Discrimination Act 1991

A1991-81

Republication No 53

Effective: 16 November 2025

Republication date: 16 November 2025

Last amendment made by A2025-29

About this republication

The republished law

This is a republication of the Discrimination Act 1991 (including any amendment made under the Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 (Editorial changes)) as in force on 16 November 2025. It also includes any commencement, amendment, repeal or expiry affecting this republished law to 16 November 2025.

The legislation history and amendment history of the republished law are set out in endnotes 3 and 4.

Kinds of republications

The Parliamentary Counsel's Office prepares 2 kinds of republications of ACT laws (see the ACT legislation register at www.legislation.act.gov.au):

- authorised republications to which the Legislation Act 2001 applies
- unauthorised republications.

The status of this republication appears on the bottom of each page.

Editorial changes

The Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 authorises the Parliamentary Counsel to make editorial amendments and other changes of a formal nature when preparing a law for republication. Editorial changes do not change the effect of the law, but have effect as if they had been made by an Act commencing on the republication date (see Legislation Act 2001, s 115 and s 117). The changes are made if the Parliamentary Counsel considers they are desirable to bring the law into line, or more closely into line, with current legislative drafting practice.

This republication does not include amendments made under part 11.3 (see endnote 1).

Uncommenced provisions and amendments

If a provision of the republished law has not commenced, the symbol U appears immediately before the provision heading. Any uncommenced amendments that affect this republished law are accessible on the ACT legislation register (www.legislation.act.gov.au). For more information, see the home page for this law on the register.

Modifications

If a provision of the republished law is affected by a current modification, the symbol M appears immediately before the provision heading. The text of the modifying provision appears in the endnotes. For the legal status of modifications, see the Legislation Act 2001, section 95.

Penalties

At the republication date, the value of a penalty unit for an offence against this law is $160 for an individual and $810 for a corporation (see Legislation Act 2001, s 133).

Australian Capital Territory

Discrimination Act 1991

An Act to make certain kinds of discrimination unlawful and to provide for related matters

Part 1 Preliminary

1 Name of Act

This Act is the Discrimination Act 1991.

2 Dictionary

The dictionary at the end of this Act is part of this Act.

Note 1 The dictionary at the end of this Act defines certain terms used in this Act, and includes references (signpost definitions) to other terms defined elsewhere in this Act.

For example, the signpost definition ‘discriminate—see section 8.’ means that the word ‘discriminate’ is defined in section 8.

Note 2 A definition in the dictionary (including a signpost definition) applies to the entire Act unless the definition, or another provision of the Act, provides otherwise or the contrary intention otherwise appears (see Legislation Act, s 155 and s 156 (1)).

3 Notes

A note included in this Act is explanatory and is not part of this Act.

Note See Legislation Act, s 127 (1), (4) and (5) for the legal status of notes.

4 Objects of Act

The objects of this Act are—

- (a) to eliminate discrimination to the greatest extent possible; and
- (b) to promote and protect the right to equality before the law under the Human Rights Act 2004, including—
 - (i) the right to enjoy a person’s human rights without distinction or discrimination of any kind; and

- (ii) the right to the equal protection of the law without discrimination; and
 - (iii) the right to equal and effective protection against discrimination on any ground; and
- (c) to encourage the identification and elimination of systemic causes of discrimination; and
- (d) to promote and facilitate the progressive realisation of equality, as far as reasonably practicable, by recognising that—
 - (i) discrimination can cause social and economic disadvantage and that access opportunities are not equitably distributed throughout society; and
 - (ii) equal application of a rule to different groups can have unequal results or outcomes; and
 - (iii) the achievement of substantive equality may require the making of reasonable adjustments, reasonable accommodation and the taking of special measures.

4AA Interpretation beneficial to people with protected attributes

This Act must be interpreted in a way that is beneficial to a person who has a protected attribute, to the extent it is possible to do so consistently with—

- (a) the objects of this Act; and
- (b) human rights under the Human Rights Act 2004.

Note The Legislation Act, s 139 (1) (which is about interpreting legislation to be consistent with its purpose) and the Human Rights Act 2004, s 30 (which is about interpreting legislation to be consistent with human rights) are also relevant to interpreting territory laws.

4A Meaning of doing an act

- (1) In this Act:

doing an act includes failing to do the act.

Note The Legislation Act, dict, pt 1 defines fail to include refuse.

- (2) In this Act, a reference to doing an act because of a particular matter includes a reference to doing an act because of 2 or more matters that include the particular matter, whether or not the particular matter is the dominant or substantial reason for doing the act.

5AA Meaning of disability

- (1) In this Act:

disability means—

- (a) total or partial loss of a bodily or mental function; or
- (b) total or partial loss of a part of the body; or
- (c) the presence in the body of organisms that cause disease or illness; or
- (d) the presence in the body of organisms that are capable of causing disease or illness; or
- (e) the malfunction, malformation or disfigurement of a part of the body; or
- (f) a disorder or malfunction that results in a person learning differently from a person without the disorder or malfunction; or
- (g) a disorder, illness or disease that affects a person's thought processes, perception of reality, emotions or judgment or that results in disturbed behaviour; or
- (h) any other condition prescribed by regulation.

(2) For this Act, disability includes—

- (a) behaviour that is a symptom or manifestation of the disability; and
- (b) a disability that a person may have in the future, including because of a genetic disposition to the disability; and
- (c) a disability that it is thought a person may have in the future, whether or not—
 - (i) the person has a genetic disposition to the disability; or
 - (ii) there is anything else to indicate the person may have the disability in the future; and

Note Disability also includes a disability that the person has or is thought to have, and a disability that the person has had in the past, or is thought to have had in the past (see s 7 (2)).

- (d) reliance on—
 - (i) a support person; or
 - (ii) a disability aid; or
 - (iii) an assistance animal.

(3) In this section:

assistance animal means an assistance animal trained to assist a person with disability to alleviate the effect of the disability (including by guiding a person who is blind or vision impaired or alerting a person who is deaf or hearing impaired to sounds), that satisfies any requirements prescribed by regulation.

disability aid—

- (a) means equipment (including a palliative or therapeutic device) that is generally recognised to alleviate an effect of a disability; and

(b) includes anything prescribed by regulation.

Note Power to make a statutory instrument (including a regulation) includes power to make different provision in relation to different matters or different classes of matters, and to make an instrument that applies differently by reference to stated exceptions or factors (see Legislation Act, s 48).

support person means a person who provides assistance or services to another person because of a disability the other person has.

Examples

carer, assistant, interpreter, reader

5AB Liability of person relying on assistance animal etc

- (1) This section applies to a person with disability who relies on an assistance animal or disability aid.
- (2) Nothing in this Act affects the liability of the person for any injury, loss or damage caused by the person's assistance animal or disability aid.
- (3) In this section:

assistance animal—see section 5AA (3).

disability aid—see section 5AA (3).

5A Meaning of potential pregnancy

In this Act:

potential pregnancy, of a woman, includes—

- (a) the fact that the woman is or may be capable of bearing children; and
- (b) the fact that the woman has expressed a desire to become pregnant; and
- (c) the fact that the woman is likely, or is perceived as being likely, to become pregnant.

5B Unjustifiable hardship

For this Act, in deciding whether unjustifiable hardship would be imposed on a person by having to accommodate another person's protected attribute, all relevant circumstances must be taken into account, including the following:

- (a) the benefit or detriment likely to be received or experienced by each person;
- (b) the protected attributes of the other person;
- (c) the estimated cost to, and financial circumstances of, the person claiming unjustifiable hardship.

6 MLAs as employers

- (1) For this Act, a member of the Legislative Assembly (in his or her capacity as an office-holder or otherwise) is taken to be an employer in relation to a person who is, or who is seeking to be, employed under the Legislative Assembly (Members' Staff) Act 1989, section 5 or 10 as a member of the staff of the member.

- (2) In this section:

office-holder—see the Legislative Assembly (Members' Staff) Act 1989, dictionary.

6A Offences against Act—application of Criminal Code etc

Other legislation applies in relation to offences against this Act.

Note 1 Criminal Code

The Criminal Code, ch 2 applies to all offences against this Act (see Code, pt 2.1).

The chapter sets out the general principles of criminal responsibility (including burdens of proof and general defences), and defines terms used for offences to which the Code applies (eg conduct, intention, recklessness and strict liability).

Note 2 Penalty units

The Legislation Act, s 133 deals with the meaning of offence penalties that are expressed in penalty units.

Part 2 Discrimination to which Act applies

7 Protected attributes

- (1) This Act applies to discrimination on the ground of any of the following attributes (a protected attribute):

- (a) accommodation status;
- (b) age;

Examples—par (b)

because the person is a child or young person or an older person

- (c) association (whether as a relative or otherwise) with a person who is identified by reference to another protected attribute;
- (d) breastfeeding;
- (e) disability;
- (f) employment status;
- (g) gender identity;
- (h) genetic information;
- (i) immigration status;
- (j) industrial activity;
- (k) irrelevant criminal record;
- (l) parent, family, carer or kinship responsibilities;
- (m) physical features;
- (n) political conviction;
- (o) pregnancy;
- (p) profession, trade, occupation or calling;

- (q) race;
 - (r) record of a person's sex having been altered under the Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 1997 or a law of another jurisdiction that corresponds, or substantially, corresponds, to the Act, section 26 (Alteration of register);
 - (s) relationship status;
 - (t) religious conviction;
 - (u) sex;
 - (v) sex characteristics;
 - (w) sexuality;
 - (x) subjection to domestic or family violence.
- (2) For this Act, protected attribute includes—
- (a) a characteristic that people with the attribute generally have; and
 - (b) a characteristic that people with the attribute are generally presumed to have; and
 - (c) the attribute that a person has; and
 - (d) the attribute that a person has had in the past, whether or not the person still has the attribute; and
 - (e) the attribute that a person is thought to have, whether or not the person has the attribute; and
 - (f) the attribute that a person is thought to have had in the past, whether or not the person has had the attribute in the past.

8 Meaning of *discrimination

- (1) For this Act, discrimination occurs when a person discriminates either directly or indirectly, or both, against someone else.
- (2) For this section, a person directly discriminates against someone else if the person treats, or proposes to treat, another person unfavourably because the other person has 1 or more protected attributes.
- (3) For this section, a person indirectly discriminates against someone else if the person imposes, or proposes to impose, a condition or requirement that has, or is likely to have, the effect of disadvantaging the other person because the other person has 1 or more protected attributes.
- (4) However, a condition or requirement does not give rise to indirect discrimination if it is reasonable in the circumstances.
- (5) In deciding whether a condition or requirement is reasonable in the circumstances, the matters to be taken into account include—
 - (a) the nature and extent of any disadvantage that results from imposing the condition or requirement; and
 - (b) the feasibility of overcoming or mitigating the disadvantage; and
 - (c) whether the disadvantage is disproportionate to the result sought by the person who imposes, or proposes to impose, the condition or requirement.

Part 3 Unlawful discrimination

Division 3.1 Discrimination in work

10 Applicants and employees

- (1) It is unlawful for an employer to discriminate against a person—
 - (a) in the arrangements made for the purpose of deciding who should be offered employment; or
 - (b) in deciding who should be offered employment; or
 - (c) in the terms or conditions on which employment is offered.
- (2) It is unlawful for an employer to discriminate against an employee—
 - (a) in the terms or conditions of employment that the employer affords the employee; or
 - (b) by denying the employee access, or limiting the employee's access, to opportunities for promotion, transfer or training or to any other benefit associated with employment; or
 - (c) by dismissing the employee; or
 - (d) by subjecting the employee to any other detriment.
- (3) To remove any doubt, an employer discriminates against an employee if the employer denies the employee access to a benefit associated with employment because the employee is in a same-sex relationship.

Example of discrimination

denying an employee who is in a same-sex relationship access to parental leave that is available to other parents

- (4) Subsection (3) is in addition to, and does not limit, any other provision of this Act that provides what is, or is not, discrimination under this Act.

11 Employees—religious practice

It is unlawful for an employer to discriminate against an employee on the ground of religious conviction by refusing the employee permission to carry out a religious practice during working hours, being a practice—

- (a) of a kind recognised as necessary or desirable by people of the same religious conviction as that of the employee; and
- (b) the performance of which during working hours is reasonable having regard to the circumstances of the employment; and
- (c) that does not subject the employer to unreasonable detriment.

12 Commission agents

- (1) It is unlawful for a principal to discriminate against a person—
 - (a) in the arrangements made for the purpose of deciding who should be engaged as a commission agent; or
 - (b) in deciding who should be engaged as a commission agent; or
 - (c) in the terms or conditions on which engagement as a commission agent is offered.
- (2) It is unlawful for a principal to discriminate against a commission agent—
 - (a) in the terms or conditions that the principal affords the agent; or
 - (b) by denying the agent access, or limiting the agent's access, to opportunities for promotion, transfer or training or to any other benefit associated with the position as an agent; or
 - (c) by terminating the engagement; or
 - (d) by subjecting the agent to any other detriment.

13 Contract workers

It is unlawful for a principal to discriminate against a contract worker—

- (a) in the terms or conditions on which the principal allows the contract worker to work; or
- (b) by not allowing the contract worker to work or continue to work; or
- (c) by denying the contract worker access, or limiting the contract worker's access, to any benefit associated with the relevant work; or
- (d) by subjecting the contract worker to any other detriment.

14 Partnerships

- (1) It is unlawful for any people who are proposing to form themselves into a partnership to discriminate against a person—
 - (a) in deciding who should be invited to become a partner in the partnership; or
 - (b) in the terms or conditions on which the person is invited to become a partner in the partnership.
- (2) It is unlawful for a partner in a partnership to discriminate against a person—
 - (a) in deciding who should be invited to become a partner in the partnership; or
 - (b) in the terms or conditions on which the person is invited to become a partner in the partnership.

- (3) It is unlawful for a partner in a partnership to discriminate against another partner in the partnership—
- (a) by denying the partner access, or limiting the partner's access, to any benefit arising from being a partner in the partnership; or
 - (b) by expelling the partner from the partnership; or
 - (c) by subjecting the partner to any other detriment.

15 Professional or trade organisations

- (1) In this section:

organisation means an association or organisation of employers or employees.

- (2) It is unlawful for an organisation, the committee of management of an organisation or a member of the committee of management of an organisation to discriminate against a person who is not a member of the organisation—
- (a) by failing to accept the person's application for membership; or
 - (b) in the terms or conditions on which the organisation is prepared to admit the person to membership.

Note The Legislation Act, dict, pt 1 defines fail to include refuse.

- (3) It is unlawful for an organisation, the committee of management of an organisation or a member of the committee of management of an organisation to discriminate against a member of the organisation—
- (a) by denying the member access, or limiting the member's access, to any benefit provided by the organisation; or
 - (b) by depriving the member of membership or varying the terms of membership; or
 - (c) by subjecting the member to any other detriment.

16 Qualifying bodies

It is unlawful for an authority or body that is empowered to confer, renew, extend, revoke or withdraw an authorisation or qualification that is needed for or facilitates the practice of a profession, the carrying on of a trade or the engaging in of an occupation to discriminate against a person—

- (a) by failing to confer, renew or extend the authorisation or qualification; or
- (b) in the terms or conditions on which it is prepared to confer, renew or extend the authorisation or qualification; or
- (c) by revoking or withdrawing the authorisation or qualification or varying the terms or conditions on which it is held; or
- (d) by subjecting the person to any other detriment.

Note The Legislation Act, dict, pt 1 defines fail to include refuse.

17 Employment agencies

It is unlawful for an employment agency to discriminate against a person—

- (a) by refusing to provide the person with any of its services; or
- (b) in the terms or conditions on which it offers to provide the person with any of its services; or
- (c) in the way in which it provides the person with any of its services; or
- (d) by subjecting the person to any other detriment.

Division 3.2 Discrimination in other areas

18 Education

- (1) It is unlawful for an educational authority to discriminate against a person—
- (a) by failing to accept the person's application for admission as a student; or
 - (b) in the terms or conditions on which it is prepared to admit the person as a student.

Note The Legislation Act, dict, pt 1 defines fail to include refuse.

- (2) It is unlawful for an educational authority to discriminate against a student—
- (a) by denying the student access, or limiting the student's access, to any benefit provided by the authority; or
 - (b) by expelling the student; or
 - (c) by subjecting the student to any other detriment.

19 Access to premises

It is unlawful for a person to discriminate against another person—

- (a) by refusing to allow the other person access to, or the use of, any premises (public premises) that the public or a section of the public is entitled or allowed to enter or use (whether for payment or not); or
- (b) in the terms or conditions on which the discriminator is prepared to allow the other person access to, or the use of, public premises; or
- (c) in relation to the provision of means of access to public premises; or

- (d) by refusing to allow the other person the use of any facilities (public facilities) in public premises that the public or a section of the public is entitled or allowed to use (whether for payment or not); or
- (e) in the terms or conditions on which the discriminator is prepared to allow the other person the use of public facilities; or
- (f) by requiring the other person to leave public premises or cease to use such facilities.

20 Goods, services and facilities

It is unlawful for a person (the provider) who (whether for payment or not) provides goods or services, or makes facilities available, to discriminate against another person—

- (a) by refusing to provide those goods or services or make those facilities available to the other person; or
- (b) in the terms or conditions on which the provider provides those goods or services or makes those facilities available to the other person; or
- (c) in the way in which the provider provides those goods or services or makes those facilities available to the other person.

21 Accommodation

- (1) It is unlawful for a person (whether as principal or agent) to discriminate against another person—
 - (a) by refusing the other person's application for accommodation; or
 - (b) in the terms or conditions on which accommodation is offered to the other person; or

- (c) by deferring the other person's application for accommodation or according to the other person a lower order of precedence in any list of applicants for that accommodation.
- (2) It is unlawful for a person (whether as principal or agent) to discriminate against another person—
 - (a) by denying the other person access, or limiting the other person's access, to any benefit associated with accommodation occupied by the other person; or
 - (b) by evicting the other person from accommodation occupied by the other person; or
 - (c) by subjecting the other person to any other detriment in relation to accommodation occupied by the other person.

22 Clubs

- (1) It is unlawful for a club, the committee of management of a club or a member of the committee of management of a club to discriminate against a person who is not a member of the club—
 - (a) by failing to accept the person's application for membership; or
 - (b) in the terms or conditions on which the club is prepared to admit the person to membership.
- Note* The Legislation Act, dict, pt 1 defines fail to include refuse.
- (2) It is unlawful for a club, the committee of management of a club or a member of the committee of management of a club to discriminate against a member of the club—
 - (a) in the terms or conditions of membership that are afforded to the member; or
 - (b) by failing to accept the member's application for a particular class or type of membership; or

- (c) by denying the member access, or limiting the member's access, to any benefit provided by the club; or
- (d) by depriving the member of membership or varying the terms of membership; or
- (e) by subjecting the member to any other detriment.

23 Requests etc for information

It is unlawful for a person to discriminate against another person by requesting or requiring information (whether by way of completing a form or otherwise) in connection with, or for the purpose of performing, an act that is or would be unlawful under any other provision of this part or under part 5, 6 or 7.

23A Sporting activities

It is unlawful for a person responsible for the organisation or administration of a formally organised sporting activity (including a coach or manager) to discriminate against another person in relation to participation in the activity.

Examples—formally organised sporting activity

- basketball competition organised by a private school
- dodgeball league match

Examples—informally organised sporting activity

- backyard cricket match between friends
- game at a child's birthday party

23B Competitions

It is unlawful for a person responsible for the organisation or administration of a formally organised competition to discriminate against another person in relation to participation in the competition.

Examples—formally organised competition

- singing competition organised by a commercial radio station
- weekend chess competition for individuals under 18 years old
- short film festival run by a not-for-profit organisation

23C Administration of territory laws etc

- (1) It is unlawful for a public authority to discriminate against a person when administering a territory law, or an ACT government program or policy.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not—
 - (a) affect the law relating to the privileges of the Legislative Assembly; or
 - (b) apply to—
 - (i) for the Office of the Legislative Assembly—an act done, or a practice engaged in, by the Office when exercising a function in relation to a proceeding of the Legislative Assembly; or
 - (ii) for an ACT court—an act done, or a practice engaged in, by the ACT court other than an act done, or a practice engaged in, by the ACT court in relation to a matter of an administrative nature; or
 - (iii) the doing of an act mentioned in section 18 (whether or not the act is done by an educational authority).

(3) In this section:

ACT court—

- (a) means the Supreme Court, Magistrates Court, Coroner’s Court or a tribunal; and
- (b) includes a judge, magistrate, tribunal member or any other person exercising a function of the court or tribunal in relation to the hearing or determination of a proceeding before the court or tribunal.

administering, a territory law or ACT government program or policy, includes exercising a function under the law or carrying out the program or policy.

function of a public nature—see the Human Rights Act 2004, section 40A.

public authority means any of the following:

- (a) an administrative unit;
- (b) a territory authority;
- (c) a territory instrumentality;
- (d) a Minister;
- (e) a public employee;
- (f) an entity whose functions are or include functions of a public nature, when it is exercising those functions for the Territory or an entity mentioned in paragraph (a) to (e) (whether or not under contract).

Part 4 Exceptions to unlawful discrimination

Division 4.1 General exceptions

24 Domestic duties

Section 10 (1) (a) or (b) or section 13 (b) does not make it unlawful for a person (the first person) to discriminate against someone else in relation to a position as an employee or contract worker if—

- (a) the duties of the position involve doing domestic duties on the premises where the first person lives; and
- (b) the discrimination is reasonable, proportionate and justifiable in the circumstances.

25 Residential care of children

Section 10 (1) (a) or (b) or section 13 (b) does not make it unlawful for a person to discriminate against someone else in relation to a position as an employee or contract worker if the duties of the position involve the care of a child where the child lives.

25A Adoption

This Act does not prevent the director-general responsible for administering the Adoption Act 1993 from discriminating against a person in making a decision—

- (a) under the Adoption Act 1993, section 18 in relation to the approval of a person to be registered as suitable for the placement of a child or young person for adoption; or
- (b) under the Adoption Act 1993, section 19 in relation to the removal of a person's name from the register of suitable people; or

- (c) under the Adoption Act 1993, section 35A in relation to the placement of a child or young person before adoption in the care of a person who is on the register of suitable people.

26 Domestic accommodation etc

- (1) Section 21 does not make unlawful discrimination in relation to—
 - (a) the provision of accommodation if—
 - (i) the person who provides or proposes to provide the accommodation, or a near relative or carer of the person, lives and intends to continue to live on the premises; and
 - (ii) the accommodation provided in the premises is for not more than 6 people, not including the person mentioned in subparagraph (i) and any near relative or carer of the person; or
 - (b) the provision of accommodation by a charitable or voluntary body for members of a relevant class of people.
- (2) Also, section 21 does not make it unlawful for a person to discriminate on the ground of accommodation status in relation to the provision of accommodation if the discrimination is reasonable, having regard to any relevant factors.

Example—relevant factors effect of the discrimination on the person discriminated against

- (3) In this section:
near relative, of a person, means—
 - (a) a parent, child, grandparent, grandchild, brother or sister of the person; or
 - (b) a domestic partner of the person or of a person mentioned in paragraph (a).

Note For the meaning of domestic partner, see Legislation Act, s 169.

26A Preselection by employment agencies

Part 3 or part 4 does not make unlawful discrimination by an employment agency in the selection of people as suitable for a job vacancy if, had the proposed employer discriminated against the person in the same way, the discrimination would not have been unlawful.

27 Measures intended to achieve equality

- (1) Part 3 does not make it unlawful to do an act if a purpose of the act is—
 - (a) to ensure that members of a relevant class of people have equal opportunities with other people; or
 - (b) to give members of a relevant class of people access to facilities, services or opportunities to meet the special needs they have as members of the relevant class.
- (2) However, subsection (1) does not make it lawful to do an act for a purpose mentioned in that subsection if the act discriminates against a member of the relevant class in a way that is not reasonable for the achievement of that purpose.

Example for s (1) (a)

An employer runs a management skills development course for female employees only. Part 3 does not make this unlawful if a purpose is to ensure that women have equal opportunities (in this case, for career development) with men. Women are ‘members of a relevant class of people’ (relevant class of people is defined in the dict) because they are a class of people whose members are identified by reference to a protected attribute, in this case, sex in s 7 (1) (u).

Example for s (1) (b)

A health clinic provides speech therapy for autistic children only. Part 3 does not make this unlawful if a purpose is to give autistic children access to a service that meets their special needs as autistic children. Autistic children are ‘members of a relevant class of people’ because they are a class of people whose members are identified by reference to 2 attributes mentioned in s 7, in this case, disability in s 7 (1) (e) and age in s 7 (1) (b) (the Legislation Act, s 145 (b) provides that words in the singular include the plural ie ‘attribute’ in the def of relevant class of people can mean ‘attributes’).

28 Insurance and superannuation

- (1) This section applies to a person providing insurance or superannuation services (the insurance or superannuation services provider) who discriminates against another person (the consumer) in relation to the terms on which—
 - (a) an annuity or insurance policy is offered or provided to the consumer; or
 - (b) membership of a superannuation or provident fund or scheme is offered or provided to the consumer.
- (2) Part 3 does not make it unlawful for the insurance or superannuation services provider to discriminate against the consumer if—
 - (a) the discrimination is based on—
 - (i) actuarial or statistical data; or
 - (ii) when actuarial and statistical data is unavailable—other relevant documents; and
 - (b) it is reasonable for the insurance or superannuation services provider to rely on the data or other documents; and
 - (c) the discrimination is reasonable, proportionate and justifiable in the circumstances.

- (3) If the consumer requests access to the data or other documents, the insurance or superannuation services provider must—
 - (a) give the consumer a copy of the data or other documents, or a meaningful explanation of the data or other documents in writing; or
 - (b) make the data or other documents available for inspection at a reasonable time and place.

30 Acts done under statutory authority etc

- (1) This Act does not make unlawful anything done necessarily for the purpose of complying with a requirement of—
 - (a) a territory law; or
 - (b) a determination or direction made under a territory law; or
 - (c) an order of a court; or
 - (d) an order of the ACAT.
- (2) The Minister may declare that subsection (1) (a) and (b) expire on a day stated in the declaration.
- (3) The declaration is a notifiable instrument.
- (4) Subsection (1) (a) and (b) and this subsection expire on the day stated in the declaration.

31 Clubs and voluntary bodies

Part 3 does not make it unlawful for a club or voluntary body, or the committee of management or a member of the committee of management of the club or body, to discriminate against a person if—

- (a) the club or body is established to benefit a class of people sharing a protected attribute; and

- (b) the discrimination—
 - (i) is in relation to the provision of membership, benefits, facilities or services to the person; and
 - (ii) occurs because the person does not have the protected attribute; and
 - (iii) is reasonable, proportionate and justifiable in the circumstances.

32 Religious bodies

- (1) Part 3 does not make it unlawful for a religious body to discriminate against a person in relation to the following:
 - (a) the ordination or appointment, by the body, of priests, ministers of religion or members of an order;
 - (b) the training or education of people seeking ordination or appointment, by the body, as priests, ministers of religion or members of an order;
 - (c) the selection or appointment of people to exercise functions for, or in relation to, any religious observance or practice by the body;
 - (d) the provision by the body of goods, services or facilities to the public if—
 - (i) the discrimination—
 - (A) is on the ground of religious conviction only; and
 - (B) conforms to the doctrines, tenets or beliefs of the body's religion; and
 - (C) is necessary to avoid injury to the religious susceptibilities of adherents of the religion; and

- (ii) the body has published its policy in relation to the provision of goods, services or facilities; and
 - (iii) the policy is readily accessible to the public;
- (e) employment by the body if—
 - (i) the discrimination—
 - (A) is on the ground of religious conviction only; and
 - (B) conforms to the doctrines, tenets or beliefs of the body's religion; and
 - (C) is necessary to avoid injury to the religious susceptibilities of adherents of the religion; and
 - (ii) the body has published its policy in relation to employment with the body; and
 - (iii) the policy is readily accessible to the public;
- (f) the provision by the body of accommodation for members of a relevant class of people;
- (g) any other act or practice of the body that—
 - (i) conforms to the doctrines, tenets or beliefs of the body's religion; and
 - (ii) is necessary to avoid injury to the religious susceptibilities of adherents of the religion.
- (2) Subsection (1) (d) to (g) does not apply to discrimination in relation to—
 - (a) employment of a person at an educational institution; or
 - (b) admission, treatment or continued enrolment of a person as a student at an educational institution.
- (3) Subsection (1) does not apply to a religious body whose sole or main purpose is a commercial purpose.

33A Discrimination relating to accommodation, goods or services etc

Part 3 does not make it unlawful to discriminate against a person in relation to accommodation, providing goods or services or making facilities available only because a person charges for the accommodation, goods, services or facilities.

33B Genuine occupational qualifications

- (1) Part 3 does not make it unlawful to discriminate against a person in relation to a position as an employee, commission agent, contract worker or business partner if—

- (a) it is a genuine occupational qualification of the position that the position be filled by a person having a particular protected attribute; and
- (b) the discrimination is reasonable, proportionate and justifiable in the circumstances.

Examples—genuine occupational qualifications

- employing a female carer to provide personal care services for a woman on the basis of privacy or modesty
 - selecting a person of a particular race for a role in a theatrical performance on the basis of authenticity, aesthetics or tradition
 - preferencing people with lived experience of family and domestic violence for peer support positions in a women's crisis centre
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to discrimination on the ground of religious conviction.

33C Inherent requirements of employment

Part 3 does not make it unlawful for an employer to discriminate against another person (a prospective employee) in relation to a position of employment if—

- (a) the prospective employee is, or would be, unable to carry out the inherent requirements of the position—
 - (i) because of the prospective employee's protected attribute; and
 - (ii) regardless of any reasonable adjustments able to be made by the employer in accordance with section 74; and
- (b) the discrimination is reasonable, proportionate and justifiable in the circumstances.

33D Competitions—age

Section 23B (Competitions) does not make it unlawful to discriminate on the ground of age by limiting participation in a competition to people belonging to a particular age group.

Division 4.2 Exceptions about sex, relationship status, pregnancy or breastfeeding

35 Employment of couple

Part 3 does not make unlawful discrimination against a person on the grounds of relationship status in relation to a job that is 1 of 2 jobs to be held by a couple in a domestic partnership.

Note For the meaning of domestic partnership, see Legislation Act, s 169.

36 Educational institutions for members of one sex

Section 18 does not make unlawful discrimination on the ground of sex in relation to a failure to accept a person's application for admission as a student at an educational institution that is conducted solely for students of a different sex to that of the applicant.

Note The Legislation Act, dict, pt 1 defines fail to include refuse.

37 Pregnancy, childbirth or breastfeeding

Part 3 does not make it unlawful for a person to discriminate against another person on the ground of the other person's sex only because the first person gives rights or privileges in relation to pregnancy, childbirth or breastfeeding to other people.

38 Services for members of one sex

Part 3 does not make unlawful discrimination on the ground of sex in relation to the provision of services the nature of which is such that they can only be provided to members of one sex.

39 Accommodation provided for employees, contract workers or students

- (1) Part 3, in its application in relation to discrimination on the ground of sex, relationship status, pregnancy or breastfeeding, does not make it unlawful for an employer or principal who provides accommodation to employees or contract workers to provide accommodation of different standards to different employees or contract workers if—
 - (a) the standard of the accommodation provided is decided having regard to the number of people in the household of the employee or contract worker; and
 - (b) it is not reasonable to expect the employer or principal to provide accommodation of the same standard for all employees or contract workers.

- (2) Part 3 does not make unlawful discrimination on the ground of sex in relation to the provision of accommodation if the accommodation is provided solely for people of one sex who are students at an educational institution.

41 Sporting activities—sex

- (1) Section 23A (Sporting activities) does not make it unlawful to discriminate on the ground of sex by excluding people of one sex from participation in any formally organised competitive sporting activity if—
- (a) the strength, stamina or physique of competitors is relevant; and
 - (b) the discrimination is reasonable, proportionate and justifiable in the circumstances.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to the following kinds of discrimination:
- (a) the exclusion of people from participation in—
 - (i) the coaching of people engaged in any sporting activity; or
 - (ii) the umpiring or refereeing of any sporting activity; or
 - (iii) the administration of any sporting activity; or
 - (iv) any other formally organised competitive sporting activity prescribed by regulation;
 - (b) discrimination against a child under 12 years old.

Division 4.4 Exceptions relating to religious or political convictions

44 Religious workers

Section 10 (1) (a) or (b), section 12 (1) (a) or (b), section 13 (b) or section 14 (1) (a) or (2) (a) does not make unlawful—

- (a) discrimination on the ground of religious conviction by an educational authority in relation to employment or work in an educational institution conducted by the authority; or
- (b) discrimination on the ground of religious conviction by a religious body in relation to employment or work in a hospital or other place conducted by the body in which health services are provided;

if the duties of the employment or work involve, or would involve, the participation by the employee or worker in the teaching or practice of the relevant religion.

45 Political workers etc

Section 10 (1) (a) or (b), section 12 (1) (a) or (b), section 13 (b) or section 14 (1) (a) or (2) (a) does not make unlawful discrimination on the ground of political conviction in relation to employment or work—

- (a) as an adviser to, or a member of the staff of, a Minister, the Speaker of the Legislative Assembly or a member of the Legislative Assembly; or
- (b) as an officer or employee of, or a worker for, a political party; or
- (c) as a member of the electoral staff of a person; or
- (d) in any other similar employment or work.

46 Religious educational institutions

- (1) Section 18 does not make unlawful discrimination on the ground of religious conviction in relation to a failure to accept a person's application for admission as a student at an educational institution that is conducted solely for students having a religious conviction other than that of the applicant.

Note The Legislation Act, dict, pt 1 defines fail to include refuse.

- (2) Section 10 or section 13 does not make unlawful discrimination on the ground of religious conviction in relation to staff matters at an educational institution if—
- (a) the institution is conducted in accordance with the doctrines, tenets, beliefs or teaching of a particular religion or creed; and
 - (b) the discrimination is intended to enable, or better enable, the institution to be conducted in accordance with those doctrines, tenets, beliefs or teachings.
- (3) Subsection (1) does not apply unless—
- (a) the educational institution has published its policy in relation to student matters; and
 - (b) the policy is readily accessible by prospective and current students at the institution.
- (4) Subsection (2) does not apply unless—
- (a) the educational institution has published its policy in relation to staff matters; and
 - (b) the policy is readily accessible by prospective and current employees and contractors of the institution.

- (5) In this section:

staff matters, in relation to an educational institution, means—

- (a) the employment of a member of staff of the institution; or
- (b) the engagement of a contractor to do work in the institution.

student matters, in relation to an educational institution, means the admission of a student at the institution.

Division 4.5 Exceptions relating to disability

50 Discrimination by qualifying bodies etc

- (1) Section 16 does not make unlawful discrimination by an authority or body against a person on the ground of disability if the authority or body believes on reasonable grounds that, because of a disability, the person is, or would be, unable to carry out work that is essential to the position concerned.

- (2) In this section:

disability does not include anything mentioned in—

- (a) section 5AA (2) (b) or (c) (Meaning of disability etc); or
- (b) section 7 (2) (Protected attributes), other than a disability that the person has.

51 Discrimination by educational institutions

- (1) Section 18 does not make unlawful discrimination on the ground of disability in relation to a failure to accept a person's application for admission as a student at an educational institution that is conducted solely for students with a disability that the applicant does not have.

Note The Legislation Act, dict, pt 1 defines fail to include refuse.

- (2) Section 18 does not make unlawful discrimination on the ground of disability in relation to a failure to accept an application by a person with a disability for admission as a student at an educational institution if the person, if so admitted, would require services or facilities that are not required by students who do not have a disability, the provision of which would impose unjustifiable hardship on the relevant educational authority.

52 Discrimination relating to access to premises

- (1) Section 19 does not make unlawful discrimination on the ground of disability in relation to the provision of access to premises if—
- (a) the premises are so designed or constructed as to be inaccessible to a person with a disability; and
 - (b) any alteration of the premises to provide such access would impose unjustifiable hardship on the person who would have to provide that access.
- (2) The Minister may declare that subsection (1) does not apply to a building the construction of which begins on or after a day stated in the declaration.
- (3) The declaration is a notifiable instrument.
- (4) Subsection (1) does not apply to a building the construction of which begins on or after a day stated in the declaration.
- (5) For this section, the construction of a building begins on the day when a building approval for the erection of the building is granted under the Building Act 2004.

53 Discrimination in the provision of goods and services

- (1) Section 20 does not make unlawful discrimination on the ground of disability in relation to the provision of goods, services or facilities if—
- (a) because of a person's disability, the goods, services or facilities would have to be provided in a special way; and
 - (b) their provision in that way would impose unjustifiable hardship on the person providing, or proposing to provide, the goods, services or facilities.
- (2) In this section:
- services* includes services provided by an employment agency.

54 Discrimination relating to accommodation

Section 21 does not make unlawful discrimination on the ground of disability in relation to the provision of accommodation to a person with a disability if special services or facilities are, or would be, required by the person and their provision would impose unjustifiable hardship on the person providing or proposing to provide the accommodation.

56 Public health

Part 3 does not make unlawful discrimination against a person on the ground of disability if the discrimination is necessary and reasonable to protect public health.

57 Sporting activities—disability

- (1) Section 23A (Sporting activities) does not make it unlawful to discriminate on the ground of disability by excluding a person from participation in any formally organised competitive sporting activity if—
- (a) the discrimination is reasonable, proportionate and justifiable in the circumstances and—
 - (i) the person is not reasonably capable of performing the actions reasonably required in relation to the sporting activity; or
 - (ii) the people participating in the sporting activity are selected in a reasonable way on the basis of their skills and abilities relevant to the sporting activity and relative to each other; or
 - (b) the activity is conducted for, or mainly for, people who have a particular kind of disability and the person does not have a disability of that kind.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply in relation to the exclusion of people from participation in—
- (a) the coaching of people engaged in any sporting activity; or
 - (b) the umpiring or refereeing of any sporting activity; or
 - (c) the administration of any sporting activity; or
 - (d) any other formally organised competitive sporting activity prescribed by regulation.

Division 4.6 Exceptions relating to age

57B Youth wages

- (1) This section applies if an award provides for the payment of reduced wages to employees under 21 years old.
- (2) If this section applies, section 10 (1) or (2) (a) or (b) does not make it unlawful for an employer to discriminate against a person on the ground of age—
 - (a) if the person is 21 years old or older—in relation to the offer of employment to a person under 21 years old; or
 - (b) if the person is under 21 years old—in relation to the payment of reduced wages to the person in accordance with the award.
- (3) In this section:

69 Unlawful advertising

It is unlawful for a person to advertise any matter—

- (a) that indicates an intention to do an act that is unlawful under part 3, part 5 or this part; or
- (b) that could reasonably be understood as indicating such an intention.

Part 8 General principles about unlawful acts

70 Onus of establishing exception etc

If, apart from an exception, exemption, excuse, qualification or justification under this Act, conduct would be an unlawful act, the onus of establishing the exception, exemption, excuse, qualification or justification lies on the person seeking to rely on it.

71 Unlawful act not an offence

The doing of an act is not an offence only because it is an unlawful act.

72 Unlawful act no basis for civil action

This Act does not give a person any right of action in relation to the doing of an act that is an unlawful act.

73 Aiding etc unlawful acts

A person who aids, abets, counsels or procures someone else to do an act that is an unlawful act is taken, for this Act, also to have done the act.

Part 9 Positive duties

74 Positive duty to make reasonable adjustments

- (1) A person must make reasonable adjustments to accommodate another person's particular needs arising from a protected attribute if discrimination on the ground of the attribute is unlawful under this Act.
- (2) For subsection (1), an adjustment is not reasonable if it would cause unjustifiable hardship to the person making the adjustment.
- (3) Failure to make reasonable adjustments in accordance with this section is an unlawful act.

75 Positive duty to eliminate discrimination, sexual harassment and unlawful vilification

- (1) This section applies to an organisation or business, and any individual with organisational management responsibility for an organisation or business, required under this Act not to engage in discrimination, sexual harassment or unlawful vilification in particular circumstances.

Examples—organisation

- educational authority
- sporting club
- church

Examples—individual with organisational management responsibility

- sole trader
- chancellor or vice-chancellor at a university
- owner of a small private business

- (2) The organisation, business or individual must take reasonable and proportionate steps to eliminate the discrimination, sexual harassment and unlawful vilification.

- (3) In deciding whether steps are reasonable and proportionate, all the circumstances must be considered, including the following:
- (a) the nature and size of the organisation or business;
 - (b) the resources of the organisation, business or individual;
 - (c) the business or operational priorities of the organisation, business or individual;
 - (d) practicability and cost of the steps.
- (4) However, this section does not apply to—
- (a) an administrative unit, territory authority or territory instrumentality until 12 months after the commencement day; or
 - (b) an individual with organisational management responsibility for an entity mentioned in paragraph (a) until 12 months after the commencement day; or
 - (c) any other person until 3 years after the commencement day.
- (5) This subsection, subsection (4) and subsection (6), definition of commencement day expire 3 years after the commencement day.
- (6) In this section:
- commencement day means the day the Discrimination Amendment Act 2023, section 3 commences.
- organisational management responsibility, in relation to an organisation or business, means responsibility for controlling or directing the organisation or business.

76 Exception or exemption for positive duties

A duty under section 74 or section 75 does not apply to a person to the extent that—

- (a) an exception under part 4 applies to make the discrimination lawful; or
- (b) the person is, under part 10, exempt from a provision of this Act that makes the discrimination unlawful.

Part 10 Exemptions

109 Grant of exemptions

- (1) The HRC may, on written application, exempt the applicant from the operation of a specified provision of part 3, part 5 or part 7.
- (2) The HRC may, on a written application made—
 - (a) by a person to whom an exemption has been granted; and
 - (b) before expiry of that exemption;further exempt the applicant from the operation of the provision concerned.
- (3) In the exercise of a power under subsection (1) or subsection (2), the matters to which the HRC must have regard include the following matters:
 - (a) the need to promote an acceptance of, and compliance with, this Act;
 - (b) the desirability, if relevant, of certain discriminatory actions being permitted for the purpose of redressing the effects of past discrimination.
- (4) An exemption or further exemption—
 - (a) is a notifiable instrument; and
 - (b) is subject to the conditions (if any) specified in the notice; and
 - (c) has effect according to its terms for the period not longer than 3 years specified in the notice.
- (5) If the HRC refuses to grant an exemption or a further exemption, the HRC must give the applicant or each applicant written notice of the refusal.
- (6) A notice mentioned in subsection (4) or (5) is a reviewable decision notice.

110 Review by ACAT

Endnotes

1 About the endnotes

Amending and modifying laws are annotated in the legislation history and the amendment history. Current modifications are not included in the republished law but are set out in the endnotes.

Not all editorial amendments made under the Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 are annotated in the amendment history. Full details of any amendments can be obtained from the Parliamentary Counsel's Office.

Uncommenced amending laws are not included in the republished law. The details of these laws are underlined in the legislation history. Uncommenced expiries are underlined in the legislation history and amendment history.

If all the provisions of the law have been renumbered, a table of renumbered provisions gives details of previous and current numbering.

The endnotes also include a table of earlier republications.

5 Earlier republications

Some earlier republications were not numbered. The number in column 1 refers to the publication order.

Since 12 September 2001 every authorised republication has been published in electronic pdf format on the ACT legislation register. A selection of authorised republications have also been published in printed format. These republications are marked with an asterisk (*) in column 1. Electronic and printed versions of an authorised republication are identical.
