or her at the time when it is entered for trial or set down on motion for judgment against the other defendants.

13 Default of any other party to issue

In any case in which issues arise in an action other than between plaintiff and defendant, if any party to any such issue makes default in delivering any pleading which he or she is bound to deliver, the opposite party may apply to the court for such judgment (if any) as on the pleadings he or she appears to be entitled to, and the court may order judgment to be entered accordingly, or may make such other order as is necessary to do complete justice between the parties.

13A Form of interlocutory or final judgment

An interlocutory or final judgment must be in accordance with form 1.9.

14 Judgment by default may be set aside

Any judgment by default, whether under this or any other order, may be set aside by the court on such terms as to costs or otherwise as the court thinks fit, and where an action has been set down on motion for judgment under rule 11, such setting down may be dealt with by the court in the same way as if the judgment by default had been signed when the case was set down.

- (b) give leave to any party to amend any document of that party in the action; in such manner and on such terms as the court considers just.

(2) All necessary amendments shall be made for the purpose of determining the real questions raised by or otherwise depending on the action, of correcting any defect or error in the action or of avoiding multiplicity of actions.

(3) If there is a mistake in the name or identity of a party, an amendment may be made to correct the reference to the name of the party notwithstanding that the effect of the amendment is to substitute another person as a party.

(4) If—

- (a) an amendment to correct a reference to the name of a party is made under an order under subrule (1); and
- (b) the effect of the amendment is to substitute another person as a party;

5 Failure to amend answering pleading

the party who filed the answering pleading shall be taken to rely on it in answer to the amended pleading.

6 Time for reply to unamended defence

Where an answering pleading to which rule 5 applies is a defence, the time within which the plaintiff may deliver a reply is the time that would be allowed under these rules if an amended defence had been delivered on the last day allowed for doing so.

7 Disallowance of amendment

The court may, in any proceeding, issue a subpoena to give evidence, a subpoena for production, or a subpoena for production and to give evidence, in the prescribed form or in such other form as the court directs for the attendance or production on any trial or other occasion of or by the person named before the court or before any judge, officer, examiner or other person having authority to take evidence.

26 Return date for subpoena for production

A subpoena for production shall not require a person to produce a document earlier than 14 days after the service of the subpoena, unless the court orders otherwise.

26A Power of registrar to grant leave to inspect documents

Unless the court otherwise orders, where the person named in a subpoena for production does not object to the documents produced by him or her being inspected by the parties to the proceedings, and no party to the proceeding objects, the registrar may give the parties leave to inspect the documents.

27 Conduct money

- (1) Where a party causes to be served a subpoena requiring the person named to attend or to produce any document or thing, or both, the party shall, at the time of service, tender to that person—
 - (a) an amount sufficient to enable the person to comply with the subpoena; and
 - (b) a written undertaking to compensate the person for any expense or loss reasonably incurred in complying with the subpoena.
- (2) If the person named in a subpoena is a corporation, the amount and undertaking referred to in subrule (1) may be tendered to any person on whom the subpoena may be served.
- (3) Where a person named in a subpoena has not received an amount that he or she considers adequate to compensate for expense or loss reasonably incurred, or expected to be reasonably incurred, in complying with the subpoena, the person may, after having given the party who caused service of the subpoena not less than 7 days notice of his or her intention to do so, apply in writing to the taxing officer to determine the amount that is sufficient to compensate for such expense or loss.
- (4) On the taxing officer determining an amount for subrule (3), the person who caused service of the subpoena shall pay that amount to the applicant.

- (5) A determination for subrule (3) shall be deemed to be a judgment of the court for the amount determined against the person who caused service of the subpoena and may be enforced accordingly.

28 Production by non-party

- (1) Where the person named in a subpoena for production of any document or thing in relation to a proceeding, being a subpoena requiring attendance before the court or officer of the court, is not a party to the proceeding, the subpoena shall, unless the court otherwise orders, permit him or her to produce the document or thing to the registrar not later than the day before the first date on which his or her attendance is required, instead of attending and producing the document or thing as required by the subpoena.
- (2) Where a document or thing is produced to the registrar under to subrule (1), the registrar shall—
- (a) give a receipt to the person producing the document or thing; and
 - (b) produce the document or thing as the nature of the case requires or as the court directs.
- (3) This rule does not apply to so much of a subpoena as requires the person named to attend to give evidence in any proceeding.

29 Costs of complying with subpoena

- (1) Where a person named in a subpoena for production of any document or thing in relation to a proceeding is not a party to the proceeding and he or she incurs substantial expense or loss in complying with the subpoena in excess of that provided for by rule 27, the court dealing with the proceeding may order that the party who requested the issue of the subpoena pay to that person, in addition to any amount which the person served with the subpoena is entitled to be paid under rule 27, or under order 65 rule 7 and schedule 4, an amount which is sufficient to compensate him or her for such expense or loss as is reasonably incurred or lost by that person in complying with the subpoena.

- (2) Where an order is made under subrule (1), the court hearing the matter shall either determine the amount or direct that the amount shall be determined by the taxing officer.
- (3) On the court or the taxing officer determining an amount for subrule (2), the person who caused service of the subpoena shall pay that amount to the applicant.
- (4) An order under subrule (1) shall be deemed to be a judgment of the court for the amount determined for subrule (2) against the person who caused service of the subpoena and may be enforced accordingly.

30 Banker's books

- (1) Where, in any proceeding, the person named in the subpoena is an officer of a bank, and the bank is not a party to the proceeding, and the subpoena requires the officer to produce any banker's book, the contents of which can be proved under legislation in force in the ACT by means other than the production of the book, the subpoena shall, unless the court otherwise orders, expressly permit the officer to produce proof of the relevant entries in accordance with that legislation, instead of producing the banker's book.
- (2) When issuing a subpoena the registrar shall not be concerned to enquire whether subrule (1) applies to the subpoena, but the court may set aside as irregular a subpoena which does not comply with subrule (1).

- (5) If a medical expert to whom a notice has been delivered in accordance with rule 32B fails to attend the court on the date and at the time stated in the notice, the court may give leave for the service of a subpoena on the medical expert requiring the attendance of the medical expert.

16 Persons to show cause

The court may direct that the order nisi shall be addressed to, and served on, any person who, in the opinion of the court, ought to have notice thereof, and any person who, in the opinion of the court, would be affected by the issue of the peremptory writ may show cause against the order nisi, and, if he or she does so, shall be liable to costs as if the order had been addressed to him or her.

17 Form of writ

- (1) Unless otherwise ordered by the court, every writ of mandamus shall command the person to whom it is addressed to do the act in question, or show cause why he or she has not done it, but the court may direct that the command shall be peremptory in the first instance.

23 Pleading to return

If the return does not certify that the act commanded has been done, the same proceedings shall be had and taken, and within the same time, as if the return were a defence in an action in which the prosecutor was the plaintiff and the person to whom the writ is directed was the defendant, and had pleaded this return as his or her defence.

24 Peremptory writ

If the question of fact and law (if any) raised by the return is determined in favour of the prosecutor by judgment of the court or otherwise, the prosecutor shall be entitled to a peremptory writ of mandamus, commanding the persons to whom the first writ was directed to do the act commanded, and such writ shall be awarded by the judgment (if any) or, if there is no judgment, by a separate order.

25 Costs when peremptory writ awarded in the first instance or on obedience

27 Time

An application for a writ of mandamus, or an order in the nature of a mandamus, to a judicial tribunal to enter a minute of adjournment and hear a matter, shall be made within 2 months of the date of the refusal to hear, or within such further time as is, under special circumstances, allowed by the court.

31 Proceedings on judgment

If judgment is given for the prosecutor, the judgment shall include a direction that a writ of prohibition shall issue.

32 Direction to proceed

When a writ of prohibition has been issued, and it is afterwards made to appear to the court that relief ought to be given against the judgment or order by which the writ was awarded on any ground on which relief might be given against a judgment in an action, the court may direct the judicial tribunal to which the writ of prohibition was issued to hear or determine the matter in question or proceed as if the writ had not been issued.

33 Prohibition by order

39 Defence and subsequent proceedings

The defendant shall plead to the information within the same time and in the same manner as if the information were a statement of claim in an action, and the same proceedings shall be taken in all respects as if the proceeding by information were an action in which the relator was plaintiff and the defendant was defendant.

40 Judgment costs

If judgment is given for the Crown, the judgment shall award that the defendant be ousted from the office usurped by him or her.

41 Disclaimer

- (1) The defendant may, if he or she thinks fit, disclaim the office in question.
- (2) Such disclaimer shall be signed by the defendant and attested by a person authorised to take an affidavit, and shall be filed, and a copy shall be served on the relator within the time allowed for delivering a defence.
- (3) The relator shall thereupon, unless the court otherwise orders, be entitled to enter judgment of ouster with costs, including the costs of the order giving leave to exhibit the information.

42 Consolidation

When proceedings by information of quo warranto, or for relief of a like nature, are pending against several persons for usurpation of offices of the same nature, and on the same grounds of objection, the court may direct the proceedings to be consolidated, as in the case of actions, and for that purpose may make such orders as are just, but an order for consolidation or stay of proceedings against any defendant shall not be made on the application of a defendant unless he or she undertakes to enter a disclaimer in the event of judgment being given for the relator in the proceeding which is not stayed.

Relief by way of interpleader may be granted—

- (a) where the person seeking relief (in this order called the applicant) is under liability for any debt, money, goods, or chattels for or in respect of which he or she is, or expects to be, sued by 2 or more parties (in this order called the claimants) making adverse claims thereto; and
- (b) where the applicant is the sheriff or other officer charged with the execution of process by or under the authority of the court, and claim is made to any money, goods, or chattels taken or intended to be taken in execution under any process, or to the proceeds or value of any such goods or chattels, by any person other than the persons against whom the process issued.

2 Affidavit

The applicant must satisfy the court by affidavit or otherwise—

- (a) that the applicant claims no interest in the subject matter in dispute, other than for charges or costs; and
- (b) that the claimant does not collude with any of the claimants; and
- (c) that the applicant, except where he or she is the sheriff or other officer charged with the execution of process by or under the authority of the court who has seized goods and has withdrawn from possession in consequence of the execution creditor admitting the claims of the claimant under rule 16, is willing to pay or transfer the subject matter into court or to dispose of it as the court directs.

3 Where claims adverse

The applicant shall not be disentitled to relief by reason only that the titles of the claimants have not a common origin but are adverse to and independent of one another.

4 Time defendant may apply

Where the applicant is a defendant, application for relief may be made at any time after service of the originating application.

5 Summons to state claim

The applicant may take out a summons calling on the claimants to appear and state the nature and particulars of their claims, and either to maintain or relinquish them.

6 Stay of proceedings

If the application is made by a defendant in an action, the court may stay all further proceedings in the action.

7 Order on summons

If the claimants appear in pursuance of the summons, the court may order either that any claimant be made a defendant in any action already commenced in respect of the subject matter in dispute in lieu of or in addition to the applicant, or that an issue between the claimants be stated and tried, and in the latter case may direct which of the claimants is to be plaintiff, and which defendant, and the mode in which such trial shall be had.

8 On consent or request of claimant court may decide

The court may, with the consent of both claimants or on the request of any claimant, if, having regard to the value of the subject matter in dispute, it seems desirable so to do, dispose of the merits of their claims, and decide the same in a summary manner and on such terms as are just.

9 Question of law

Where the question is a question of law, and the facts are not in dispute, the court may either decide the question without directing the trial of an issue, or order that a special case be stated for the opinion of the Court of Appeal.

10 Claimant failing to appear etc barred

If a claimant, having been duly served with a summons calling on him or her to appear and maintain or relinquish his or her claim, does not appear in pursuance of the summons, or, having appeared, neglects or refuses to comply with any order made after his or her appearance, the court may make an order declaring him or her, and all persons claiming under him or her, for ever barred against the applicant and persons claiming under him or her, but the order shall not affect the rights of the claimants as between themselves.

11 Issue to be filed

- (1) The plaintiff in an interpleader issue shall file the issue within 4 days after the making of the order under rule 7, and shall thereupon pay the fees and jury fees (if any) payable on entering a cause for trial.
- (2) If the plaintiff makes default in so doing, the order shall be deemed to be abandoned, and the court may make such further order on the applicant's summons, and as to the costs of the issue directed, as is just and reasonable.

12 Goods seized in execution

When goods or chattels have been seized in execution by a sheriff or other officer charged with the execution of process of the court, and any claimant alleges that he or she is entitled, under a bill of sale or otherwise, to the goods or chattels by way of security for debt, the court may order the sale of the whole or a part thereof, and direct the application of the proceeds of the sale in such manner and on such terms as are just.

13 Trial of issue

Orders 35 and 39 shall, with the necessary modifications, apply to an interpleader issue, and the court may finally dispose of the whole matter of the interpleader proceedings, including all costs not otherwise provided for.

14 Where several causes pending

Where in any interpleader proceedings it is necessary or expedient to make 1 order in several causes or matters pending in the court, such order may be made, and shall be entitled in all such causes or matters, and any such order (subject to the right of appeal) shall be binding on the parties in all such causes or matters.

15 Costs

The court may, in or for the purposes of any interpleader proceedings, make all such orders as to costs and all other matters as are just and reasonable.

- (2) If the execution creditor admits the title of the claimant, and gives notice as directed by this rule, he or she shall only be liable to the sheriff or officer for any fees and expenses incurred prior to the receipt of the notice admitting the claim.

17 Withdrawal by sheriff

- (1) When the execution creditor has given notice to the sheriff or his or her officer that he or she admits the claim of the claimant, the sheriff may thereupon withdraw from possession of the goods claimed, and may apply for an order protecting him or her from any action in respect of the seizure and possession of the goods, and the judge may make such order as is just and reasonable in respect of the same.
- (2) Notice of the intended application shall be given to the claimant, who may, if he or she so desires, attend the hearing of the same, and if he or she attends, the judge may, in and for the purposes of such application, make all such orders as to costs as are just and reasonable.

18 Costs in interpleader

When the execution creditor does not in due time, as directed by rules 1 to 17, admit or dispute the title of the claimant to the goods or chattels, and the claimant does not withdraw his or her claim by notice in writing to the sheriff or his or her officer, the sheriff may apply for an interpleader summons to be issued, and should the claimant withdraw his or her claim by notice in writing to the sheriff or his or her officer, or the execution creditor in like manner serve an admission of the title of the claimant prior to the return day of such summons, and at the same time give notice of such admission to the claimant, the judge may, in and for the purposes of the interpleader proceedings, make all such orders as to costs, fees, charges, and expenses as are just and reasonable.

- (2) Where an employed solicitor attended in court or in chambers or before the registrar to instruct counsel, the taxing officer may allow the amount shown in schedule 4 for such an attendance if he or she is of opinion that the attendance was warranted, but if he or she is not of that opinion he or she may allow the amount shown in schedule 4 for the attendance of a clerk.

- (3) If a person named in a subpoena has not received an amount that the person considers adequate to compensate for expense or loss reasonably incurred, or expected to be reasonably incurred, in complying with the subpoena, the person may, after having given the party who served the subpoena at least 7 days notice of his or her intention to do so, apply in writing to the arbitrator or umpire to decide the amount that is sufficient to compensate for the expense or loss.
- (4) A decision under subrule (3) is taken to be a judgment of the court for the amount decided against the party who served the subpoena and may be enforced accordingly.

11E Production by non-party

- (1) This rule applies to a subpoena for production of a document or thing in relation to a proceeding that requires attendance before the arbitrator or umpire.
- (2) Unless the court otherwise orders, if the person named in the subpoena is not a party, the subpoena must allow the person to produce the document or thing to the arbitrator or umpire, at the address nominated by the arbitrator or umpire and included in the subpoena, not later than the day before the first day the person's attendance is required, instead of attending and producing the document or thing as required by the subpoena.
- (3) If a document or thing is produced to the arbitrator or umpire under subrule (2), the arbitrator or umpire must give a receipt to the person producing the document or thing.
- (4) This rule does not apply to a part of the subpoena that requires the person named to attend to give evidence in the proceeding.

11G Banker's books

- (1) This rule applies if—
- (a) the person named in the subpoena is an officer of a bank; and
 - (b) the bank is not a party; and
 - (c) the subpoena requires the person to produce a banker's book; and
 - (d) the contents of the banker's book can be proved under a law in force in the ACT in a way other than the production of the book.
- (2) Unless the court otherwise orders, the subpoena must expressly allow the person to produce proof of the relevant entries in accordance with that law, instead of producing the banker's book.
- (3) The registrar is not required to work out whether this rule applies to a subpoena when issuing it, but the court may set aside as irregular a subpoena which does not comply with subrule (2).

11H Subpoenas to produce document

- (1) A subpoena to produce a document must have written on it or annexed to it a written statement commencing with the words 'Order 88 rules 11M and 11N of the Supreme Court Rules are as follows:' and followed by the text of rules 11M and 11N.
- (2) Subrule (1) does not apply to a subpoena if it is intended that the procedure provided for in rules 11M and 11N is not to be followed.

 - (b) if a person mentioned in paragraph (a) refuses to accept the subpoena—the subpoena is put down in the person's presence and the person is told of the nature of the subpoena.
- (4) If a subpoena requires a medical expert to attend to give evidence, it may be served later than 6 weeks before the day fixed for the hearing of the proceeding only if—

 - (b) the court otherwise orders.
- (5) If a medical expert to whom a notice has been delivered in accordance with rule 11J fails to attend the court on the day and at the time stated in the notice, the court may give leave for the service of a subpoena on the medical expert requiring the attendance of the medical expert.

11J Notice instead of subpoena to medical expert

- (1) In a proceeding, instead of a subpoena, a notice may be delivered to a medical expert stating the date and time fixed for the hearing of the proceeding and requesting the expert's attendance.

- (2) A notice under subrule (1)—
- (a) may be delivered in the same way as a subpoena may be served on a medical expert under rule 11I (1) or (3); and
 - (b) must not be delivered later than 6 weeks before the date fixed for the hearing of the proceeding.

11K No shortening of time for service

- (2) The party serving the subpoena may arrange with the served person that the document be sent or delivered to the arbitrator or umpire.
- (3) If an arrangement is made under subrule (2), the served person must—
 - (a) post the document and related material to the arbitrator or umpire so as to reach the arbitrator or umpire before the day stated in the subpoena; or

- (b) deliver the document and related material to the arbitrator or umpire before that day.
- (4) On receiving a document produced in accordance with this rule, the arbitrator or umpire must notify the party that served the subpoena or the party's solicitor that the arbitrator or umpire has received the document from the served person.
- (5) The arbitrator or umpire may allow a party or, if requested by a party, someone else to inspect a document produced under this rule.
- (6) If the served person produces documents to the arbitrator or umpire in accordance with this rule and with an arrangement with the party who served the subpoena, the served person has answered the subpoena and is taken to have complied with it.
- (7) In this rule:
 - related material*, for a document required to be produced under subpoena, means—

1 About the endnotes

Amending and modifying laws are annotated in the legislation history and the amendment history. Current modifications are not included in the republished law but are set out in the endnotes.

Not all editorial amendments made under the Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 are annotated in the amendment history. Full details of any amendments can be obtained from the Parliamentary Counsel's Office.

Uncommenced amending laws and expiries are listed in the legislation history and the amendment history. These details are underlined. Uncommenced provisions and amendments are not included in the republished law but are set out in the last endnote.

If all the provisions of the law have been renumbered, a table of renumbered provisions gives details of previous and current numbering.

The endnotes also include a table of earlier republications.

If the republished law includes penalties, current information about penalty unit values appears on the republication inside front cover.
