1 Name of regulation

This regulation is the Crimes (Sentence Administration) Regulation 2006.

2 Dictionary

The dictionary at the end of this regulation is part of this regulation.

Note 1 The dictionary at the end of this regulation defines certain terms used in this regulation, and includes references (signpost definitions) to other terms defined elsewhere.

For example, the signpost definition 'drug of dependence—see the Drugs of Dependence Act 1989, section 3 (1).' means that the term 'drug of dependence' is defined in that section and the definition applies to this regulation.

Note 2 A definition in the dictionary (including a signpost definition) applies to the entire regulation unless the definition, or another provision of the regulation, provides otherwise or the contrary intention otherwise appears (see Legislation Act, s 155 and s 156 (1)).

3 Notes

A note included in this regulation is explanatory and is not part of this regulation.

Note See the Legislation Act, s 127 (1), (4) and (5) for the legal status of notes.

4 Parole order—core conditions—Act, s 137 (1) (f)

The following conditions are prescribed:

- (a) the offender must live only at premises approved by the chief executive;
- (b) the offender must report to a person at a time and place nominated by the chief executive;
- (c) the offender must not use a prohibited substance, or abuse a prescribed substance that is lawfully obtained;

- (d) the offender must authorise each doctor, therapist or counsellor of the offender to give information about the offender to the chief executive;
- (e) the offender must not leave the ACT for longer than 1 day without the prior written permission of the chief executive;
- (f) the offender must comply with all conditions to which a permission to leave the ACT is subject;
- (g) the offender must not leave Australia without the board's prior written permission;
- (h) the offender must not have possession or control of a firearm, prohibited weapon, prohibited article or offensive weapon;
- (i) the offender must comply with any direction given to the offender by the chief executive.

Example for par (b)

to report to a corrections officer at a correctional centre, or to a person where the offender works

Examples for par (i)

directions about any of the following:

- associating with particular people
- visiting any place, including a particular suburb
- obtaining, being available for or keeping employment
- attending or taking part in an approved activity or program

Note An example is part of the regulation, is not exhaustive and may extend, but does not limit, the meaning of the provision in which it appears (see Legislation Act, s 126 and s 132).

Dictionary

(see s 2)

Note 1 The Legislation Act contains definitions and other provisions relevant to this regulation.

Note 2 For example, the Legislation Act, dict, pt 1, defines the following terms:
