ACT Civil and Administrative Tribunal (Transitional Provisions) Regulation 2009

SL2009-2

made under the

ACT Civil and Administrative Tribunal Act 2008

Republication No 4

Effective: 22 December 2009 – 2 February 2010

Republication date: 22 December 2009

Last amendment made by A2009-54
(republication for amendments by A2009-44 and A2009-54)

Authorised by the ACT Parliamentary Counsel

About this republication

The republished law

This is a republication of the ACT Civil and Administrative Tribunal (Transitional Provisions) Regulation 2009, made under the ACT Civil and Administrative Tribunal Act 2008 (including any amendment made under the Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 (Editorial changes)) as in force on 22 December 2009. It also includes any amendment, repeal or expiry affecting the republished law to 22 December 2009.

The legislation history and amendment history of the republished law are set out in endnotes 3 and 4.

Kinds of republications

The Parliamentary Counsel's Office prepares 2 kinds of republications of ACT laws (see the ACT legislation register at www.legislation.act.gov.au):

- authorised republications to which the Legislation Act 2001 applies
- unauthorised republications.

The status of this republication appears on the bottom of each page.

Editorial changes

The Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 authorises the Parliamentary Counsel to make editorial amendments and other changes of a formal nature when preparing a law for republication. Editorial changes do not change the effect of the law, but have effect as if they had been made by an Act commencing on the republication date (see Legislation Act 2001, s 115 and s 117). The changes are made if the Parliamentary Counsel considers they are desirable to bring the law into line, or more closely into line, with current legislative drafting practice.

This republication does not include amendments made under part 11.3 (see endnote 1).

Uncommenced provisions and amendments

If a provision of the republished law has not commenced or is affected by an uncommenced amendment, the symbol U appears immediately before the provision heading. The text of the uncommenced provision or amendment appears only in the last endnote.

Modifications

If a provision of the republished law is affected by a current modification, the symbol M appears immediately before the provision heading. The text of the modifying provision appears in the endnotes. For the legal status of modifications, see Legislation Act 2001, section 95.

Penalties

At the republication date, the value of a penalty unit for an offence against this law is $110 for an individual and $550 for a corporation (see Legislation Act 2001, s 133).

ACT Civil and Administrative Tribunal (Transitional Provisions) Regulation 2009
Effective: 22/12/09-02/02/10

page 1

Part 1 Preliminary

1 Name of regulation

This regulation is the ACT Civil and Administrative Tribunal (Transitional Provisions) Regulation 2009.

3 Dictionary

The dictionary at the end of this regulation is part of this regulation.

Note 1 The dictionary at the end of this regulation defines certain terms used in this regulation, and includes references (signpost definitions) to other terms defined elsewhere in this regulation.

For example, the signpost definition 'replaced entity, for part 15 (Miscellaneous)—see section 57.' means that the term 'replaced entity' is defined in that section for part 15.

Note 2 A definition in the dictionary (including a signpost definition) applies to the entire regulation unless the definition, or another provision of the regulation, provides otherwise or the contrary intention otherwise appears (see Legislation Act, s 155 and s 156 (1)).

4 Notes

A note included in this regulation is explanatory and is not part of this regulation.

Note See the Legislation Act, s 127 (1), (4) and (5) for the legal status of notes.

5 Expiry

This regulation expires on the day the ACT Civil and Administrative Tribunal Act 2008, section 301 expires.

a power of attorney authorising someone to represent a party to an application in the Small Claims Court

Note An example is part of the regulation, is not exhaustive and may extend, but does not limit, the meaning of the provision in which it appears (see Legislation Act, s 126 and s 132).

Part 14 Disciplinary matters—other tribunals

53 Definitions—pt 14

In this part:

disciplinary notice means any of the following:

- (a) a disciplinary notice given under the Architects Act 2004, section 43;
- (b) a notice given under the Consumer Credit (Administration) Act 1996, section 23 or section 54;
- (c) a disciplinary notice given under the Construction Occupations (Licensing) Act 2004, section 55;
- (d) a notice given under the Sale of Motor Vehicles Act 1977, section 48A;
- (e) a disciplinary notice given under the Surveyors Act 2007, section 27;
- (f) a notice given under the Tobacco Act 1927, section 55.

previous tribunal means any of the following:

- (a) the architects board established under the Architects Act 2004;
- (b) the chief surveyor established under the Surveyors Act 2007;
- (c) the commissioner for fair trading;
- (d) the construction occupations registrar;
- (e) the registrar of motor vehicle dealers established under the Sale of Motor Vehicles Act 1977;

- (f) the registrar of tobacco established under the Tobacco Act 1927.

54 Disciplinary notice—no action

- (1) This section applies if, before the commencement day—
- (a) a disciplinary notice had been given to a person by a previous tribunal; and
 - (b) the tribunal had not started to consider, or hold an inquiry into, the matter to which the notice relates.
- (2) The disciplinary notice is taken on and after the commencement day to be an application to the ACAT for an occupational discipline order.

55 Disciplinary notice—consideration or inquiry started

- (1) This section applies if, before the commencement day—
- (a) a disciplinary notice had been given to a person by a previous tribunal; and
 - (b) the tribunal had started to consider, or hold an inquiry into, the matter to which the notice relates but had not decided whether to take disciplinary action.
- (2) The old law continues to apply in relation to deciding whether to take disciplinary action.

56 Disciplinary notice—decision to take disciplinary action

- (1) This section applies if, before the commencement day—
- (a) a disciplinary notice had been given to a person by a previous tribunal; and
 - (b) the tribunal had decided to take disciplinary action.

- (2) The decision to take disciplinary action is taken on and after the commencement day to be an occupational discipline order by the ACAT.

Part 15 Miscellaneous

57 Meaning of replaced entity—pt 15

In this part:

replaced entity means an entity—

- (a) that immediately before the commencement day, could consider an application made to the entity; and
- (b) that has ceased to exist; and
- (c) 1 or more functions of which have been taken over by the ACAT.

58 Continued application of old law

- (1) This section applies to a provision of this part that provides for the continued application of an old law to a matter started in a replaced entity before the commencement day.
- (2) To remove any doubt, the provision is additional to, and does not limit, the Legislation Act, section 84 (Saving of operation of repealed and amended laws).

59 Continued existence of replaced entity

- (1) If, under this regulation, an old law continues to apply to a matter started in a replaced entity before the commencement day, the replaced entity continues to exist for that purpose.
- (2) However, if the matter is not decided by the replaced entity within 6 months after the commencement day—
 - (a) on the day after the end of the 6-month period—
 - (i) the replaced entity ceases to exist for the purpose of deciding the matter; and

- (ii) the matter is transferred to the ACAT; and
 - (b) the general president may make orders about the conduct of the matter.
- (3) Despite the repeal of the Administrative Appeals Tribunal Act 1989, that Act continues to apply in relation to the appointment and functions of the president of the AAT until 13 February 2009.

60 Replaced entity—orders about conduct of matter

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) under this regulation, an old law continues to apply to a matter started in a replaced entity before the commencement day; and
 - (b) a member of the replaced entity may make orders under the old law about the conduct of the matter; and
 - (c) the member is not available to make the orders.
- (2) The general president may instead make the orders about the conduct of the matter.

61 Orders to resolve difficulties

- (1) If a difficulty arises in the application of this regulation to a particular matter, the ACAT may make any order it considers appropriate to resolve the difficulty.
- (2) The ACAT may make an order under this section on application by a party or on its own initiative.

62 Rules to resolve difficulties

If a difficulty arises in the application of this regulation to a particular matter, and the ACAT considers the difficulty is likely to arise in the application of this regulation to other matters, the ACAT may make any rule it considers appropriate to resolve the difficulty.

63 Order made by replaced entity

- (1) This section applies if a replaced entity made an order in relation to a matter before the commencement day.
- (2) The order may be enforced as if the order were an order of the ACAT.
- (3) If a territory law requires that the order be reviewed, the order may be reviewed as if the order were an order of the ACAT.

64 Construction of outdated references to replaced entities

In any Act, instrument made under an Act or a document, a reference to a replaced entity is, in relation to anything that has been taken over by the ACAT, a reference to the ACAT.

65 Members of ACAT—remuneration

- (1) This section applies to a person if—
 - (a) the person—
 - (i) was a member of a replaced entity immediately before the commencement day; and
 - (ii) is appointed as a member of the ACAT; and
 - (b) the remuneration tribunal has not determined the remuneration, allowances and other entitlements of the person as a member of the ACAT.
- (2) The person's daily hearing rate as a member of the ACAT are taken to be—
 - (a) if the person was not entitled to a daily hearing rate as a member of the replaced entity—the daily hearing rate of a member of the energy and water consumer council immediately before the commencement day; or

- (b) if the person was a member of more than 1 replaced entity immediately before the commencement day—the highest daily hearing rate that the person was entitled to as a member of a replaced entity immediately before the commencement day; or
- (c) in any other case—the daily hearing rate of the person as a member of the replaced entity immediately before the commencement day.

66 Agents Act—trust money

- (1) Trust money held under the Agents Act 2003 immediately before the commencement day—
 - (a) is, for the Act, an amount received under the Agents Act 2003; and
 - (b) must, as soon as practicable, be paid into the ACAT trust account.

Note The Financial Management Act 1996, s 51B deals with transfers of amounts between trust banking accounts.

- (2) In this section:

trust money—see the Agents Act 2003, section 162 as in force immediately before the commencement day.

Dictionary

(see s 3)

old law, in relation to a matter before the commencement day, means the law in force in relation to the matter immediately before the commencement day.

previous tribunal, for part 14 (Disciplinary matters—other tribunals)—see section 53.

replaced entity, for part 15 (Miscellaneous)—see section 57.

Endnotes

1 About the endnotes

Amending and modifying laws are annotated in the legislation history and the amendment history. Current modifications are not included in the republished law but are set out in the endnotes.

Not all editorial amendments made under the Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 are annotated in the amendment history. Full details of any amendments can be obtained from the Parliamentary Counsel's Office.

Uncommenced amending laws and expiries are listed in the legislation history and the amendment history. These details are underlined. Uncommenced provisions and amendments are not included in the republished law but are set out in the last endnote.

If all the provisions of the law have been renumbered, a table of renumbered provisions gives details of previous and current numbering.

The endnotes also include a table of earlier republications.
