

Regulations under the Careless Use of Fire Ordinance 1936-1937.

I, JOHN McEWEN, the Minister of State for the Interior, in pursuance of the powers conferred upon me by the Careless Use of Fire Ordinance 1936-1937, hereby make the following Regulations.

Dated this twenty-third day of February, 1938.

J. McEWEN,
Minister of State for the Interior.

CARELESS USE OF FIRE REGULATIONS.

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Careless Use of Fire Short title.
Regulations.

2. Any person who sells, offers for sale, distributes, or uses in the Territory any matches other than those so made as to strike only on a preparation affixed to the containing box or a box containing the same description of matches shall be guilty of an offence. Selling, distributing or using matches.

Penalty: Ten pounds.

Selling, distributing or using any stick or crude phosphorus. 3. Any person who, without the written permission of the Minister (proof whereof shall lie upon the person charged), sells, offers for sale, distributes, or uses in the Territory, any stick or crude phosphorus shall be guilty of an offence.

Penalty: Ten pounds.

Steam-engines. 4.—(1.) The owner of any steam-engine shall install efficient spark arrestors and sound ash-pans to catch all sparks and ashes, and shall maintain the arrestors and pans in good repair.

(2.) A person in charge of any steam engine shall not leave the engine unless he has caused to be extinguished any live coals which may have dropped from the engine, and taken sufficient measures to prevent any live coals dropping from the engine after his departure.

Penalty: Twenty pounds.